at the 14th Annual Mock Family Conference

For Her Outstanding Contributions
And Dedication to Mock Genealogy

October 23, 2004 Columbus, Ohio

Marilyn has done an extraordinary job of researching the Jacob and Elizabeth Rawlings Mock of Loudoun Co., Virginia. Every item in her latest printing of 350+ pages is documented and includes an index and 4,118 Endnotes. Her book is indeed a masterpiece.

Congratulations, Marilyn for your valuable contribution to Mock Family research!

Conference Highlights

Barbara Dittig

This was another successful Mock gathering thanks to our "Ohio Scouts", Hal Smith, Pat Berens and Marilyn Pohlman. Hal was a wonderful host. He had selected the hotel (which was delightful), and also the 94th Aero Squadron Restaurant for the Saturday night traditional Mock supper. Pat and Marilyn had supplied us with detailed information on the many fine research libraries in and around Columbus.

This year's conference attendees were an enthusiastic group. It was fun meeting and getting acquainted with their new "cousins" at the Friday evening Welcome Reception, followed by a very enjoyable dinner at the "Cheese Factory" near by.

Saturday morning our speaker, Ernest Thode, assisted by his wife, spoke on the German migrations into early Ohio. Doug Mauck gave his annual refresher course, "DNA 101" (see Doug's column). What a nice surprise to see Jeff Mock drop in. He and his wife were visiting their son in Michigan and Jeff decided to drive down for the morning meetings (a 3-hour drive). Jeff lives in So. California and is a descendant of Rudolph Mauk.

Saturday afternoon Pat, who is a volunteer at the Palatines to America Library, opened the library for those of us who wanted to do some research. This is where Marilyn came across the booklets of the Melvin Summers Mock research. She has transcribed the data and it can be found on the Mock Internet.

The Sunday morning meeting was a chance to get together once more. One of the topics - "Do we want to do this again next year?" No conclusions, but if anyone is willing to host a conference, please let me know. It was also discussed that we might consider linking up with a national conference that would be of interest to the group. We could also consider skipping a year.

After the Sunday morning wrap up session. Hal & his wife, Lou gave my husband Jim and me a delightful tour of Columbus, including old German town. It was a beautiful day and the colors were still vibrant.

Newcomers attending were: Marcia Franks from Worthington, OH (Alexander Mack). Margaret Mock Endicott from Columbus, a new found cousin of Marilyn Pohlman, Bonnie McKee, (Rudolph Mauk) from Warsaw, KY; Gary Confoey and his parents, Gwenneth and George. The Confoeys live in Berlin Center, OH and are researching Frederick and Sarah Rhodes Mock who lived in Berlin Center in the early 1800's. Gary is hot on the trail of a Alexander Mack direct descendant for the DNA project. Darrel Muck (Henry Mock of Lancaster Co., PA) resides in Malvern, PA. Pat Berens is an active member of the Mock-Gen-L group. Her immigrant ancestor was Johannes Mack from Neckartenzlingen. This was Melba Mauck Treaster's 2nd conference. Melba (Peter Mauk of VA) lives in Fort Collins, CO. A true researcher, she was on an extended car trip, 3,000 miles. Also attending were our long time faithfuls, Marilyn & Jack Pohlman, Doug & Jan Mauck and the Dittigs.

Y-DNA UPDATE

Doug Mauck

We now have 60 participants in our project! I remember when we started the project in 2002, we worried that we would have difficulty getting the six participants that were required to get a group discount! So far, the project has revealed several items:

1. We discovered that five of our participants, who were strangers when the project started, are very closely related through a recent ancestor that has yet to be found on paper. In addition, these five participants display the Jewish Kohenim Y-DNA pattern that dates back to the priests of ancient Israel!
2. We have found matches between ten of our participants that apparently connect back to Rudolph Mauck (d.1750 VA, Chart 40) through different descendants of Rudolph. The paper documentation of the relationship to Rudolph is still not found, but we know to keep looking.
3. One participant's family lived close to a Mock and his mother later married this Mock. The participant heard rumors for years that this Mock was his true father. He further stated that if that was so, his Y-DNA would match a certain line that we had already documented. He took the test, and sure enough, his Y-DNA matched that line.
4. Another participant with the surname MOTE was unable to find old ancestors and wondered if MOCK had become MOTE in some generation. When he took the DNA test, he was not close to any MOCK participant, so he moved his results to his own MOTE-MOTES-MOATS project. We currently have people with surnames other than MOCK participating at our group rate with similar goals.
5. We have had some female participants who were able to take advantage of our group rate to test their maternal heritage through mtDNA and others who have submitted DNA samples to test their ethnic background through DNAPlus. DNAPlus measures the markers that one has that belong to East Asian, Sub-Saharan African, European, and Native American populations.
6. Still another participant bears a surname that a recent male ancestor fabricated when he ran away from an abusive home as a child. The ancestor died without telling anyone the true surname. The participant hopes to find a match (or several) with a surname project that will assist him in finding his ancestors.

Thomas Mock of Effingham Co., GA*Submitted by Gary Mock*

Under working chart 45 – Thomas Mock/Mary Weinkauff, there is a remark "This Isham Mock not on Ida Boyce's chart. Who are these Mock's". I will explain who they are. Isham Carroll and my Great Grand father were brothers.

Robert Jefferson Mock

Robert Jefferson Mock was born 13 October 1850. Robert is the second son of Mathias Elmore Mock and Catherine Ann Moore. His brother, Isham Carroll Mock was born 7 November 1850.

Mathais Elmore Mock is the son of Mathias Mathew Mock. Mathais Elmore died when he was 29 years old. This was the missing link in our research. In the 1860 census records we couldn't find Catherine Ann (Moore) Mock so we started researching marriages and found that she married a John G. Fletcher. We researched the 1860 census for a John G. Fletcher and there we found Catherine Ann and two boys Isham and Robert.

John G. Fletcher was originally married to Barbara Mariah Mock, sister to Isham and Robert's dad Mathias Elmore Mock. So, John G. Fletcher was an uncle by marriage. Isham and Robert were raised by John G. Fletcher. – This could explain why Ida Boyce's chart doesn't show who Isham and Robert are. ("Who are these Mock's")

My great grandfather Robert Jefferson also died when my grand father was 5. My grandfather was raised by William Delaney. So for two generations my Mock's were raised by a step fathers.

Robert Jefferson Mock's first wife was Julia Crenshaw. We're not sure when Julia Crenshaw died. They had one child Felix Elmer Mock. I suspect from family stories she might has died shortly after Felix was born.

Robert Jefferson Mock didn't remarry until he married my g- grand mother Mary Piland in 1890.

If you would like - you may add Tracy and my name for Mock family Researchers for Arkansas. When we were doing our research, we could trace every Mock in the Arkansas area.

Descendant of Alexander Mack*Submitted by Jennifer Brown*

I wrote to you some time back regarding the Sally Mack/Daniel Spohn link for your Mock Family working chart [Alexander Mack #00]. I believe I have compiled enough information to make that link in the family tree.

Ed. Note: The following is a condensed version [the Mack/Spohn link] of Jennifer's very complete report on the Spohn family.

Sarah "Sally" Mack b. ca1778; d. 1839 Richland Co., OH, d/o William Mack and Agnes Gantz; m. 1803 Daniel Spohn b. 1775 PA, s/o Martin Spohn; d. 1865 Richland Co., OH

1850/1860 Census Butler, Worthington Twp., Richland Co, OH; 1830 Census - W. Bethlehem Twp, Washington Co, PA; religion: Dunkard, Church of the Brethren.

1 - Martin Spohn b. ca1804 Washington Co, PA; m.

Mary Moser b. ca1804; d. 1863

Spohn, Martin, farmer; P. O. Butler. His grandfather, Martin Spohn, Sr., was a Dunkard preacher, and was born in Washington Co., Penn., near old Philadelphia; in 1744, he took what was called the "tomahawk-right improvement," which consisted in marking trees so as to inclose 160 acres of land, for which, after a specified time had elapsed, he was to pay the Government a certain sum of money, about $17 or $18. He married Mary Leatherman. He was both farmer and shoemaker; twice per year he crossed the mountains, with two horses and pack-saddles, for leather and salt. His first wife had two sons and a daughter when she died; he afterward married a Miss Donahue, and at 95 years of age he died. His youngest son, Daniel, was born in 1775; he was a farmer; he married Sarah Mack, and came to Richland Co. in 1837, where he owned the Wilson estate at Independence; he laid out the town of Independence in 1850; his family consisted of two sons and five daughters; his wife died in 1839, he lived till 1864, when he lost his life by falling into the fire-place. Martin the eldest son was born in Washington Co., Penn., in 1804; farmed till 1826, when he followed distilling for two and one-half years; then resumed farming. He married Mary Moser, of Smithfield, Fayette Co., Penn.; they became the parents of five sons and two daughters; his wife died in 1863; was married the same year to Sarah Hersh, formerly Sarah Swigart, who, by her first marriage, had fifteen children; they came to Ohio in 1832, and entered 80 acres in Tuscarawas Co.; lived there six years, and in 1838, came to Richland Co., where they bought 80 acres; Mr. Spohn, to 1854, bought 80 acres more, and, in 1860, 15 1/4 acres. He owns 175 1/2 acres of land at present. Paid freely to clear the township of the draft. He belongs to the Ankneytown Dunkard Church.

George & Polly Turner Mauck of Rockingham Co., VA

Submitted by Esther A. Tracy

I dabble lightly and loosely in family genealogy. By luck I stumbled onto the Mock.rootsweb.com and decided to share some information with your group in hopes that it might help someone now or in the future.

I have in my possession a hand painted family tree made in 1869(?) and signed in the lower right corner by S.B. Jordan whom I assume was the artist/ painter of the tree. This was passed directly to me by my mother, Ethel Chloe Mauck Felix, from her grandfather's estate. I had it restored by experts in Chicago. At the time I received it, it was so brittle that it could barely be unrolled without crumbling. It was flattened, cleaned and placed between mylar so that it is well preserved for the future.

The following information on this family chart was taken directly from the tree with three exceptions:

- 1 The death date of James Mauck was taken from the papers regarding the administering of his estate. The preprinted form stated "who died on or about ____", and that was the date that was filled in.
- 2 George D. was listed on the family tree but listed a few lines below the others following a blank area. In the handwritten will copy that I also own, the statement is that George D., a legal heir, is to receive from the estate as equal to the others.
- 3 One more entry that was on the family tree under deaths was Susannah Shull died 3 Jan 1853 aged 34 yrs, 5 mos and 1 day. (Sarah Mauck was the only other death entry on the tree.)

There is speculation the George D. was the child of Sarah and was born when she was sixteen. She appears never to have married because her name was still listed as Mauck under the deaths. Perhaps George D. was a nephew of James and Maria. Whatever the circumstance, George D. was raised with the James Mauck family and valued as a full member of the family. Also it is speculation that Susannah Shull might have been the sister of Maria (Mariah).

James Mauck and Mariah Shull were my g-g grandparents. My great grandfather was John Mauck (1848) who married Lydia Fansler and my grandfather was John William Mauck who married Ethel Grace Sons.

Mock Family of Schaefferstown, Lebanon Co., PA

*Letter to the editor
from Charles Almstedt*

Aug 15, 2004

Here's a "give back" to MFH for finding my wife's 3rd g- grandfather Gottlieb Mack in 1997 or so. My query to MFH way back was about the parents of his daughter Mary Ann, who married Benjamin Wenger.

A few hours at the Clayton Library for Genealogical Research revealed the following for Rebecca Wenger Mock, discussed in the Summer 2004 MFH*. Our Lebanon Co., PA books are sparse, so I used the census & soundex.

In 1900, Rebecca (widowed) was living with her son-in-law, Abraham Zern in Heidleberg Twp, Lebanon Co., PA. With 2 kids, both living. The 1880 Soundex drew a blank, but since I looked for her frame-by-frame, I must have missed it. Since she was born in 1840, that was a starting point for census age.

1870 Census - Adam Mock, 35, Rebecca 29, Monroe 4

1860 Census - Adam 25, Rebecca 19, Monroe 4

1850 census - Rebecca lived on the farm of Jacob (35) and Sarah (29) Wengert with 3 brothers & 1 sister. 5 census pages away lives Samuel Mock and Martha with 8 children. Adam Mock being the oldest at 15.

1840 Census - Jacob Wengert, Sr. & Jr. in Swatara Twp. Susan would have been 1 and Rebecca young if born at the right census time. Jacob, Sr. lists 2 females less than 5 with males & females that would be the right age for Rebecca's parents. But that's a lot of Jacobs in one place! Anyway, somebody might help us on 1880.

A good exercise - hopefully it's accurate.

• Charlie Almstedt, 5222 Poinciana Dr, Houston, TX 77092

Ed. Note Vol. XIII #3, Darrel Muck submitted a list of Mocks buried in the Schaefferstown, PA Cemetery. Among them was Rebecca (ne. Wenger) Mock b. 15 Apr 1840; d. 9 Sep 1908. Editor's note asked who is this Rebecca Wenger Mock? Since then, that question has been answered, Rebecca being the wife of Adam Mock (Chart #6)

In chart #32 Gottlieb Mack, Mary Ann Mock b. 1783 d/o Gottlieb Mock; m. Benjamin Wenger b. 1781, s/o Joseph G. & Barbara Hoover Wenger.

It appears we're dealing with Wengers in both charts #6 Henry Mock & Eva Christina Oberlin. and Chart #32 Gottlieb Mack. I wonder where and if these Wenger families are connected.

Henry>Johannes>Samuel/Martha Burkey>Adam/Rebecca WengerResearched by Laurel Fedak

My son & I were in Schaefferstown, Lebanon Co, PA on Sunday, 17 Oct 2004, and took photos of all the Mock family tombstones there as well as some of the names related to Mock marriages - Phillippi, Fessler, Burkey, etc.

After a lot of time with the new photos and researching the Census images, visiting the LDS search site, perusing the 1880 census, I have updated my Mock tree.

I've made a significant amount of progress and along the way made some educated guesses. Basically, I've looked at the photos, taken dates of birth and death down, figured out who was with whom on the plots (as best I can) and then gone to the census to see if I can come up with names of parents, children, dates of birth, etc.

Edna Mock (my grandmother knew her) provided information in 1936 giving a genealogy of the Mock family. Edna's information provided some of the basis for verification on the information. She gave information about who in the Burkey family married Mocks and who in the Mock family married Burkeys. She also listed names of Samuel & Martha Burkey Mock's children, who they married (if she knew). Edna reported that Samuel & Martha had 17 children, 11 of whom grew up.

The following are corrections and questions regarding "Working Chart #6.

Adam Mock, s/o Samuel & Martha Burkey Mock married a Wenger (not Wengert). Here maiden name is carved on her tombstone.

1.4 - John Heinrich Mock, Jr. b. 10 Sept 1770; m. Catharine Beinhauer who died 7 Mar 1805. Catharine had a child, Elizabeth b. 6 Feb 1805, before she died. The John has a child on 6 Apr 1806. Did he really get married within months of his wife, Catharine dying?? His 2nd wife, Elizabeth Bux is the mother of Susanna Mock, b. 16 Apr 1806. Do you know who provided this information? If so, they should verify it because I'm not convinced it's correct.

• Laurel Fedak Allentown, PA <lgf63@hotmail.com>

Ed. Note: Laurel has submitted a very detailed chart of the descendants of John Heinrich Mock which will be added to the working chart for this family.

A Jeanne Graef had left at the library, about two weeks ago, 2 folders of Mock research done by Melvin B. Summers. Ms. Graef wished the material to be in the library for the Mock Conference. Mrs. Summers, Melvin Summer's wife, had Mock connections and he researched and had a large correspondence in the 1930's. Barbara Dittig and I copied the first folder of 71 pages.

Mr. Summer's had covered several of our known Mock lines in his search. The material is mostly written in long hand and not sorted in any way. I do not know how much of this material is material already known, but I will, over a period of time, attempt to transcribe as much as I can decipher and transmit it to all of you a few pages at a time. There are some of Mr. Summer's papers in the collection of the Canton, Ohio Public Library

Bucks Co. Mauk From: Hinke, William John, A History of the Tohickon Union Church, Bedminster Township, Bucks County, Pennsylvania : with copy of church records, Reformed congregation, 1745-1869, Lutheran congregation, 1749-1840. Meadville, Pa.: Press of the Tribune Pub. Co., 1925,

Jan. 23, 1849 - Marriage of Henry Weber to Caroline Mauk, Bucks Co., PA

This is the only Mauk mentioned in the book. I don't think I have seen anything on any Bucks Co. Mauks before and very little on other spellings.

Does anyone claim or know anything about this Caroline?

- Karen Krich <karenlk@PRODIGY.NET>

Ed. note:

Since Bucks Co. is tucked up close to Lehigh & Northampton, Co, I checked chart #21, Wilhelm Mack family. They lived in Rockhill Twp., Bucks Co. PA, his will dated 24 Mar 1786. Their youngest daughter, Catarine Mack b. ca1752 m. 1772 Tohickon Union Church, Bucks Co., PA Jacob Scheib. This of course is much earlier than Caroline Mauk who married in 1849. None of this family used "Mauk" that I can see, but maybe in later generations, the spelling could have changed.

Samuel Moak , MFH Chart 39 - #1.2.3

I recently found the following info on Samuel Maok. I believe this might be the same Samuel that appears in Scioto County Ohio, and who is the Father of Joseph Mauk (of Elliott Co. Ky) and Peter Mauk (of Lewis Co. Ky). I know that he moved to several different areas between 1800 and 1820.

The spelling is the same for several records found on this family.

Christopher Mock/Valentin Mock

I am asking the help of someone to look up in the 1850 and 1860 census in Rockport, Cuyahoga, Ohio for Christopher Mock. Please note for me if there is a middle initial or name entered for him on either census. In addition if there is a marriage listed for Christopher and Mary ____ Mock. This Christopher has the same birth year as my great grandfather Valentin Mock. For those that know me, I have been chasing Valentin for some time without much luck. I feel that the above Christopher could be my Valentin due to the fact that Valentin's father was Christopher and he has the same birth year. This is the first lead I have had in many years...

• Larry Mock Laryjatl@AOL.COM

Answers to Larry's query

I ran a quick search of the 1850 census for Rockport, Cuyahoga County, Ohio, for a Christopher Mock and did find one:

MOCK, Christopher, 28, b 1821 Germany.
Cooper.

Mary 26, b Germany.

William 2, b Ohio.

On the same page, with perhaps 2 households in between was another family of Mocks, who might or might not be connected to these folks:

MOCK, William, 30, b Germany (Cooper? Carpenter?)

Catherine 26 b Germany

Margaret 6 b Ohio

Helen 6 b Ohio

George

Elizabeth (sorry forgot to write down their ages, b OH)

Elizabeth Zuman? 18, b Germany.

• Jan T

From Genie

1860 OHIO CUYAHOGA ROCKPORT

He was 38, a farmer, b Germany; with Mary 36, b Germ.; Wm. 23, Christopher 7, John 4, Christiana 2, all b OH. Also two farmers b Germ., Alber Bower? 20, and Fredrick? Gorman 41. (Those last two were very hard to read.)

Note: Even though he is indexed as Mack, this census taker seems to make his O's like A's, so it is probably Mock. (Even the "o" in Christopher looks more like an "a".)

I have been searching for my Franklin Mauk for many years and may have come across some new info. While seaching thru census info I came across the following:

Blacksmith, Born in VA.

There is also a John Mauk, age 25, Carpenter, born ? on the same page.

My Franklin Mauk was born in 1809 in VA and was a blacksmith. He also shows up in the 1850 Census in Salt Creek Township, Davis Co. Iowas on August 28th. The family did move from Ohio to Iowa to CA to AZ so it is possible that this is the same person. Does anyone claim this Benj. F. Mauk?

correlate? It is reasonable to think that a Benj. F. was probaby a Benj. Franklin, but there were several of them back in Oh, Pa and Mo, and in other generations...

He was listed as a blacksmith with George W. 31? (or 34?) b OH, George's wife Mary F. 29 b Maine, and their dau Mary E. 2, b CA.

Thanks for the info. Yes, I have all of these entries and yes, they are my Franklin Mauk. I have been able to trace him forward from about 1847 In Iowa and even found his marriage record to Elizabeth Swift on 3/22/1834 in Winesburg, Holmes Co, Ohio. I just am not able to connect him to any of the other Mauk Families that everyone else has been researching. I have participated in the DNA study (through my brother) and have quite a few matches with others, but again cannot link to anyone for sure.

Any ideas or help is appreciated :)

The e-mail regarding PA, USA Bohemia Researchers - New Resource was forwarded to me by one of our local genealogy society members, Virginia Rood. She picked up on the fact that one of your family names is Mock.

I'm editor of the "Mock Family Historian" a quarterly publication devoted to the MANY family lines of Mock, Mauk, Mauck, Mack and other variations. If you're interested you might look in on our Home Page ><http://mock.rootsweb.com><.

Sincerely, Barbara Dittig

To: Editor

Unfortunately I know very little about my Mock ancestors and the variations on the spelling and seemingly lack of resources have discouraged me over the years.

My 3G Grandmother was Mary Mock b.ca1815 PA; d.1 Oct 1885 Luzerne Co., PA. She married James Shafer b.ca1809 PA; d.bef 1880 Luzerne Co. They were both from the Mountaintop, Wright Twp area of Luzerne Co. Their children were: Elizabeth b.1836, Joseph b.1838, Lydia b.1842, Eliza b.1844, Mary b.1847, Henry b.1850 * my 2G Grandfather, Samuel b.1852, Archibald b.1854.

I've found Mary on the 1860 and 1880 Census'. At the end of her life she was living in Luzerne Co., PA with youngest son Archibald and his family. I only know of her because she was listed as "mother" on Henry Shafer's death certificate. For a long time his mother's name was a mystery.

I'm fairly stuck on her because as you know the early census' did not list the wife or children's names. Any suggestions would be welcomed! I will check out the website! Thanks so much!

-Kat

Thank you, Barbara. I spent hours at the Mock site yesterday to no avail. I searched under Shafer (all spellings) and Luzerne Co. I will continue, there is SO much information there! It's wonderful!

I've been contacted by Sandy Hart and can't help but think that our 2 Mock ladies are related - we'll see!

Thanks for renewing my interest in my little Mary Mock!

Descendant of Daniel Mauck of Galia Co., OH

I am the gggggranddaughter of Daniel Mauck and Rebecca Baker (working chart #40). My lineage is Daniel, Joseph, Daniel, Isaac Noah, Mary & my mother Helen Clark.

I am not an accomplished genealogist but I am the lucky recipient of several articles and obituaries of my grandmother who grew up in Cheshire, Gallia Co, Ohio. I have used these along with pictures and some original research to make a genealogy book about my great great grandfather Daniel's family.

I have attached a word document detailing my information and associated sources about Daniel and his children. Most of my information comes from the articles I obtained from my grandmother and pictures of tombstones I took at Gravel Hill Cemetery in Cheshire. I have also attached the relevant pages of my genealogy book which contains most of these articles.

I have read with much interest the current discussion about whether or not Joseph was actually the son of Daniel. I hope it turns out that he was.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.

Ed. Note: Suzanne's detailed report on this family will be incorporated into the Daniel Mauck chart #40.

Maag/Burchardt Connections

 1155 - Barbara Maag bpt. 7 Dec 1762 (3 wks. old), sponsors Henry Maag (brother) & Barbara Maag (sister); indentured to Daniel Burchardt after the death of her mother, Anna Elisabeth
 1156 - Gertrude Maag bpt. 25 Feb 1765 (14 days old)

I'd like to offer some information and perhaps gain some information regarding Conrad and Anna Elizabeth (Dauenhauer) Maag. They are not related however, Elizabeth married Daniel Burchardt after Conrad's death. Daniel is our ancestor.

My hubby & I spent a day at the Lutheran Seminary Archives last June and found numerous records for Elizabeth & Daniel's marriage, children, death, etc. I am just now getting things back to the surface. As I unearth things, I will scan and send them to you. Everything is in old German though I have found a wonderful gentleman who translated everything. He writes about the German Regiment and Hessians.

All the information is from the parish records of Old Zion Lutheran Church in Philadelphia.

Received the scans, 8 in all. Will do them easiest first.

Here is #8:

Transl.:

Note- the above death record was in the parish register only about a week after Elisabeth's own death record.)

Here is #2:

"Neck Year&Month?) 21, Daniel Burkhardt - Schlagfluß - Alt 75 Jahren 5te und Chesnußstr. bey Schuylkill."

Transl.:

"Gestorben 1796 - December - 19th Elisabeth Burkhard - Ruhr - alt 5 Jahr."

Transl.:

Died 1796, December 19 - Elisabeth Burkhard, (of) dysentery, aged 5 years.

That's enough for one sitting.

[signed] Henry Retzer

I have some info on Henry Maag (Elisabeth's son) too who was court martialled in Rev War.

This Henry must be Elisabeth and Conrad's son. I am assuming this because Daniel Burchardt sat on his court martial and statements are made in a PA provincial code that this Henry Maag was Daniel's step-son.

Information about Elisabeth's death is below; I believe you already have her correct date of death.. I thought she and Daniel had three children. I do have information (which you may already have) that shows Daniel married Catharine White 3 months after Elisabeth's passing and three months after that, three of her daughters were indentured to Daniel.

Do you have any information as to his [Daniel Burchardt] profession? I have copies of several letters written to and from Daniel and George Washington. Daniel was very eloquent and definitely educated. He was already serving in the regular continentals when he applied for and received a rank in the newly formed German Regiment. In 1779, he won his petition to the Continental Congress to resign due to the need to attend to his affairs in Philadelphia due to the British occupation.

My name is Gary White and I am looking for Mock relatives of John W. Mock of Fairfield Nebraska. His father's name was William Mock and he died in Fairfield in 1909 and I was wondering if it could be a relative of the William I saw on your site. I am getting a Mock Family Reunion going for the summer of 2005 and hope to find people to attend. Any info would be greatly appreciated.

I found some of what I was looking for on your site but I have some information you may be able to use.

My family is of the Peter Mock (#7) and the Archie Elden you have is my grandfather.

Thank you for your interest.

Godfrey Mock of Butler Co., OH

Submitted by Georgia Kruse

I have just made a great breakthrough in my research for Godfrey Mock/Johanna Flinchback of Montgomery and Butler County, Ohio. They immigrated to America from Germany in 1853. I have a copy of their passport, but was unable to read the German. Just this week, a new-found German friend in Texas translated it for me. Two critical things were unreadable: Johanna Mock's maiden name and the name of the town where they were born and lived. (On Godfrey and Johanna's daughter, Maria Mock Selby's death certificate, my grandmother stated that Maria's mother's name was Johanna Flinchback.) Godfrey and Johanna Mock were my maternal great great grandparents.

Johanna's brother, William, who immigrated to Montgomery County, Ohio in 1855, changed the spelling to Flinspach on the 1900 Census. Yesterday, I went on the Mormon website and entered Johanna Flinspach. I hit paydirt! There was the right Johanna Friedrika Flinspach, born November 9, 1816, and her parents and grandparents. There were many, many Flinspachs from that town. They were from Grossgartach, Neckarkreis, Wuerttemberg, Germany. (That is just south of Heidelberg, close to Heilbronn, Germany.)

Then, I entered the name of Gottfried Macco (name on passport) and came up with three by that name in that town, but not the right one. My Gottfried Macco (aka Gottfried Macko, Godfrey Mock) was born April 24, 1816. I would think that he was also from the same town.

Hopefully, with this new information, I might possibly connect with another Mock or Macco. Thanks.

Ed. Note: Godfrey & Johanna Mock can be found on Mock Family Working Chart #83

Martin G. Mock

There is an interesting message in the Mock Genforum about Martin G Mock born 1848. Apparently he was a collector of many historical possessions.

This Martin is included on working chart 52. I have seen online information that the parents, Peter and Sarah, are said to be the Peter Mock and Sarah Ayers who married in Clark Co, OH in 1841. There is an online Ayers tree giving Peter's birth as 19 January 1816 and death as 13 November 1885.

I did find Peter in the online 1880 census living in Delaware Co, IN with his birthplace given as OH and his parents' birthplaces as PA. This would fit with the reputed father being Frederick on chart 52 but not the mother who supposedly was born in Virginia. With censuses only as reliable as the informant and recorder however I'm not too disturbed while I am very interested in learning where in PA Frederick would've come from. Although Frederick isn't too common of a name in Mocks I research in PA, an oldest son of Peter certainly gets my attention!

Mocks found in Grand Junction, CO

Submitted by Pam McLaughlin

Re: Chart #49 - Peter > John > George > John Nelson
> James Curtis - Peter Mock of VA & NC

While on vacation, I stopped for a few hours in the charming town of Grand Junction, Colorado. The public library had an excellent obituary index and collection of local newspapers on microfilm.

Here are a few things I found in the local paper. From the Grand Junction (CO) Daily Sentinel 8 Jul 1944, pg4
James Curtis Mock, 82, DeBeque farmer and veterinarian, died Tuesday at the Mountain View sanitarium on First Fruitridge. He had been a patient there only a short time.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. Thursday at the Seventh Day Adventist Church in De Beque. Rev. LaVerne Barker will conduct the services, and interment will be in the De Beque cemetery.

Mr. Mock was born June 17, 1861, at Winteroad, Ill., and he lived in Illinois during the early part of his life. He moved to Montrose [CO] in 1904, residing there 10 years before removing to the De Beque community. He engaged in veterinary work in addition to operating his farm.

Mr. Mock married Bertha Emma Haggerman March 9, 1884, in Jasper county, Illinois. Five children were born to this union. They are Mrs. Ren Harrison, Madrid, Ida.; Mrs. Carl Eigelberger, Kuna, Ida.; Mrs. Bert Gregory, Paris, Calif.; and Cecil LeRoy Mock, who preceded his father in death. Mrs. Mock died April 9, 1897.

His second marriage was to Mrs. Myrtle Wheeler, October 10, 1923 at Glenwood Springs [CO]. Four children were born to this union. They are Mrs. Roy Perkins, Morrill, Neb.; Ruby Pearl, Juanita Iris, and Curtis James, all at the family home.

Other survivors, besides the widow, include two brothers, John Albert Mock, Grand Junction and Charlie Mock, Chrisman Ill., one sister, Mrs. Lucy Pulliam, Chrisman, Ill.; seven grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren.

Mr. Mock was a member of the Christian church.
Transcriber's notes. The Illinois Marriage Database lists the marriage of James C. Mock and Bertha Emma Haggerman as 6 March 1884.

For children of second marriage, see obit, below.

From the Grand Junction (CO) Daily Sentinel 26 June 1953,

Funeral services for Mrs. Myrtle Mock, 1045 Grand Ave., will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at Martin's Mortuary chapel, with Dr. K. H. Sausaman in charge. Interment will be in the De Beque Cemetery. Pallbearers will be Robert Latham, Ivan Murray, Marion Novinger, Bennie Bottoms, A F. Calhoon and Paul Martin.

Mrs. Mock died at 4:50 a.m. Thursday at St. Mary's Hospital after an illness of eight days.

Myrtle Sampson was born Oct. 31, 1894, at Ishpeming, Mich., to Richard and Elizabeth Ann Bray Sampson.

She spent her childhood at Leadville, Colo. She married James C. Mock, who preceded her in death, in Glenwood Springs. Mrs. Mock had been a resident of Mesa county for 30 years. She was a member of the Methodist Church.

Survivors include four daughters: Mrs. Charles Jakopic of Leadville; Mrs. Roy Perkins, of Palermo, Calif.; Mrs. Gordon Cunningham of Guernsey, Wyo.; and Mrs. John F. Davis Jr., 244 Independent Ave.; one son, Curtis James Mock of Oroville, Calif.; four sisters, Mrs. E.J. Fickany of Buena Vista, Colo.; Mrs. John Bess of Ishpeming, Mich.; Mrs. William Dee of Marshalltown, Ia.; and Mrs. Lottie Uran of Detroit Mich.; and nine grandchildren.

• Transcriber's note: Her first marriage is not mentioned.

From the Grand Junction (CO) Daily Sentinel 11 Jan 1958,

Funeral services for John Albert Mock, 92, of Clifton, who died Thursday night, will be held at 1 p.m. Sunday in Martin's Chapel. The Rev. Don Lawrence of Clifton will officiate. Burial will be in Orchard Mesa Cemetery.

A resident of Mesa County for 34 years, he had lived in Clifton for nine years. He was a retired farmer.

Born July 4, 1875 at Winterroad, Ill., he spent his childhood there and was married at Newton, Ill., on Aug. 4, 1889, to the former Mary Shoemaker. Mrs. Mock died Jan. 24, 1942, in Grand Junction.

The couple came to Colorado in 1916, and homesteaded at Great Divide. Mr. Mock was a member of the Christian Church.

Surviving are three sons, Sherlie Mock of Loma; John Mock of South Gate, Calif.; and Harley Mock of Chelsea, Okla.; a daughter, Mrs. Viola Price of Clifton; seven grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

Transcriber's notes. marriage of J. A. MOCK and Mary Shoemaker not found in Illinois Marriage Index

• From the Grand Junction (CO) Daily Sentinel 26 Jan 1942,
Graveside services for Mrs. Mary Mock, who died Saturday morning, will be held in Orchard Mesa cemetery Tuesday at 4 p.m., with the Rev. J. J. Hutchinson in charge. the Gardner-Kinsey funeral home is in charge of arrangements.

• From the Grand Junction (CO) Daily Sentinel 8 Dec 1963,
Fruita - Shirley Mock, 60, a Loma farmer, died about 9 a.m. Saturday at his home, apparently from a heart attack. He was stricken as he prepared to climb into a truck as he was leaving to go hunting.

Mr. Mock had lived in Idaho and Oklahoma before moving to Mesa County 14 years ago. He was a veteran of World War II. He was born in Missouri April 24, 1903.

He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Viola Price of Clifton, and two brothers, Harley of Chelsea, Okla. and John of South Gate, Calif.

Starks Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

7. In my own case, with seven generations carefully researched back to Daniel Mauck of Page County, Virginia, I failed to match the ten other participants who trace back to descendants of Rudolph! What is more, I have a 37/37 match with two SHAMBLIN project members and one JOHNSON participant! My paperwork is correct, but my Y-DNA show that something dramatic happened and I'm hot on the trail to track it down!

The project is still rolling and we need more participants! We have recently received a further price break from Family Tree DNA and can now offer the 37 marker Y-DNA test for $171 plus $2 shipping. The price is for our group only at this time. With the experience we've gained, we've learned that it's best to go for the 37 marker test from the beginning.

To participate in the project, send me an e-mail at dmauck@cox.net or write me:

Doug Mauck
421 SW Woodlawn
Topeka, Kansas 66606-1246

I'll need the mailing address where the test kit is to be mailed, your telephone number, the full name of the participant, and the name and details of your earliest known MOCK ancestor. Of course everyone is invited to participate in tests of other than MOCK ancestors and in the mtDNA or DNAPlus tests as well.

I am reading a book that I would highly recommend to anyone interested in learning about DNA in genealogy.

The book is 'TRACE YOUR ROOTS with DNA', by Megan Smolenyak Smolenyak. The book is available online at <http://www.honoringourancestors.com/books.html>

It's a very readable book that describes in plain language how DNA is used in genealogy. The author has traced her roots and includes her experiences and those of others in her narrative.

GREAT NEWS!! I've often wanted an index to Barbara's working charts, and figured out tonight that Google provides just that! In the search box, list your desired search terms, plus "Working Chart" in quotes, followed by site: mock.rootsweb.com/ The space after the colon is required. Works like a charm!

Paul Swan

Another way to search Barbara Dittig's Working Charts plus anything else on Rootsweb for a name is to go to: <http://sitesearch.rootsweb.com/cgi-bin/search>.

I did a search on "Rudolph Mauck" (with quotes) and got five pages totaling 103 references that included the Working Charts in the listing.

Doug Mauck

In the index to the "Working Charts", you'll see that they have been renumbered, grouping PA families together, VA families together, etc. Many thanks to our Web Master, Gene Andert for inserting the many changes into the charts. At the present time, there are 85 family charts and still more to do!!

Happy Holiday to all. Hope to see you next year!
