Bartholomew, Wolfgang, Thomas and Christina arrived in Savannah, Georgia with a group of German Protestants (Lutherans) on October 23, 1751 aboard the English Ship "Antelope" with Captain John McClelland. They traveled as members of the 2nd Swabian Unit from Langenau by ULM, South Germany near the Austrian border.

There were three brothers and a sister who arrived in Georgia in 1751. They acquired land and settled in the Ebenezer/Bethany Community (Salzburger) of Georgia, which is about 20 miles north of Savannah on the Savannah River which is now Effingham County, Georgia.

There seems to be a question of whether or not Wolfgang Mock was a brother to Bartholomew, Thomas and Christina. I have been unable to find any information to the contrary.

All four of this family of Mocks married and began raising families. Bartholomew, Wolfgang and Christina died after a short life and are buried in the Bethany Cemetery which is about 5 miles from the old Ebenezer Church and cemetery.

Thomas married Mary Weinkauff in 1765. They lived in the area called Blue Bluff until about 1771 when they moved to Mecklenburg, Cabarrus Co., N.C. with Mary's family. Thomas died in 1807 and is buried in Cold Water Lutheran Church Cemetery near Concord, N.C. Mary died in 1816 and is buried at Mt. Zion Cemetery at China Grove, N.C.

Thomas and Mary Weinkauff Mock are my 5th great grandparents on my father's side and 4th great grandparents on my mother's side. William George Mock married into my father's family and his sister, Christina married into my mother's family.

I hope this article and pedigree chart will be of interest to Mock researchers. I feel certain that my Mocks are connected with the group that entered the US through Pennsylvania and later united in North Carolina. Hopefully someone has the missing piece of the puzzle to connect the two families.

A lot of credit has to be given to George Mock of Bainbridge, GA, who did a great deal of research on this family before I became involved. An aunt gave me a copy of his research that he had given to various family members. His work inspired me to continue and fill in dates, places, etc. I used his basic information and was able to fill in a lot of blanks and extend lines to the latest generation. Without his research, I may never have gotten interested in genealogy which has become my favorite "hobby".

NEWSLETTER EXCHANGE

Thanks to J.P. Mock who sent Vol. I to various libraries and historical societies, we now have an exchange agreement with the following societies:

"The Harrisonburg-Rockingham Historical Society is appreciative of the donation received entitled "Mock Family Historian." The booklet will be placed in our Genealogical Library for use by current and future researchers. P.S.: We will be happy to exchange newsletters. Enclosed is the first issue for 1993"

"I am writing on behalf of the Winchester-Frederick Co., VA Historical Society, who received the copy of the MFH and were very impressed. They have added your organization's name to the exchange program list. I have researched the Mock family twice for clients. This will be wonderful to let future clients know about, so that they can contact you. (signed) Connie Jean Casilear

From Frederick Co., MD Genealogical Society "We appreciate your contribution of the MFH which we have placed in our vertical files."

From Pioneer Historical Society of Bedford Co., PA: "Our society thanks you for sending the MFH and would be more than glad to exchange publications with you."

Gallia County , Ohio Historical Society

From Davidson Co., NC Public Library System: I want to thank you for the copy of (MFH). There are many Mocks in Davidson Co. and I am sure they will be pleased to see this. We also have the "Partial Genealogy of Moses Mock of North Carolina and Arkansas" by Gene V. Mock. From your information, I see you know who he is, since he has submitted a query. If there is anything I can do to help you, just let me know. (signed) Mrs. Jeanette Wilson, Genealogy Dept.
Ed. Note: Gene is one of our members.

From Rowan Public Library (N.C.) Thank you very much for the gift of (MFH) Vol. I. It will be of great assistance to the researchers who use the Edith M. Clark History Room. We are delighted that you wanted to make a donation to Rowan Public Library.

More on Peter Mock Sr. of Frederick Co.,MD

Received today (May 8) from prospective new member to editor
 from Paul R. Swan, P.O. Box 6036 #1631599, Englewood, CO 80155:

"My attention was drawn to your advertisement in the Nov-Dec Genealogical Helper for the Mock Family Historian. My mother's mother's mother's mother was a Margaret Mock, dau. of Christian and wife of David Burger Teeter, so I am very interested in you research clearinghouse.

I've included for your information a printout of all of the Mock notes that I've gathered so far. They are in the form of a tentative, unproven lineage ....."

Peter Mock and Elizabeth ?

Peter was born about 1727, and was married to Elizabeth? He died 3 Apr 1812 in Frizzellburg, Frederick, (now Carroll), Maryland. The record of Peter's death is from the Baust Church Cemetery in Frizzellburg, Uniontown Township, Frederick (now Carroll) county, Maryland. His death 3 Apr 1812 at age 85 enables us to estimate his birth year as about 1727. The Baust Church was originally organized sometime before 1794, and its church building was jointly used by the Lutheran and Reformed. congregations. In the same cemetery is buried Margaret Mock who died 2 Jan 1815 aged 64. She might be either a spinster, or a wife with that married surname. If the former, she could be a daughter of Peter.

On 1 Mar 1783 a Peter Mock sold Lot 168 in Jerusalem Town, Washington Co.,MD, for 30 pounds to William Walter. Elizabeth Mock is recorded as having relinquished her dowry in that land, which provides our only evidence so far for the name of Peter's wife. That this transaction refers to Peter Sr. follows from the report that Peter Jr. had moved to Bedford Co.,PA some fifteen years earlier.

There was a Peter Mock who served in the 5th Class of Capt. Jacob Sarer's Co. of the MD Militia in Washington Co.,MD, some forty miles to the west. A Daniel Whetstone, a name related to our Burger ancestors, was in the 2nd Class of the same company. There was also a William Mock in 3rd Class of Capt. Hogmire's Company of that county.

We postulate that one child of Peter and Elizabeth (?) Mock was Peter, who was born about 1750 and died before 4 Apr 1817.

According to the Bedford County History (Anon., 1884) Peter Mock moved from Maryland about 1768 and settled on Bobb's Creek in Union Township, Bedford, Pennsylvania. Finding the land too wet, he moved south to the hills of the next township, St. Clair. He had eight sons and one daughter who married Frederick Carn.

Editor's Note: Paul Swan has obviously done a great deal of research on this family. I will send him this issue in appreciation for his contribution to the MFH, most of which I have not printed. It is also my hope that he will join our group. For those wishing to contact Paul, he will be at his Englewood, CO address after June 1993.

FROM OUR MEMBERS.....

From Ronald W. Floyd, 20916 42nd Ave. SE, Bothell, WA 98021

First let me say that I am pleased to be counted among the new members of the Mock Family Historian. Like many of you, I have toiled mostly alone for years without the knowledge that there were so many other kindred souls equally devoted to pursuing the history of those bearing the Mock family name or one of its many derivations.

I have, perhaps, some new information, a few observations and comments to share with those who are researching the Rowan Co., NC Mock Lines. My comments will, generally speaking, be in reference to articles submitted in previous issues of the newsletter.

1. Vol. I No. 1, pg 3/4 Peter/John/Alexander Mock - Ref. PA. Oaths of Allegiance, Gen. Publ. Co., Egle

In my research, regarding the Ship St. Catherine, I noted only Peter Mack and Johannes Mack. (23 Sept 1752) I do have mention of an Alexander Mack family associated with the Allen (15 Sept 1729). Could someone out there provide me with the reference material used to connect Alexander to the ship St. Catherine?

It has been noted, this Peter Mock is the same one who migrated to Rowan, it is not likely that he remained in PA for any length of time. Such a premise appears to be born out by the noticeable absence of references to Peter in any of the PA church records (at least that I have reviewed). There is enough hard information available to establish Peter's presence in Rowan at least as early as 1778 as opposed to the 1784 date most often quoted. Most notable among the references available is Richard Enochs' "Rowan Co. North Carolina Vacant Land Entries 1778-1789." Entry #1008 of 9 July 1778 reads: "HERMAN SPILMAN 640 A on the big Branch on the S side of the Yadkin R adjacent Peter Mock and Stephen Riddle...." and "#3031 of 11 Aug 1786, Peter Mock, etc., including his own improvements." It is clear from these legal entries that Peter Mock, had taken up residence in the Yadkin area sometime before July of 1778. A few other entries listed in this book are #1268, 5 Aug 1778 and #1250, 4 Aug 1778 (Phillip Mock), #1512, 15 Sep 1778 (Dewalt Mock) and #3032, 11 Aug 1786 (Andrew Mock).

Additionally, in "NC Genealogical Society Journal, Vol. 1 (1975)" 1773 Debtors of Col. John McGee, Orange Co., N.C., deceased, on pg. 41 is one Peter Mock. Many of the names found in this list are recognizable later as Rowan Co. inhabitants. Only Guilford Co. separated Rowan & Orange Co. in 1773. Who else might this Peter be?

As I have noted above, I feel that there is a good case to make for Peter's arrival in NC by or before 1773. I have not had access to Ms. Gray's book. Did she cite the source for determining Peter's marriage to Barbara Martin and the naming of the brothers?

2. Vol. 1 No. 2, pg 15 To Katherine Mock: John, who is my ancestor, was indeed married by 1795. See Rowan Co. marriage records: Re: John Mock and Catherine Graves (Graff), 4 Oct 1790, Bondsman: Peter Mock (with notation "Groom is German"). Would appreciate ref. to substantiating evidence of Peter's marriage to Barbara Martin. I have copy of an Indenture (land sold to John's father-in-law, Conrod Graves) which is signed Johannes P. (Peter?) Mock and Catron C. (her mark) Mock and witnessed by Peter Mock.

3. Vol. I No. 3, pg 27 - To Ms. Dale Barton: You're a long ways from Albuquerque. How long has it been, 1985? Have quite a bit of info on George & John. Would be glad to share what I have.

4. Vol. I No. 4, pg 37 - To Edith Clark: Do you know how I might obtain a copy of the Peter Mock estate record?

5. Vol. I No. 5, pg 42 - To Mary Knowles: John M. Mock married (lic. 2-17-1829/no return) Betsy Pippin in Orange Co., IN. Betsy was the sister of Lucinda Pippin and dau. of Arthur Pippin & Mary Hudnall of Edgecombe Co., NC. Arthur died in Surry Co. Mary remarried in Orange Co., a George Tennyson Mock (my ancestor), b 25 Aug 1830, possibly named after his Uncles George Mock & Tennyson Cheshire (husb. of Barbara Mock), Sarah Jane Mock, b. 11 Nov 1833 and Mary Mock b. (?). Have additional info on these families. References: Orange Co., IN marriage records, Edgecombe Co. marriage records, Edgecombe Co. Wills and Probate and Edgar Co., IL 1830 Census.

6. Vol. I No. 1, pg 4 - Comments on Devaulter Mock. Either there are two Devault or Devaulter Mocks or there is something very wrong with these dates. See "List of Non-Jurors Rowan Co." and "North Carolina Tax Payer" (Ratliff). Both list Dewault Mock for the year 1759. Also Vol 2 of Taxpayers lists a Paul (Devault?) Mock for the year 1761. I think we must presume that he was at least over the age of 18 which would place his birth at no later than 1741. What is his relationship to Peter? Possibly an older brother?? Incidentally I have not reviewed the original tax lists referred to by Mr. Ratliff so I considered this info a secondary source.

Note from Marianne Johnson to Steve Lapp:

You were so nice to answer my MOCK query. I'm sorry I wasn't too clear as to what I wanted. I suppose I want someone to say - oh yes, I have those Middletown Mocks. Based on the work of others, I've been told that the parents of Thomas Mock were George & Catherine. However, I have no proof so the first thing I'm looking for proof of the parents and siblings of Thomas Mock.

I'm now hoping my husband's Mock's marry up (figuratively and literally) to some family in PA which has been traced back to the immigrant (there goes that wishful thinking!)

Again, thank you so much for taking the time to answer my inquiry.

Q U E R I E S

....From our new members.....

I am interested in finding information on Julia Mock, b.abt.1823. According to census reports, she immigrated in 1835 from Germany. She married Joseph Strub probably in New York City where her 4 oldest children were born - Augusta, b.1 Aug 1847, Joseph, b.Aug 1848, John B. b.1850, & Conrad b. 1855. John drowned at a young age. Children born in Iowa were: Mary 1858, John 1861, Charles 1864, George 1866 and William 1869. Julia Mock Strub died 28 Aug 1915 in Iowa City,IO. She was a member of the German Lutheran Church. I found her name when her son John applied for a marriage license in Aug 1890. This is the only document I have found with her maiden anme.

Rachel Mauk, b.1822 MD m. Amos Tatman. They moved to Ross Co. and Hocking Co., Ohio in the 1840's. The other Mauk female I'm researching is Martha J. Mauk who married John A. Smith 11 Sept 1853 Ross Co., which later became Hocking Co.,OH. Both of these Mauk females appeared in Hocking Co.,OH about the same time that George & Michael Mauk came there. I have not been able to tie Rachel and Martha to any of the Mauks in Hocking and Ross Co.,OH. Any help would be greatly appreciated.

Seeking information on the parents of George Mauck b. 1810, m. Elizabeth Shipley, b. 1809. I have a note that the name could have been changed from Mauck to Mock around the beginning of the Civil War. Would appreciate any info on this family. Thank you for sending the MFH Vol. 1. I enjoyed them very much. Can't wait to see the next issue. I was overwhelmed at all the Mock's. I thought it was a fairly uncommon name even though I have a database with over 560 people in it.

H.(Harmon) Mock, b. SC, was 58 in the 1850 Census Decatur Co.,GA. which would indicate he was born in 1792 in SC. Does anyone know the parents of Harmon? He married a Sarah Parrott who was born in Alabama. Their children were: Chelson b. 1830 GA, Harmon b.1835 GA. Thomas Mock was in Beaufort SC in 1830 and a George Mock was in Edgefield Co.SC in 1830. Can anyone shed any light on this line??

Still looking for the parents of Thomas, Christina, Wolfgang & Bartholomew who arrived in GA in 1751.

From our *PRODIGY CONNECTION

"I just discovered the Mauck BB, and I'm so excited! I was born "Frankie Joan Carol Mauck" in Washington, D.C. on Nov. 23, 1941. My dad was Earle Lewis Mauck, b. 24 May 1890 in Princeton, Indiana. He and his 1st wife, Isabelle Grigsby Mauck, were divorced. They had one child, Earl Grigsby Mauck. He married (2nd), my mother, Grace Bible in 1922. His mother, Ada Wilhite Mauck, died when he was sixteen. Ada Wilhite m. Arthur Mauck and his father was Jacob Mauck who married Mary Milne. Since my dad died when I was eleven, I have very sketchy information about our family tree, and I'd appreciate any information I could get! I've been told that the original Maucks were French Heugonauts, who came over to America because of being persecuted by Queen Catherine. The first Mauck supposedly was an indentured servant who came to Virginia in the 1600's. If any of this can be documented, please let me know. I found it interesting that there was an indenture dated 22 April 1784 between George Volk and George Mock, since I'm now married to a Volk!"

Ron Moore, MFH member, promptly answered Frankie with the following information:

Frankie, I have studied your information in greater detail, and it appears that M. Isabelle Grigsby must have been your father's 1st wife, and it appears that Dovie Kendle's mother was a Spore, and the Spore line traces back to the John Mauck family. John was a son of Peter Mauck who was in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia in the early 1730's. Most of the John Mauck line eventually moved to Harrison Co., IN. Earl Grigsby Mauck must be your half brother, right? There is no indication from this book that your father is descended from Peter Mauck. It would be of interest for you to find out if your father and his first wife may have been distant cousins. It would be necessary for you to trace his line back generation by generation. As I noted before, if you have no one to give you the info, the death certificate is often a good place to start. I and several others on the board here, I am sure, would be happy to help you. JP Mock has a huge database on the Virginia Maucks. That was quite a coincidence that your father was located in (Wm. Wolph's book), "The Descendants of Peter Mauck", because he may or may not be connected, and it appears that he was in the book, not because he was a Mauck, but because he was married to M. Isabelle Grigsby who was a descendant of Peter Mauck.

Ron Moore

Thank you, Ron, for all of the information you have provided me. I found it very interesting that my father's first wife was a descendant of Peter Mauck, implying that my father and his first wife were distant cousins. I would love to read the pages from Wolph's book. We believe you're correct that the Maucks were of German ancestry, who lived in Alsace Lorraine, which was on the border of France. Thank you for all of your help and advice.

Editor's note: this is a very good example of our members helping others. I have contacted Frankie and hopefully she will be joining us soon. If any of you have further information that will be helpful in her research, send it to me (Barbara Dittig) and I will see that she gets it.

From *Prodigy member, William Windle - Have just purchased the book "From the Rhine to the Shenandoah" by Daniel BLY. Great book just out - 228 pages hard-bound. MOCK FAMILY HISTORIAN THIRD ANNUAL REUNION*WHERE: LAS VEGAS, NEVADA*WHEN: SEPTEMBER 24-26, 1993

Last year's gathering was so successful, we in California decided we wanted to do it again, but at a location that would be more convenient to more members. Hotel space is plentiful in Las Vegas and inexpensive airline fares are available if you book reservations early. The weather is great this time of year and there is plenty to do for those who don't wish to devote their time to genealogy. (Can that be??!) Do hope you will all consider coming and bringing your spouse or a friend.

A structured schedule and possible guest speakers are being considered. A block of rooms will be reserved so let us hear from you if you wish to attend. There will be another MFH published before Sept. and further information will follow to those interested in attending.
