

Mock Family Historian

A Clearinghouse for Mock, Mauck, Mauk, Mack, Maag families

Volume XIV • No. 1

Winter 2005

Andrew Mauck of Lexington, Virginia

Submitted by Steve Lapp

Anne Rodick, newsletter editor of Palatines to America, wrote the following letter to me 14 August 1992.

Mr. SteveLapp
98 Whitney
San Francisco, CA 94131

Dear Steve,

Having read your query in John Blakenbaker's "Beyond Germanna," I sent you in January this year a brief article on Randolph Mock, and you responded soon thereafter. In that letter I mention that I was working on an ancestral family by the name of Kalfus (which in Germany is actually Kalbfuss).

Still pursuing information on that family, I was in Louisville, KY earlier this week and was checking old Louisville newspapers on microfilm to find out any facts regarding the death of one Jeremiah Kalfus, who was said to have been shot and killed at his residence on 16 December 1864. Sure enough, I found an article in the 17 December 1864 newspaper on the murder, and on 20 December they published the inquest and his funeral notice. It was really quite interesting to read this old paper, full of war news, "rebels captured," Confederates taken prisoners, and the language used to describe the events of the day was, at times, rather funny.

In scanning some of the other articles on the page, I ran across one in the 20 December 1864 paper having to do with an Andrew Mauck. While obviously this is not your ancestor, your reply above indicated that your Mock group was publishing a newsletter.

Since I do a quarterly newsletter for a German heritage society, Palatines to America, and I am perpetually on the lookout for material of interest, and which would be pertinent, I thought you might be interested in the enclosed article. The quality of the reader/printer at the Louisville Public Library is not exceptional, and I have been told that photocopies made on such a machine fade quite rapidly, so I have transcribed it as well. I hope you find this at least interesting, if not useful.

Sincerely yours,

(signed) Anne L. Rodick
alrodick@juno.com May 2004

Encl: As Stated

Louisville Daily Journal (KY), 20 December 1864
(Tuesday)

Refugees from Virginia

Andrew Mauck and John A. Parks, until recently, residents of Rockbridge county, Virginia, arrived in Cincinnati Thursday, says the Gazette, from that place, which they left during the latter part of October last, in company with six others, because of the stringent conscription of the rebel government. During the past two years, Mauck was engaged in making shoes, which fact, until recently, exempted him from military duty, but the act being annulled he determined to abandon the falling fortunes of the Confederacy and leave that ship to sink or swim as best it could. Parks was engaged in the business of teaching school in the benighted Old Commonwealth, a very laudable undertaking, particularly where schools are so much needed. The old harlot that claims to be the mother of Presidents, doubtless failed to appreciate his service, and he too concluded to leave her to her fate.

About seventy-five miles from their home the party met a squad of bushwhackers, who without a word of warning, fired upon them, breaking Mauck's left arm, badly lacerating his right hand, and killing a young man by the name of John Rawlings, a printer from the Lexington Gazette office. The Unionists then fled to the woods and managed to elude their pursuers. The first hiding place was in the Cheat Mountain, where they skulked about from Friday until noon Sunday. On Tuesday they arrived at Beverly, in Western Virginia, where they were joined by thirteen other refugees from Lexington - among them Josiah McNutt, editor of the Lexington Gazette. From Beverly they travelled to Parkersburg, where the party broke up, Mauck and Parks coming to Cincinnati. The former is en route for Indiana, where he has a brother; the latter goes to Illinois. Mauck's wounds were of a serious character, but are now doing well. Both men were clad in Confederate homespun, armed with pistols, and provided with a small quantity of coarse rations.

Before leaving Lexington, one of the party disposed of seven hundred dollars worth of Southern money at a banker's, for which he received twenty-one dollars in gold and silver. The men had a small quantity of Confederate currency - new issue. The notes were engraved at Columbia, S.C. and were neatly executed.

Mauck furnished the following list of prices at Lexington:

Flour	$250 per bbl.	Pork	$4.50 per lb.
Beef	$1.50 per lb.	Coffee	$18 per lb.
Sugar	$12@13 per lb.

(Above mentioned Lexington is the city in Rockbridge County, VA, not in KY.)

Cont'd on page 8 >

Mock Family DNA Project

Doug Mauck, Manager

The MFH Y-DNA surname project is going full steam ahead! We now have 66 participants, with only an apparent three that have decided not to return their test kits.

Among our latest participants is a descendant of Alexander Mack, founder of the Church of the Brethren. We only have 12 marker results at this point on the 37 marker test, but there are no matches which means that there will be no matches when the 37 marker results are back. We need more descendants of Alexander Mack to verify the current participant's results!

Sharon Whitaker and her father, Lloyd Mock, have undertaken an ambitious project to solicit Y-DNA participants by direct mail! They have located the mailing address of dozens of Mocks and are sending letters to each Mock introducing them to MFH and the DNA project! Good work, Sharon and Lloyd! It's this kind of effort that will get the job done!

The DNA testing continues to be very interesting. We can now chart descendants of the Rudolph/Daniel Mauck line through direct descendants of Rudolph through Rudolph Jr. and correlate them with descendants of different sons of Daniel. This does not prove that Rudolph was Daniel's father, but the results show that he certainly could have been.

Because my own results didn't match my documented line, FTDNA ran a re-test at no charge to double-check my results. The re-test proved to be identical with the original test. I wasn't left in a vacuum however, as I did have two 37/37 and one 36/37 matches with the SHAMBLIN surname study and one 37/37 match with the JOHNSON surname project. So far, I have determined that David Mauck, b.1826 in Cheshire, OH was not, as supposed, the biological son of John Mauck, grandson of Daniel Mauck of Page County, VA. There were four SHAMBLIN males of the right age and correct Y-DNA to have fathered David Mauck. I have engaged a professional genealogist in Gallia County, OH to go over church, newspaper and court records to try to unravel the 175 year-old mystery!

We're always ready to enter more orders for DNA tests! Send me an e-mail at dmauck@cox.net, or send me a letter with your oldest known Mock descendant, your mailing address, the mailing address to which the test kit should be mailed and your telephone number.

Test kits are normally mailed out the next business day. 37 marker Y-DNA tests take about six weeks to complete. The cost is still $173 for the 37 marker test.

Get involved!

• Doug Mauck, 421 SW Woodlawn, Topeka, KS 66606-1246

Y-DNA match in England!

See what can be done with DNA testing:

Hello, I am researching my family history and admittedly being new to this, I don't know the history prior to my great grandparents yet, however I have 25 marker matches with members of the Mock Family History project. The name Mock/Mauk certainly at the moment doesn't mean anything to me!

My matches are Walter Allen Mock and Robert Mock both -2 genetic distance and Joe Sanford Mauk -1. I haven't yet contacted the above-named.

Would the names Barlow, Wareing, Buchanan, O'Brien or Blake mean anything to anyone?

• Alan Barlow, Liverpool, England.
alanbarlow@blueyonder.co.uk

From Doug,

What an interesting turn of events we have with Alan Barlow's experience in Y-DNA testing! It shows how much is to be learned from DNA testing and remember, the science is very new! There will be many more puzzles to solve as time goes on.

I've read that as many as 3% of the population has a non-paternity event in their history! It's beginning to show up in our project.

One area that occurs to me is that some of the people who immigrated to the Colonies may have been fleeing indebtedness in Europe, criminal charges, or were abandoning families and may have taken a wholly different name when they arrived here. As the Bible warns: "Be sure your sins will find you out."and apparently even 300 years later!

I would encourage those with 25 or less markers tested to upgrade to 37 markers, not only Joe Sanford Mauk with a 24/25 match with Alan Barlow, but others as well, for who knows what matches or near matches will show up next?

I should also mention that the default setting on new test results is 'Private', which means that matches will not be reported. I've been changing the setting to 'Public' on all of our participants so that matches will be shared. The whole point of DNA testing is to find matches, so why refuse to share the results with others? I suppose liability issues force FTDNA to default to 'Private' results.

We need more participants in our Project and we need upgrades to 37 markers! Do it now!

News Flash – Swan Eats Crow!

by Paul R. Swan

It's become apparent to me that I've committed the classical genealogical error of compressing the lives of three generations into two. This is my mea culpa.

Peter Mock of Maryland (1727-1812) was born probably in Germany, and came to America with a Bible printed 1765 in Nürnberg (at that time a free city of Europe). He lived at least four places in Frederick and Washington Counties, Maryland, served in the Washington County Militia, had three wives, and eight children. The earliest record of him in this country is the baptism 22 Feb 1767 of Peter, his first child by his first wife, Maria Magdalena Erb, in Silver Run, Frederick County. His final record is his tombstone in the Baust Church Cemetery in what is now Carroll County, Maryland. After his death at age 85 in 1812, his home and 350 acre estate a few miles east of Taneytown, known as The Resurvey on Brother's Agreement, were taken over by Peter as the eldest son, who had to give bond to his siblings for their share of the estate. Almost twenty years later, Peter was forced to sell the estate and share the proceeds with them, because he had no other way to pay them the inheritances from their father.

Before Peter inherited his father's estate, "Peter Mock, Jr." in 1810 purchased 53 acres of land known as Durbin's Mistake somewhere fairly close to The Resurvey on Brother's Agreement. He and his wife Elizabeth sold one acre of that parcel in 1814 to Peter Erb, most likely a relative of Maria Magdalena. Then, on 3 Sep 1835, about the time that the family home was sold, Peter, his wife Elizabeth, and Elizabeth Deider, "mother of Elizabeth Mock and widow of Jacob Deider, dec'd", together sold 89 1/2 acres of Durbin's Mistake. Other records place the widow Elizabeth Deider, along with Peter Mock, in the church in Silver Run where Maria Magdalena's son was baptised.

This is where I made my mistake. I assumed that Peter, Jr., while the first Peter was still alive, must have been that son baptised in 1767. Wrong.

Five years after these Maryland land sales, in 1840, we find a Peter Mack living in Wayne Township, Darke County, Ohio. Five miles west of his farm, in the Stoner Cemetery, is found the burial stone of "Elizabeth Deter, widow of Jacob Deter, d. 7-27-1845 ae 77 y. 9m. 23 ds." A little arithmetic places her birth as 4 Oct 1767. If the Peter Mock, Jr. who bought land and later sold it with Elizabeth Deider was the son of Maria Magdalena, he was eight months older than his mother-in-law!

To cut a sorry story short, a careful analysis of the census records of Maryland and Ohio, involving judicious appreciation of census age errors, makes it plain that there were three Peter Mocks living in Frederick County. Immigrant Peter I, born 1727, his son Peter II baptised 1767, and Peter III ("Jr."), born about 1786, who moved to Darke County, Ohio, with his wife and mother-in-law and changed the spelling of his name to Mack.

Cont'd on page 12

Ernest Mouck of Prince Edward Co., Ontario, Canada Submitted by Rhoda Cook

In your "Working Chart" #65 Gottleib/Gasper Mouck of Ontario Canada, you have Ernest Mouck #1.3.7, child of Michael Mouck & Nancy Collier.

I think this is the same person that was married to someone in our family tree. I believe that Ernest Mouck's 1st wife was Millicent Van Dusen. The marriage date I have is 8 Feb 1854. She d. 2 Aug 1879 at the age of 48 and is buried in Greenwood Cemetery in Owen Sound. (Greenwood records are on line.)

From the marriage registration (#003608) to Isabella Johnston, Ernest age is shown as 52, his profession is given as Gentleman, he is a widower, born Marysburg Co. Prince Edward, residence when married in Brookholm, parents are Michael Mouck and Nancy Collier. His religion is shown as Methodist. Isabella is 21. The marriage was December 23, 1880 in Owen Sound. I have two children from this marriage. Ernest Mouck born 15 Oct 1882 and Ida Ella Mouck born 04 Jan 1885. (this information is from the 1901 census)

Ernest Sr died 13 Jun 1886 at age 60. (information from cemetery records) He is buried in Greenwood Cemetery. The headstone gives his information as birth year 1844. Listed on the headstone are: Ernest Mouck 1844 - 1886, his wife Isabella Johnston 1860 - 1938, William Kerr Stark 1873 - 1954, his wife Ida Ella Mouck 1885 - 1969. Grace Kingsmill Stark 1912 - 1960.

At this point I do not know the true relationship of Grace Kingsmill Stark.

Owen Sound is in Ontario in the County of Grey North. Greenwood Cemetery is in Owen Sound.

• Rhoda Cook 8103 East Southern #121, Mesa, AZ
85208 (until mid April) eandrcook@hotmail.com

Julia Alcock Hageman Mock of Jasper Co, Illinois

Submitted by Pam McLaughlin

From the Jasper County, IL court house: STATE OF ILLINOIS, Jasper County
In County Court, Jasper County, Estate of Julia A. Mock, Deceased. To the Hon. Albert E. Isley, Judge of the County Court of said County,
Your Petitioner, Fred F. Drake, administrator of the Estate of Julia A. Mock, late of said County, deceased, respectfully represent:
That the said Julia A. Mock departed this life at residence in Newton, Illinois on or about the 10th day of June 1930.

Excerpt of Will:

That the said Julia A. MOCK left surviving her no husband but left the following named children her only heirs at law,

Clinton J. Mock, of Downey, Idaho;
Frances Eichelberger of Boise, Idaho;
Ethel Gregory of Perris, California
Edith Harris of Malad City, Idaho;
E.E. Trisler of Greenwood, Indiana
Bessie Drake of Newton, Illinois.

Julia Alcock Hageman Mock was born 1843 OH; she married 1st DeWitt Clinton Hageman 14 Mar 1861; DeWitt Hageman died 28 Sep 1871 and was buried at McQueen Cemetery in Jasper Co., IL.

Julia had 2 children by this marriage: Edith Belle Hageman & Bertha Emma Hageman

Julia married John N. Mock in 1881. They had 2 children: Robert Ellsworth Mock & Mary Elizabeth Mock.

The first heir named is, I believe, both her son & son-in-law, James Curtis Mock (James C. married Bertha Emma Hageman, Julia's younger daughter from her first marriage to DeWitt Clinton Hageman).

E.E. Trisler is probably Edith Bell Hageman, her older daughter from her first marriage, but it is possible the E.E. is in fact a grandchild.

Betsy Drake is probably Mary Elizabeth Mock, her daughter by her second marriage to John N. Mock (1827-1901)

Hope someone finds this helpful,

• Pam McLaughlin PM_McLaughlin@yahoo.com

Chart #49 Peter Mack>Johannes>George>John Nelson

See MFH Vol. XI pg 33 - John N. Mock of Jasper Co., IL, also submitted by Pam McLaughlin

Early German Settlers of South Carolina Compiled by Siegbert Frick & Carl W. Nichols <http://www.palmettoroots.org/Auswanderer.html>

MACK, Christian Fridrich (1749). Steinheim an der Murr 71711, Landkreis Ludwigsburg, Baden-Württemberg Linenweaver. Married 7 May 1737, Agnes Barbara _____. Child: Christoph Adam, born 2 December 1740. On Griffin, 1749. Wife and one child. 150A, Crims Cr.

MACK, Jacob (1752). Donnstetten, 72587 Römerstein, Landkreis Reutlingen, Baden-Württemberg, Born 16 July 1726, son of George Mack (Farmer) and wife Christina. Married September 1750 in Donnstetten, Anna Schmid, born 21 December 1728, daughter of Johannes Schmid (Inn keeper) and wife Agnes. On Elizabeth. Wife and 1 child: Regina 4. 150A, Broad R

MECK, Johannes (1752). Holzelfingen, Lichtenstein 72805, Landkreis Reutlingen, Baden-Württemberg Son of Johann Jacob Meck (Baker) of Holzelfingen, married Margaretha Wertz, daughter of Georg Heinrich Wertz (Day-laborer) of Holzelfingen. To SC. Johannes Michen petitioned for Margarita. One child: Christian Henry, 6 weeks old. 100A, Crims Cr. Johannes Meck was a baker in Charleston.

Washington Co., Va Tidbit

I came upon a Rambo site at <http://members.aol.com/mcemmert/rambo6.txt>

On this page Peter Mock is listed as one of many owing notes to the estate of Ezekiel Rambo who died in the 1830's in Washington County, Virginia.

There were also multiple Mock references on page 22 at that site and perhaps others as I didn't look further.

There are Washington County Mocks listed on chart 49 (Peter Mock and Barbara Martin.(and maybe others too as not my area)

• Karen Krich

Mock Working Charts Update

Corrections and additions to the Mock Working Charts have been on hold since mid-December.

Our Webmaster, Gene Andert has been on a special assignment and has been unable to participate in updating the charts. Hopefully he will be back by the end of this month.

I really appreciate Gene's willingness to perform this duty. It's time consuming for him and never ending!

If you have something to add to a chart, please let me know and I'll include it in the chart and send it off to Gene to be entered in the internet charts.

• Barbara Dittig bdittig@comcast.net

Mary Marcella Mauck's Wedding Gown

Submitted by Jack Childers

Mary Marcella Mauck's wedding gown.
Beads and embroidery on tulle over satin
1905

Mary Marcella Mauck's Wedding Gown

Mary Marcella Mauck, the only surviving child of Ella Combs and Eli Robert Mauck, was born March 26 1884 in Covington, Kentucky, across the river from Cincinnati, Ohio where Eli Mauck held a prominent position on the wharf.

Lewis McClung Steenrod of Wheeling, West Virginia, graduated from medical school in Cincinnati, Ohio in 1905. While in Cincinnati, Ohio, he had met Mary Marcella Mauck, at one of the social affairs that parents had arranged for their daughters to meet suitable men. Lewis and Marcella were married in Covington, Kentucky 15 Jun 1905

Returning to Wheeling, Lewis became a medical officer of the Wheeling Steel Company, while Marcella busied herself with social and church affairs. Their son Robert Lewis Steenrod was born December 1909. Lewis died in Wheeling, WV 1957; Marcella died in 1959. They are buried in Wheeling, WV Greenwood Cemetery.

Marcella's wedding gown and going-away outfit came from Mary Lou and Robert Steenrod Jr., granddaughter-in-law. Although both garments are discolored and damaged they still evoke the memory of an Edwardian state wedding

Cindy found the following article in a needle / piece-work magazine. I scanned the picture of the gown, but it didn't turn out very well.

• Jack Childers RD 3, Box 480, Fenwick Island DE 19944
<childers@dca.net

Ed. Note: Eli Robert Mauck was the son of Newton E. Mauck who was the son of Robert Mauck & Esther Ruffner. Chart #40 Daniel Mauck & Rebecca Baker

Phillip Mack of Pennsylvania and North Carolina

Submitted by Sharon Mock Whitaker

I know that this doesn't prove anything in the controversy of Phillip Mack being the son of Johannes Mack of Reading, PA however, this is the first time I have seen any mention, notation etc. that Phillip came from PA to NC. The Welborn family married into the Mock family in NC and owned land adjacent to the Mock's in Missouri. Elizabeth Mock Welborn was David Mock's sister. Freedom Twp in MO. was laid out by David's son (my great-grandfather), Franklin Mock. See chart 48

• Sharon Mock Whitaker 1246 Country Address,
Clarkston, GA 30021

J. H. Matthews, Excerpts from the 1877 Atlas of Lafayette County, Missouri. Missouri: Missouri Publishing Company, 1877.

Dr. Jacob Welborn

The son of Moses and Elizabeth Welborn, born in Davidson county, North Carolina, December 19, 1816. His father died in 1825 leaving a widow, six sons and a daughter. The widow with her orphaned children migrated to this county and settled in Freedom township. Dr. Welborn began to study medicine in 1844 and graduated in 1852 from St. Louis Medical University. He married in 1851 November 4th Phoebe J. Spurgeon, daughter of William Spurgeon of North Carolina who came to this county in company of her brothers. She died April 22, 1865 leaving behind five children: Edward Welborn, Arthur B. Welborn, Walter S. Welborn, Laura J. Welborn, and Charles C. Welborn.

Dr. Jacob Welborn's paternal ancestry comes from Ireland to this country and were early settlers in North Carolina. His great grandfather's christian name was James Welborn and his grandfather William Welborn. His maternal grandfather was Phillip Mack a Penn Dutchman and moved from the key stone state to North Carolina where he lived the remainder of his days.

Dear Sharon,

I'm very happy that you've finally discovered a piece of data that states that Phillip came from Pennsylvania. With your efforts in time and money over the years, it seems only just that Johannes of Reading would be your Phillip's father. I think it's also encouraging that this secondary source from 1877 was from a fairly early time period and presumably history given by Phillip's grandson so a source not too far removed from the events. It really is unfortunate that no 18th century paper seems to give Phillip's origin. However, the circumstantial evidence is quite strong and getting stronger!!!! And all in all it seems like a very plausible working theory.

• Karen Krich - Pennsylvania

Bedford County Pennsylvania Marriage Record Board

"Working Chart # listed when known

#7

Samuel S. Mock, age 59, a farmer living in East St. Clair Township, PA, son of Adam and Eve Mock, and Fanny Guyer, age 46 living in South Woodbury Township, PA, daughter of Henry and Hettie Guyer, were married December 20, 1887 by Rev. E. S. Hassler at St. Clairsville, PA. Samuel's wife had died August 23, 1886.

18314 - Joseph A. Mock, age 22, a farmer living in Union Township, PA, son of Andrew and Elizabeth Mock, and Annie McDonald, age 17 living in Union Township, PA, daughter of Leah McDonald, were married October 28, 1886, by Rev. Ellis N. Kremer at Bedford, PA

#29

1347 -Isaac C. Mock, age 31, an insurance agent living in Woodbury Boro, PA, son of Reuben and Elizabeth Mock, and Imelda Hair, age 26 living in Woodbury Boro, PA, daughter of Samuel R. and Margaret Hair, were married September 12, 1888 by Rev. J. W. Ely at Woodbury, PA.

#8

11193 -Elmer E. Mock, age 23, a laborer living in Bedford Township, PA, son of Anthony and Annie Mock, and Susan Delancy, age 22 living in South Woodbury Township, PA, daughter of William and Elizabeth Delancy, were married October 17, 1886 by Rev. Charles M. Stock at Bedford, PA.

#18144 -Henry H. Mock, age 23, a printer living in Bedford Township, PA, son of Anthony (#8 -1119)and Annie Mock (#7-1814, and Mary L. Gardner, age 32 living in Somerset County, PA, were married April 28, 1889 by Rev. M. L. Smyser at Bedford, PA. Both of Mary's parents are deceased

#1888 - Daniel S. Mock, age 22, a farmer living in Bedford Township, PA, son of Hugh and Esther Mock, and Ella Fletcher, age 19 living in Bedford Township, PA, daughter of William and Mary J. Fletcher, were married December 28, 1886, by Rev. William M. Spangler at the Lutheran Parsonage in Bedford, PA.

James E. Rhone, age 25, a laborer living in Franklin County, PA, son of Jacob and Mary A. Rhone, and Mary Elizabeth Mock, age 16 living in Yellow Creek, PA, daughter of John and Malinda Mock, were married November 16, 1887, by Henry C. Cogan, J.P., at Yellow Creek, PA. Mary's father is divorced and living out of the state.

Thomas Z. Replogle, age 28, a jeweler living in South Woodbury Township, PA, son of Daniel E. and Elizabeth Replogle, and Tillie S. Mock, age 25 living in Woodbury, PA, daughter of Reuben and Elizabeth Mock, were married November 11, 1886, by Rev. W. L. Spanogle at Woodbury, PA.
(Bedford Marriages Vol 1 #248)

Josiah Ressler, age 55, a farmer living in Colerain Township, PA, son of William and Eleoner Rissler, and Sarah Mock, age 43 living in Colerain Township, PA, were married March 21, 1889, by Rev. William H. Bowden at Bedford, PA. Josiah's wife had died March 19, 1888. Sarah's husband had died in 1880.
(Bedford Marriages Vol 3 #885)

Mock/McMasters of Armstrong Co., PA Submitted by Thomas Cunningham

On your "Mock Working Chart" #10, you have Andrew Mock and Barbara Templeton being married in Sugar Creek Twp., Armstrong Co., PA.

On the Web site for the Mock Archives, if you search for McMasters, you will find an article which indicates that Andrew Mock and Barbara Templeton were married in Adrian, East Franklin Twp., Armstrong Co., PA.

Do you have any idea which location is correct and what the documentation is?

If the following can be believed: "Mary A. Mock, b. 1860, daughter of Andrew and Barbara Mock, m. Frank McMasters and lived in Montana;" from the web page (Mock Archives) I mentioned earlier: then I can offer you the following information about Frank and Mary:

Frank R. McMaster(s), b. 4 Dec. 1851 (probably in Kittanning, Armstrong Co., PA), the son of Samuel D. McMaster(s) and Sarah Ann Starr, d. 2 Aug. 1924, Missoula, Missoula Co., MT, and buried in the Missoula Cemetery (grave 2, lot 2, block 40). Frank was my wife's great grandmother's brother. Frank was with his family in Kittanning, Armstrong Co., PA, for the 1860 and 1870 censuses. He was in Glendale, Beaverhead Co., MT in 1880 (a cook) and in School District #9, Deer Lodge Co., MT in 1910 (a pump tender). I have not yet found him in 1900 or 1920. His death certificate is available from Missoula Co., Missoula, MT. The informant on the death certificate was a Mrs. Hanson of Spokane.

I also have the following obituaries.

*"Simpsons' Daily Leader-Times", City Edition
Vol. 31 - No. 81, Kittanning, Pa., Tuesday Afternoon,
August 5, 1924*

*Frank R. McMaster Dies at Montana Residence
Kittanning friends on Monday received a telegram announcing (sic) the death of Frank R. McMaster, son of the late Samuel D. and Sara A. McMaster, of Kittanning, at his home in Helena [Missoula], Montana, Sunday afternoon. [3 August 1924]*

Cont'd on page 8

Descendants of Frederick and Bathsheba Priest Mock

Submitted by Chandra Hoffman

Frederick Mock/Bathsheba Priest>Esrom/Catherine Mock>Mary Ellen Mock/Augustus Caesar Miller

Frederick Mock 1787 - 1832

I wish I could tell you I found Frederick Mock's parents but I don't have anything that good. Here is what I have:

Frederick Mock

Birth/death date: b. 27 September 1787 from my own tombstone inscription 2004. The stone does not show the birth date but shows the death date as March 3, 1832, age 44 Y 5 M 5D.

According to Early Clark Co. Families Vital Statistics Vol. IV, Sept. 28, 1989, Friends of the Library Genealogical Research Group from the main library in Springfield, Ohio, Frederick and Bethsheba (name is spelled differently everywhere I see it) were married 5 Sept. 1811 in Montgomery Co. (I assume in Ohio since it is right near Clark and Miami Co.) I don't know your source for 19 Dec 1811 so I don't know which is correct.

Ed. Note: Miami Co., OH marriage records lists Frederick Mack to Basheba Priest 19 Dec 1811

Barsheba Mock (spelling according to tombstone)

b. 17 March 1789 according to tombstone. Early Vital Stats. above also lists the same date and birth place as being Culpepper Co., VA as you have. The death date is not as readable, however, it is fairly clear that her age at death was 77Y 10M 11D which would make her death date as 28 January 1867.

Jeremiah Priest:

According to Wanda Harrison, (former MFH member) Jeremiah and Emelia Gardner Priest had fourteen children, most of whom were born in Virginia. "Around 1793-94, they moved to Bourbon Co., KY (per tax records) where he stayed until at least 1800. At that point he moved northward across the Ohio River toward Cincinnati where he claimed bounty lands in 1805 and settle on land between the Big and Little Miami Rivers, which later became Clark Co."

Barsheba Priest Mock 1789 - 1840

Early Clark County, Ohio Family Vital Statistics Vol 4, (Friends of the Library Genealogical Research Group, Clark County Main Library, Springfield, Ohio,) states that Jeremiah went to Clark County around 1814.

I have a copy from the DAR book on revolutionary soldiers that tells about Jeremiah Priest and the destruction of the cemetery. However, they list his death date as 1804 and he had children after that! Other sources and the tombstone say 4 Mar 1840. However, we have a probate court abstract from DAR members that list 28 Nov, 1838. So, that's just one more item to research. This summer my sister and I will try to go back to the Springfield courthouse and see if we can dig that up. I need to retire! Also the DAR's Soldiers of The American Revolution Buried in the State of Ohio states that he "entered a piece of land upon which he lived, died, and was bur." We have a copy of a hand written 1853 township atlas map and an 1875 map which shows John Priest owning land that Honey Creek flowed through, so that could have been where the family cemetery was and it could have flooded. Just speculation however. Priests, Mocks, Shells, etc. all were neighbors.

Ed. Note: Julie Ann Mock, d/o Frederick & Bathsheba m. 4 Sep 1850 William Shell s/o Henry & Mary Shell

Emelia Gardner Priest d. 25 May 1837 in the 77 year of her life according to her tombstone which would make her birth year about 1763. Early Vital Stats. above list her birth place as Frederick County, Virginia. I also have a photo of the Priest graves.

My sister and I spent last summer running around and taking cemetery photos. I love cemeteries. Most people

Cont'd on next page >

Cont'd -Frederick & Bathsheba Mock

I tell that to think I'm morbid. I'm glad you appreciate them. I have a digit Olympus Stylus 300 camera. Nice and petite for sticking in your pocket so you have it ready anytime you happen upon a relative. I have photos for the following people's graves besides the ones I already sent:

Esrom/Catherine Otewalt Mock (also parents of Catharine)

Samuel and Mary A. Mock

George, Vesper and Margaret Mock, children of

Samuel and Mary A. Mock

Samuel son of F & N Mock (Frederick and Nancy)

George G. and Mary A. Mock

Margaret, wife of G. G. Mock

This is George G., son of Esrom. I have a photo of Margaret Mock's stone in Emmanuel Cemetery in Pike Township, Clark Co., OH. The tombstone says, wife of G. G. Mock, died at age 28. I just found in my notebook that Beers' History of Clark Co. says that George G. Mock married Margaret J. Davis on 4 Dec 1870. Marriage Records of the Brides and Grooms in the Probate Court Records of Clark County, Ohio show their marriage as 01 December 1870. She was the daughter of Joseph and Mary A. Davis. It says they had one child, Mary B. born 19 Nov 1877 but that birth date can't be right. They say Margaret was born 10 July 1848 and died 3 Sep 1876. Mary then would have been born after her death! (Ed. Note: MFH chart has Mary Mock b. 1872 according to the 1880 census)

The tombstone says Margaret died 3 Sep 1876 at age 28y 11m 23 days which would put her birth date at 11 July 1848, one day different than Beers. I see Mary listed on your chart as a granddaughter of Esrom and possible daughter of George. Whatever that source was, the uncertainty must have been that she is not Mary's child.???

George then married Mary A. in about 1886 according to the 1900 census. Mary had no children. I have pictures of their stones.

Mary Ellen Mock b. 4 Sep 1846 and Augustus Caesar Miller were my gg grandparents.

• Chandra Hoffman 4088 W. Kenderton Tr.
Beavercreek, OH 45430 <froglover@ameritech.net>

Cont'd from page 6 Mock/McMasters

Deceased was born December 4, 1851 and for many years resided on south Jefferson Street, this place. He had been in the employ of the Northern Pacific railroad for 40 years. His widow and two daughters, Lula and Edith, survive. The following nieces reside here: Mrs. A. C. [Bertha Margaret Daley] Hileman, Mrs. Warren [Marion H. Frederick] Spence, Mrs. Emory [Helen Irene Daley] Bowser and one nephew, William [J.] Frederick. Interment took place Tuesday [5 August 1924] afternoon at Helena [Missoula].

I found Mary in the 1860, 1870, and 1880 censuses with her family in Sugar Creek Twp., Armstrong Co., PA. In the 1900 census I had Mary McMasters (age 40, Feb. 1860), Lula B. (age 15, Aug. 1884 born in PA) and Mary E.

(age 5, Sept. 1894 born in MT) in Hell Gate Twp., Missoula Co., MT.

I found an Edith M. McMasters (age 25) in the 1920 census in Spokane, Spokane Co., WA.

Things that I'm searching for are an obituary for Mary McMasters, marriage licenses for either one of the daughters, a marriage record for Frank and Mary, and obituaries for the daughters.. What church was the Mock family attending in the early 1880's? The McMasters family was attending the St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Kittanning at that time.

• Thomas P. Cunningham P.O. Box 442 Indiana, PA
15701-0442 TPC@AuxMail.IUPEdu

Ed. Note:

Thank you Tom, for bringing this to my attention. I could not find any documentation saying that Frank and Mary were married in Sugar Creek. However I did find a letter in the Mock Archives from Elizabeth Taylor saying they were married in Adrian, PA. I tend to think this is correct, but not having the actual marriage record, I have no proof.

Barbara Dittig

Cont'd from page 1

Possible Ancestry of Andrew Mauck of Lexington, Virginia

Submitted by Steve Lapp
December, 2004

Andrew Mauck is quite possibly a son of the Adam Muck who appears in the 1820 and 1830 Census Records of Rockbridge Co., VA. This Adam Muck has been tentatively identified as a son of Thomas and Sarah Mock/Muck of Frederick Co, MD (see Barbara Dittig's Working Chart #30 at the Mock Family Historian Website).

Church records from Frederick Co, MD state that Adam and Elizabeth Muck gave birth to a son Abraham on 7 Nov 1802. The 1850 census for Augusta Co, VA lists Abraham Muck, age 40, with wife Ann and 3 female children and Martha Lawman, age 65. The Rockbridge Co, VA marriage records include Abraham Muck wed to Ann Lowman on 13 Dec 1827. Andrew Mauck could also be a son of this Abraham.

The same marriage records of Virginia reveal that Andrew Muck married Mary Jane Vines on 25 Sept 1849. The family of this Andrew W. Muck and Mary J. Muck appears in the 1850 Census of Rockbridge Co, VA, Southwest District, page 398. Andrew is listed as a farmer, age 26, and Mary is age 27, both born in VA. Also in the household is Elizabeth Muck age 71 (most likely the wife of Adam above), Ann Muck age 23, and Mary E. Muck age 5.

The 1860 census of Augusta Co, VA shows Andrew W. Mauck age 35 and Mary J. Mauck age 37 and William Walker age 2, all living in the same household (no other children).

• Steve Lapp 290 C.R. 454, Hondo TX 78861-6041
>stevelapp@juno.com>

Goshenhoppen Macks

Research by Steve Lapp

Letter to Steve Lapp from Barbara Dittig
Steve,

I ran across the following e-mail written to you from Ron Moore and am trying to figure out where this family fits. - ????

Which John Mock Sr, who would have died before 1817, is this? Seems like he should fit into Chart #2 George & Esther Mack.

e-mail 11/12/02 from Ron Moore

"This was a will abstract that recently appeared on Ancestry.com. Is anyone able to identify this family? Schlicher, Christopher, Upper Hanover, Montgomery Co. February 10, 1796 - April 25, 1817.

Provides for wife Margareth, she being dau. of John Mock, Sr., late deceased. After her death, to Christopher, son of Yost Schlicher, £25.

To said brother's dau. Anna Mary wife of Jacob Schneider £25.

Remainder at disposal of wife Margareth.

Exrs: Wife Margareth and Adam Hittel.

Letters to John Mock, Jr. Adam Hittel renouncing.

Wit: John Staud and John Mock. "

Ron,

Anna Margaretha Mack married Christoph Schliger on June 23, 1767 at the New Goshenhoppen Reformed Church, I believe. She is the daughter of Johannes George Mack (earlier "Magg") and Maria Margaretha Zimmerman. I call this family the "Goshenhoppen Mocks", because most of the records for them come from the New Goshenhoppen and Old Goshenhoppen Churches in Montgomery Co. PA.

Steve

End of e-mail

To Barbara

You, or "we", have not done a "Working Chart" of the Goshenhoppen Mocks mainly because there are still too many uncertain connections. But, based mainly on the old church records in Montgomery Co. PA, here is what I have on Anna Margaretha's siblings and parents.

"John Mock Sr."

Johannes George Mack (Magg) married @Jan 1737 to Maria Margaretha Zimmerman. Their likely children are

1 - Eve Elisabeth Mack bapt. 20 Nov 1737, married Philip Lahr on 25 Nov 1760

2 - Catharina Mack married Henrich Stettler 25 Nov 1760 (double wedding with her sister)

3 - J. George Mack married Elizabeth Martin in 1767

4 - Johannes Mack born @Jan 1751 and died 5 Oct 1783, married Anna Maria Schell

4.1.- son Johannes Mack bapt. 19 Dec 1776

4.2. - son Wilhelm Mack born 28 Oct 1782, sponsors at bapt. were Philip Lahr and wife Elizabeth.

5 - Anna Maria Mack married Andreas Weiller

6 - Susanna Mack bapt. 21 Jan. 1749 married Jacob Wittmer

7 - "Fereni" (Veronica?) Mack

8 - Anna Margaretha Mack married Christoph Schliger on 23 June 1767

Now, I have never found satisfactory evidence of the parenthood of George Mack/Mock married to Esther in his 1811 Montgomery Co. will, though he is clearly part of the Goshenhoppen group.

I have often wondered if he is the #3 above George married first to Elizabeth Martin, maybe second to "Esther".

It is very interesting that Adam Hittle was a witness in George Mock's 1811 will, and Adam Hittel was co-executor of Christopher Schlicher's estate in his 1796 will (proved in 1817).

Apparently Adam refused to be executor, and John Mock Jr. took his place.

I am reluctant to formulate an official "Working Chart" for these Goshenhoppen Mocks, because there is just too much chance for errors. Maybe someday we will do one anyway - but people will still copy it as fact, when it is still much conjecture.

Hope this helps some.

• Steve Lapp in Quihi, Texas

Ed. Note:

As Steve has said, there is still speculation as to the uncertain connections of this Mack family. He has done extensive research on these Goshenhoppen Mocks and hopefully someday he will agree to make this an "official working chart". But in the meantime, please do not copy this as fact, but as a research in progress.

Barbara Dittig

Necrology

We wish to extend our heartfelt sympathy to Steve and Barbara Lapp and family. Barbara's father passed away February 11 after a long illness.

Steve and Barbara moved from San Francisco to Texas 5 years ago to care for her father.

Queries

Elizabeth Mock of Boston, MA

My name is Charlie McCormack I am doing the family history and hope you can help me.

I am looking for information on Elizabeth Mock, daughter of Jacob and Ellen Mock. Elizabeth married February 22, 1870 in Boston, Massachusetts Jacob P. Heibner son of Daniel and Elizabeth Heibner.

That all the information I have on them. Thank you for any help you can give me.

• Charlie McCormack 3067 Pipkin Road, Bonifay, FL 32425 lowrider1@wfeca.net

Descendant of Gilbert Mauk

My name is Jim Mauk a son of Bill Mauk. His fathers was Clarence Mauk and his father was Homer Mauk, son of Gilbert Mauk who was in the civil war. Do you have any info. on Gilbert Mauk?

• Jim Mauk maukj@mail.ucf.edu

Ed. Note: This query was forwarded to Harold Mauk who answered Jim with the following message.

Jim,

My Father was Homer Mauk's brother. I knew Clarence pretty well. Last I heard of Clarence, he lived up near the Missouri- Iowa line. Homer Mauk lived most of his life just north of Enid, Okla. My wife and I were there in the 1970's.

Homer's father was Gilbert Byron Mauk, his father was Cornelius Mauk and Corny Mauk's father was Gottlieb Mauk.

You will find this in Barbara Dittig's working chart for Gottlieb Mauk, Chart #55.

• Harold E. Mauk Sr. (hemausk@aol.com)

Harold wrote to Barbara:

I attended Gilbert Mauks funeral in Hutchinson Kansas, 1936. He is buried in Fairlawn cemetery there. He was born in 1846. A civil war vet. Shot in knee. stayed with outfit and made the march with Sherman to the sea. Helped stop the confederates at Chattanooga. He was in the 123 Illinois early in the war and in a battle 18 days after enlisting. A total of 90 thousand from both sides were killed in that battle.

He was 90 when he died. He made the run from Kiowa, Kansas in 1893 to homestead land in Garfield Co., Okla.

My Dad, Harry Mauk made the run with him in a buckboard as a teen ager. Harry was born Dec 23, 1879.

I was able to spend a week, three times in Ft. Dodge with him and his third wife, Emily in the 1920's.

Gilbert had children with the 1st two wives, he and Emily raised the children. I think Homer had a different mother than my dad. He was old enough to homestead land. Some of the other brothers were Frank, Augusta Ks,

James, Vigo, Ind, and John died in Garfield Co, Okla.

My wife, Fran and I are still around. I am 91 now and the above is all from some of my memories..

• Harold Eugene Mauk Sr.

Descendant of Casper Culp

I saw your name in the Apr 2004 "Penn Pal" for the Mack family on the ship Allen 1729. I'm not related to the Mack family as far as I know but am descended from Casper Culp who was on the same ship.

List A - Hance Gasper Kulp

List B - Hans Caspar Kolb

List C - Hans Kaspar Kolb

Casper was apparently the same man who was in Bucks Co., PA for a few years and then went to SC. where he died. I lived in Bucks Co. for about six years and searched every record I could to see if there was any connection to the Mack family, religious or otherwise. I could find nothing.

Do you know anything about Casper? I've only worked on this family for about 48 years!

• Thomas Shank 2177 Pasco Roseta Palm Springs, CA 92262 Tls2177@dc.rr.com

Findings

Godfrey Mock Ancestry

I have just made another great breakthrough in the ancestry of Godfrey Mock, my g-g grandfather. In the last Mock Family Historian there is an article on my previous breakthrough.

I had placed a posting on GenCircles Country of Germany Club Message board last September. Several weeks ago I received an email from a Kuno Krieger, who is a German living in Leingarten (previously Grossgartach), Germany. This is the town where my grandparents came from, according to their passport and information on the Mormon website. He stated that he had information back to 1630 regarding my Johann Gottfried Macco, and would send it to me if I sent him my mailing address.

Today I received a package in the mail with detailed information going back six generations to Friedrich Macco who was born in Ochsenburg, Neckarkreis, Wuerttemberg, Germany in 1630 and died in 1702! It is going to take awhile to digest all of the information and ask more questions of Kuno Krieger. So exciting!

GenCircle's website is: <http://www.gencircles.com>. All you have to do is enroll, free of charge. At the top of the page is a section "Clubs". Under that category are surnames, USA or World Clubs, and under the World category, you can pick from many countries, including Germany. I can't believe the luck that I had. I also have had tremendous luck with the Genealogy.com message boards.

• Georgia Kruse rockingranny@comcast.net

Letters to the Editor

Dear Ms. Dittig,

I am researching my Halm line. One of my collateral lines is Michael Halm married to Rebecca Mack (1762-1804), a daughter of Jacob Mack. She is 1.2.2.4 on your "Working Chart" #00 that I found via the Mock Family Research site. She appears on page 75 of Alexander Mack, the Tunker, and Descendants.

To date, I have not found any confirmation of the data shown, though I should check Jacob's will. In your opinion, how reliable have researchers found Ankrum's data to be from this era? Can you suggest any alternative resources?

Thanks,

• Chris Husson 79 Brook Rd. Pittsford, NY 14534
chusson@earthlink.net

Dear Chris,

We have had several of our members researching the Alexander Mack line. I cannot vouch for the authenticity of Ankrum's work, but one of our members wrote an article on the descendants of Jacob Mack of Franklin Co., PA (Mock Family Historian Vol. IX #2, 2000, page 15. In it he quotes the will of Jacob Mack - Franklin Co., PA Will Bk. C, pg 176 (copy on SLC film 323,865). From the will:

"11th of July 1811my will and desire is as before mentioned, that my three before named daughters and their husbands their issues and assigns to have and to hold to themselves their issues and assigns forever One hundred and ninety acres in my (illegible) of land my daughter Rebecca's children shall have eight hundred dollars to be paid in fifty dollars instalments (sic) each or more if they can raise the money, my son in law Michael (looks like Halm) hath received portion in cattle & household furniture, but from my land my daughter Rebecca's children are to receive it....."

This was taken from a true copy taken from the original as translated by Henry Reger, Deputy Register (illegible) of March 1814.

An article was written by John Metcalf and David Trubey (who is now deceased) regarding the Trubey line which had links to the Alexander Mack line. He states "This family line is unknown to Mock/ Mack genealogists due to incorrect information in the Biography of Alexander Mack written by Ankrum".

I believe you can still contact John Metcalf at > jlmetcalf@earthlink.net.

Hope this helps.

Barbara Dittig, editor

After many attempts to send the MFH issue, Vol. IX #2 by a PDF file, I finally figured it out and Chris was then able to open it.

from Chris,

"Whatever you did, the PDF file works fine now (so did the MS Word file). This is great. Now I should put you to work on my genealogical problems. This has been a good exercise in improving our persistence (stubbornness) quotient.

Mock, etc. researchers have a super resource in your Web site. It is too bad the Holms, or any of my other lines, are not as fortunate. I will have to keep you guys in mind if I ever need a model for a family surname site. Thanks for all the info, and persistence.

• Chris Husson

To the Editor of the Mock Family Historian

I am a descendent of Mary Moak and DeWitt Clinton Blakeman. My question is regarding information from the book Jacob Moak of New Scotland and his descendants 1720-1991. I notice that this book is stated as a reference source on Ancestry.com for Mary Moak, and some of the information is incorrect. Is there a new printing on the book or is anyone compiling an update?

Mary Moak, born 07 Oct 1805, NY married DeWitt Clinton Blakeman in 1841, Albany NY. The book states she married James Blakeman after Dewitt. This is not correct. Mary and Dewitt were married until death. I have obtained copies of wills and obits from Iowa, where they are buried.

Inaccurate information has cost me much time and many headaches and I would like to set this record straight!

Mary Moak is the daughter of Jacob Moak and Mary McCluskie (McClasky)

Mary and DeWitt are my ggg-grandparents.

Regards,

Linda Meadows

• Linda Meadows <Linda.A.Meadows@parsonsec.com>

Hello Linda,

I will be happy to report these changes to our Mock group. I see that I have not done a chart for this family. I'll put a correction in our next newsletter for anyone else that may be researching this line.

There was an article written for the Mock Family Historian by Michael Moak, The Maags of Bachenbulach. This article ties the Maags and the Moaks, all coming from Switzerland and into NY. In the chart I see a Jacob Moak, b. 10 10 Jan 1775, New Scotland, Albany, NY, but his wife and children are not listed. I have the book you mention, so will look it up and see if this is the Jacob, father of your Mary. If you would like a copy of this article, send me your snail mail address and I'll send it to you.

Thanks for writing. I always appreciate any corrections or additions to our research.

Barbara Dittig, editor
Mock Family Historian

Cont'd from page 3 "Swan Eats Crow!"

He and Elizabeth had three sons and two daughters, all born in Maryland before the family went west. In addition, I believe that Peter II also went to Ohio, and can be recognized in the 1840 census of Peter Mock, born 1760-70, in Seneca County, but I have only that one record to support this assumption.

The details of all of this, with sources, will shortly be available online in the revised web pages of my Mock Ancestry, <freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.com/~paulrswan/. I'm in the process of tracing the descendants of all of Peter Mock's eight children, which I didn't do years ago when I was researching my own ancestor Christian, eldest son of Peter's second wife Elizabeth.

• Paul Swan <paulrswan@sbcglobal.net

More Finds

Found in the Augusta Chronicle 11 June 1823

Arthur Mock 1823 Burke Co. GA

We present, as a grievance, the confinement of Arthur Mock, who is now in the jail of this county, under sentence and will be there detained until he shall pay a certain fine which, from his inability, will amount to perpetual confinement at the expense of the county.

• Sharon & Alex Davis

Saturday, Sacramento Bee - Nov 12, 1904

Butte County, California

Oroville, November 12 - County Clerk H.T. Batchelder issued marriage licenses to the following since last report:

Carl Alton Sample, age 24, and Miss Anna Bell Moak, age 22, both of Chico;

Went to the Genealogy Library yesterday. Didn't find anything I needed but wrote down some things that pertained to the Mock surname.

Sorry I forgot to write down the full name of the book

Abstracts Book 24 Berks County, PA

Jacob Mock of Amity Twp. Letter of Administration granted Nov 27 1865 to Aaron and Jacob G. Mock, sons, widow having renounced. page 377

1883 List of Pensioners Berks County, PA mainly civil war

Thomas Mock of Greshville PO accidental gun shot wound monthly pension $3.00 Date of original allowance July 1876

• Scott & Rebecca Mock mockfamily@verizon.net

Obituary for Simon Mock

Submitted by Don Houck

Indiana, PA, Indiana Evening Gazette

issue of Monday, 23 February 1948, p. 1, col. 8

Simon Mock, 94 Years Old, Dead

Simon Mock, 94, died at the home of his son, Charles F. Mock, 961 Church Street Sunday, Feb. 22nd, at 8:45 a.m. He had suffered from bright's disease.

Mr. Mock was born October 18, 1853, son of Joseph and Sarah Wentz Mock, and had resided in White township, following the occupation of farming all his life except for the last few years, spent in the home of his son here.

He was a member of the Evangelical Church, Indiana.

Surviving are two sons, Joseph M. Mock, Blacklick, Charles F., 961 Church Street, and daughters, Mrs. Grace Lockard, Dravosburg; Mrs. Lottie Crawford, Cleveland, O.; Mrs. Sarah Sexton, Fairmont City, Pa. One son Verner S., and one daughter Mrs. Celia Lowman preceded him in death.

His wife, Mary Amanda Ferrier Mock, died March 25, 1894.

Friends are being received at the Leydic Funeral Home, Wayne Ave., where services will be held Wednesday, Feb. 25, 1948 at 2 p.m., by Rev. I.L. Peterson. Interment in Manor Cemetery, Penn Run.

Found another one. I am sure that the 24 years is wrong, should be 34 years. The paper definitely say 24 but it must be a typo.

• Don Houck dahouck@comcast.net

Indiana Democrat, Indiana, PA

29 March 1894

Mrs. Simon Mock, of White twp., died on Sunday, March 25, 1894, aged 24 years, 9 months and 6 days. She leaves a husband and 7 children. She was a daughter of Amos Ferrier, of Green-twp., and a sister of A. O. Ferrier, of this place.

From Bedford County Pennsylvania Orphan's Court

Docket number 3

3rd August 1812 came into court Nancy Mock minor daughter of William Mock deceased about the age of 14 years and chose Alexander Mock for her guardian whereupon the court approve of Alexander Mock and appoint him guardian of said minor.

I thought Nancy was likely to be from the Alexander Mack line chart number 0. However, if the above Nancy is in fact 1.3.1.7 on that chart, I either transcribed the court date incorrectly or William's death date was not 1813.

• Karen Krich in Pennsylvania

Pennsylvania Longanecker Family

Submitted by Dr. Patricia Lubits Gump

Joseph Longenecker's line begins in Bern, Switzerland in 1528 as follows:

PeterLonganecker1>Michael2>Ulrich3>David4> Daniel Longenegger5>David6>John Longenecker7 >Joseph8

I am researching, and trying to record, info about the Longanecker Family. As a result, I checked your research on the Mack's, Jacob Mack (your # 1.3.1.1.4) and Sarah in particular. (Alexander Mack Chart #0)

I thought I would share with you some of the info I have on Joseph Longanecker who was married to Sarah Mack (your # 1.3.1.1.2). I haven't typed the detailed info on the 3 children of theirs yet, but hope to do that soon.

I - Joseph Longanecker b. 25 Aug 1776 Lancaster Co, PA, s/o John Longanecker and Unknown; d. 15 Nov 1853 in Leckrone, outside of Masontown, German Township, Fayette Co, PA; possibly buried on the Louck Farm in Leckrone, PA; m. 1st Mary Leckrone b. 1 Sept 1786 d/o Matthias and Nancy Silveus Leckrone; d. 1817, possibly from child birth. Joseph and Mary had 5 children:
1 - Catherine Longanecker b. 7 Apr 1807; d. 15 Aug 1855 from a stroke in German twp, Fayette Co, PA., bur. in Fairview Cemetery, Masontown, Fayette Co, PA; m. 9 Aug 1826 Reverend Jacob Mack, a German Baptist minister, b. 3 Nov 1803, son of Jacob Mack, Sr. and Unknown. Jacob Mack, Senior and Junior had a mill at Brown's Run (Messmore), German Township, Fayette County, PA.

Reverend Mack died in August 1870 in Illinois.

2 - Frances Longanecker b.30 Jul 1808, d. 18 Sept 1888 from a stroke; m. John Riley b. 14 Nov 1803; d. 24 Sept 1884 German Twp, Fayette Co, PA.

3 - John Longanecker b. 2 Aug 1811; d. 14 Feb 1886 of a stroke m. 9 Mar 1841 Mary "Polly" Mack b. 20 Oct 1812; d. 6 Feb 1844, They are buried in the Fairview Cem., Masontown, Fayette Co, PA.

4 - Maria Longanecker b. 29 Apr 1815; d. 27 Jan 1864, 49y, 9m, 2 d of Typhoid Fever; m. Samuel Renshaw b. 1812; d. 12 Oct 1863, 51y, 8m, 4d. They are buried in the Fairview Cem., Masontown, Fayette Co, PA.

5 - Joseph Longanecker b. 1 Feb 1817; d. 2 Jul 1880, 63 y, 5m, 1d; m. 8 Feb 1838 M(ary) Annetta Barber b.17 Sep 1817 MD d/o Rezen Barber and Harriet Goldberry; Joseph and M. Annetta lived near (New) Geneva, Nicholson Twp, Fayette Co, PA. They had 15 children in a twenty year span. They are buried in the Fairview Cemetery, Masontown, Fayette Co, PA.

Sources:

Jordan, John W. and Hadden, James, "Genealogical and Personal History of Fayette County Pennsylvania," Lewis Historical Publishing Company, NY, 1912.

Longacre-Longaker-Longenecker History, compiled by the Honorable A.R.

Longaker of Norristown, PA., and published by the Lutheran Publication Society, Philadelphia, PA., 1903.

Mack, Jacob Rev. (1803-1870), "Scrap Book of Family Records," Masontown and surrounding communities, Fayette County, PA, with additions by the Daughters of the American Revolution after Reverend Mack's death in 1870.

On microfilm from the genealogical records of the Church of the Latter Day Saints, Salt Lake City, Utah. Miller, Kathryn Cooley, "Some Fayette County Pennsylvania Cemeteries, Closson Press, Apollo, PA, 1996.

Obituary of Joseph Longanecker5, local newspaper, most likely Uniontown, Fayette County, PA, July 1880.

Joseph Longanecker m. 2nd Sarah Mack, b.25 Jun 1798 d/o Jacob Mack, Sr. and sister of Jacob Mack, Jr. ; Sarah d. 13 Jun 1892. Joseph and Sarah had 3 children:

1 - Jacob Longanecker b. 5 June 1818

2 - Lydia Longanecker b. abt 1819

3 - Nancy Longanecker b. abt 1820.

Sources:

Ellis, Franklin, "History of Fayette Co, Pennsylvania," L.H. Everts & Co., Philadelphia, 1882.

Jordan, John W. and Hadden, James, "Genealogical and Personal History of Fayette Co Pennsylvania," Lewis Historical Publishing Company, NY, 1912.

Longacre-Longaker-Longenecker History, compiled by the Honorable A.R. Longaker of Norristown, PA, and published by the Lutheran Publication Society, Philadelphia, PA, 1903.

Mack, Jacob Rev. (1803-1870) "Scrap Book of Family Records," Masontown and surrounding areas, Fayette County, PA, with additions by the Daughters of the American Revolution after Reverend Mack's death in 1870. On microfilm from the genealogical records of the Church of the Latter Day Saints, Salt Lake City, Utah. Obituary of Joseph Longanecker5 (b 1 February 1817; d 2 July 1880), local newspaper, most likely Uniontown, Fayette Co, PA, July 1880.

Wiley, Samuel T. & Gresham, John M., "Biographical and Portrait Cyclopedia of Fayette Co Pennsylvania," John M Gresham & Co., Chicago, 1889.

Note:

It might be that Sarah Mack, 2nd wife of Joseph Longanecker, was married at some point to Jacob Leckrone, brother of Mary Leckrone. Mary was the 1st wife of Joseph Longanecker. Jordan and Hadden note a marriage between Sarah Mack and Jacob Leckrone when discussing the Leckrone family. Dates for the marriage are not given.

I really appreciated seeing your research online. It helped me place the Mack line much better. I hope this info helps you.

• Dr. Patricia Lubits Gump 5 N Washington St., Masontown, PA 15461-1809 Patricia943@webtv.net

In this Issue:		Page
Andrew Mauck of Lexington, VA		1	Goshenhoppen Macks	9
Submitted by Steve Lapp			Research by Steve Lapp
Mock Family DNA Project		2	Queries & Finds	10
Doug Mauck, Manager			Letters to the Editor	11
News Flash - Swan Eats Crow!		3	Obituary of Simon Mock	12
Submitted by Paul Swan			Submitted by Don Houck
Ernest Mouck of Prince Edward Co, Canada			PA Longanecker Family	13
Submitted by Rhoda Cook			Submitted by Dr. Patricia Lubits Gump
Julia Alcock Mock of Jasper Co., IL		4
Submitted by Pam McLaughlin			The Mock Family Historian is a quarterly publication.
Early German Settlers of South Carolina			Dues - $12 per calendar year.
Rambo Website			Submit "ready to print" articles of early Mock/
Submitted by Karen Krich			Mack ancestor; queries and other items of interest to Working Chart Update			Barbara Dittig, editor. E-mail - bdittig@comcast.net
Mary Marcella Mauck's Wedding gown		5	Visit the Mock Family Home Page at:
Submitted by Jack Childers			> http://mock.rootsweb.com > This will link you to the
Phillip Mack of PA & NC			"Mock Working Charts
Submitted by Sharon Mock Whitaker			Mock DNA Project:
Bedford Co., PA Marriages		6	< http://members.cox.net/dmauck/chart >
Mock/McMasters of Armstrong Co., PA
Submitted by Tom Cunningham
Descendants of Frederick & Bathsheba Mock		7
Submitted by Chandra Hoffman

Mock Family Historian
 Barbara Eichel Dittig
 366 Jacaranda Drive
 Danville, CA 94506-2125

