GEORGE MOCK OF HARRISON CO., IN

BY JAMES P. MOCK

In previously published articles of the MFH we have followed the migration and documentation of the family of George Mock and Sophia Muller. One of the biggest finds for this line was by Steve Lapp, when he discovered this family in the church records of the Emmanuel Lutheran Church in Lancaster Co., PA. The church records provided the marriage of George and Sophia and the birth and/or christening dates for all of their children: Catherina, Daniel, Christopher, Christina, George and Susannah.

George and Sophia moved to the area of Middletown, Frederick Co., VA in the mid-1700's where George died between 1803 and 1808. Catherina married Jeremiah Eberly before 1803 and they remained in Shenandoah Co. Daniel married Mary Hite 8 Feb 1796 and they moved to Fairfield Co., OH before 1820. Christopher married Rosina Baker 14 Oct 1808 and died in the Shenandoah Valley in 1809. Rosina remained in the valley until her death about 1832. Christina married Jacob Harman 29 Oct 1797 and they moved to Montgomery Co., VA by 1804 where they remained until their deaths. George married Mary Gander 26 Aug 1802 and moved to Montgomery Co., VA in 1803 where he remained until 1811.

We had previously been unable to locate George after 1811. Thanks to Lirette Randolph, who first noticed the coincidence between her George and Mary in Harrison Co., IN and the George and Mary of Frederick Co., VA, we now know that George and Mary moved on to Harrison Co., IN in 1811 and their descendant's, like those of his brother Daniel, adopted the surname spelling of Muck. What follows is the documentation I have for George Mock and Mary Gander. I'm still working this family and documenting their descendants, as is Lirette Randolph. We welcome correspondence on this line. In a future article I will expand on the other children of George and Sophia, particularly the families that remained in the Shenandoah Valley area.

Notes:

George is identified as a son of George and Sophia in "Records of Pastoral Acts at Emmanuel Lutheran Church, known in the 18th century as the Warwick Congregation", which was translated by the Pennsylvania German Society in 1983. This church was located near present day Brickerville, Lancaster Co., PA. The book also provided his birth and baptism information. His sponsors were Jacob Muller and wife Anna Maria Miller.

George is listed in his father's Will dated 13 Sep 1803 (@1). His father related that George married a woman contrary to his father's wishes and was other wise disobedient, then leaves him only $1.

George's marriage is listed in the Frederick Co., VA marriage register. The bond identified Mary's father as Peter Gander and the bondsman as Jacob Gander. Jacob Gander is identified as a brother of Mary in The History and Genealogy of the Gander Families by Charles Harrison Gander. This book also indicated Mary's marriage to George and provided Mary's birth information and her parent's information.

George first appears in Montgomery Co., VA in the personal property tax list of 1803 and appears yearly in these tax lists through 1811. George and Maria appear in the church records of the Zion Lutheran Church in Montgomery Co., VA 14 Jul 1805 when they sponsored the baptism of Benjamin Harman, son of Jacob Harman and Christina Mock (George's sister) (@2). George appears in a Montgomery Co., VA probate inventory for Benjamin Widdle 20 Aug 1807 as a witness (@3). The probate also mentions debts to be collected by Jacob Harman. George is listed in the 1810 census of Montgomery Co., VA as George Muk, adjacent Jacob Harman, husband of his sister Christina.

In a Frederick Co. deed dated 22 Jun 1811 (@4) George and Mary of Montgomery Co., VA sold seventeen acres near Belle Grove, Frederick Co., VA to Isaac Hite. This land had been received by George from his brother Christopher who had received it from their father. Daniel Mock was one of the witnesses. The deed is followed by a court order indicating Mary was visited in Montgomery Co. to ensure the deed met with her approval. The witnesses to this deed included Daniel Mock and Peter & John Senseney. Peter Senseney, possibly a father of these two vs. the same Peter, lived adjacent George's parents in Frederick Co., VA in 1779 (@5).

Documentation stating that George Mock and Mary Gander moved on to Indiana has not been found. However, an examination of the records involving George and Mary Mock/Muck of Harrison Co., IN and their connections to the Gander and Senseney families would indicate that they are the same George and Mary.

According to The Senseney's of America by Barton Sensenig, Dr. Peter Senseney of Frederick Co., VA had sons John and Peter. According to the Frederick Co., VA marriage records John Senseney married Nancy Gander 9 Jul 1790. John and Nancy had sons Peter, Samuel and Abraham who moved to Harrison Co., IN. All three of these sons appear in probate and deed records of Harrison Co., IN.

The History and Genealogy of the Gander Families by Charles Harrison Gander, identified Nancy as a possible sister of Mary Gander (George Mock's wife). It also identifies another sister of Mary and Magdalena Gander who married first, John Pratt, and second, Abraham Bline, and that Magdalene and Abraham moved to Harrison Co., IN by 1840.

George Mauck first appears in Harrison Co., IN in the 1811 property tax list on 26 Nov. for 160 acres in section 8, twp. 4, range 3. George also appears in the property tax lists for 1812, 1814 and 1817 for the same land. A review of the deed records of Harrison Co., IN failed to locate the original purchase of this land. On 2 Jun 1818 George Mock purchased 50 acres in Harrison Co., IN in section 18, twp. 5, range 5 (@6) and 100 acres in section 7, twp. 5, range 5 (@7). George appears in the 1820 and 1830 census of Harrison Co., IN. Mary appears in the 1840 census of Harrison Co., IN.

In a Harrison Co., IN Will dated 1 Sep 1837 and proved 18 Sep 1837 (@8) George Muck identifies his wife as Mary and their children as Elizabeth, John, Jacob, Samuel, Margaret wife of Henry Keller, and Nancy wife of Anthony Pitman. The administrator of this Will was Peter Senseney (son of Mary's sister Nancy).

George's land in section 8, twp. 4, range 3 was sold by some of his children on 24 Aug 1839 (@9). Additional children sold this land 2 Jun 1839 (@10), 8 Jun 1840 (@11) and 10 Jul 1843 (@12).

George and Mary are buried in the Hottel Cemetery, Washington Twp., Harrison Co., IN. Their tombstones provided their birth year and death dates. The birth years match that of those known to be the birthdates of George and Mary Mock. Their daughter, Rebecca, and her husband are also buried in the same cemetery.

Of interest is that John Mauck/Mauk, grandson of Peter Mauck of Frederick Co., VA also moved to Harrison Co., IN and lived there at the same time as George and Mary. No connection has been found between the two families, although both families also appear in the church records of the St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Strasburg, Shenandoah Co., VA. John's family is further detailed in The Descendant's of Peter Mauck by William Wolph. Caution should be used when researching both these families as they lived in the same area and many of their children had the same names.

SCHAEFFERSTOWN MOCKS

BY STEVE LAPP

The following genealogy is compiled from data in A Brief History of Schaefferstown by A. S. Brendle in 1901, and can be found at the Family History Library in Salt Lake City, Utah. I have not confirmed this genealogy with original records, but it corresponds with the records of St. Lukes Evangelical Lutheran Church records in Heidelberg Twp., Lebanon County, PA (was Lancaster Co. prior to 1813) as they appear in the International Genealogical Index from the Family History Library. It also conforms to the 1850 Census records. To this genealogy I have added marriages and other data found in the Biographical Annals of Lebanon County, Pennsylvania printed in 1904 by J.H. Beers & Co.

Henry Mock appears on a 1782 list of taxables for Heidelberg Twp. as owning 150 acres. Henry and Eva Mock first appear as a couple in 1766 records of the Heidelberg Reformed and Lutheran Church, which later became St. Lukes Evangelical Lutheran Church at Schaefferstown. This was the birth record of their son, Adam. An earlier record at that same church is for the christening of Catarina Agata Mok on 26 Feb 1764 - Father, Hennrich Mok, no mother recorded. Since I find no evidence to prove this Hennrich Mok is the same as Henry Mock married to Eva, I have left Catarina out of the genealogy, as did A.S. Brendle. Henry and Eva Mock christened another son, John George Mock, born 25 Feb 1773, with sponsors recorded as George and Sophia Mock. This George and Sophia Mock family is recorded in the Emmanuel Lutheran Church records at Warwick Township, about 8 miles from Schaefferstown. George and Sophia were discussed in the MFH, second issue, Oct 1991 and again in the August 1992 issue. Their descendants in Virginia have been further traced by James P. Mock, researcher for the MFH. We speculate that there is a close relationship between Henry Mock and George Mock - quite possibly brothers.

DIARY OF JOHN W. MAUCK A Civil War Soldier

Submitted by Ronald M. Moore, M.D.

John W. Mauck was born 16 Nov 1834, Page Co., VA, the son of Joel Mauck and Magdalene (Polly) Lionberger.

From Page in the Civil War by H.M. Strickler, : "John W. Mauck a member of Co. K, 10th VA. Inf., left a diary which he kept from the day he entered the army until he was killed. He was a son of Joel Mauck, owner of Mauck's Mill (now Kauffman's). He died in battle August 8, 1862 at Cedar Run or Slaughter Mountain. We quote freely from his diary through the Valley Campaign. The reader will see the campaign from the viewpoint of a lieutenant."

(At the beginning of Jackson's Valley Campaign, he writes:)

April 22, 1862 - arrived in Jackson's camp at Elk Run (Elkton) at 10 o'clock this morning. We were assigned to the 3rd Brigade, General Taliaferro. Were ordered to organize at 4 o'clock. R.S. Parks was elected Captain: William E. Pittman and Lieutenant and myself, J.W. Mauck, 3rd Lieutenant.

April 28 - Since the 22nd our Brigade has been out towards McGaheysville three times, but nothing of importance.

April 29 - Some of the worst roads I ever saw one mile below Port Republic.

April 30 - Crossed the Blue Ridge at Brown's Gap.

May 2 - Marched today to Afton Station. Took the cars there to Staunton. Passed through the tunnel.

May 3 - This morning in Staunton camped one mile west of that place.

May 6 - Started this morning for Buffalo Gap and the Shenandoah Mountains to give the enemy a taste of Jackson. Camped in Buffalo Gap. Johnson's army in advance.

May 7 - Started early this morning and about 2 o'clock drove about two of the enemy regiments from their positions on the west side of the Shenandoah Mountains and captured all their camp equipage and commissaries and followed them on then retired and camped in the old camp.

May 8 - Pursued the Yankees this morning, came up with them in the evening at Sitting Tree Hill (he means Sislington Hill) near McDowell, where they have made a stand. Commenced the attack about 4 o'clock in the evening, fighting ended at 8 o'clock. Col. Gibbons was killed, some 25 killed and wounded in the 10th Regiment. Capt. Parks wounded. The enemy retreated in the night toward Franklin in Pendleton County, loss heavy on their side.

May 9 - Our company sent down the river on picket this morning. Overtook the regiment in the evening three miles west of McDowell.

May 10 - In pursuit of the enemy again.

May 11 - Still after the Yankees, the enemy again made a stand in one mile of Franklin. Some heavy cannonading today but nothing of importance.

May 12 - Drawn up in line of battle again this morning, drawn off in the evening and took the back track. Camped some 4 miles from Franklin.

May 13 - Camped near McDowell.

May 14 - Camped this evening on the east side of the Shenandoah Mountains.

May 16 - Camped near Bridgewater.

May 19 - Camped 3 miles below Harrisonburg

May 20 - Camped near New Market

May 22 - Stayed at home, Regiment camped near Luray.

May 23 - Camped near Front Royal.

May 23- continued - General Ewell's Division captured several hundred prisoners and a big quantity of stores.

May 24 - Jackson cuts Banks' army in two, drives part toward Winchester, the balance toward Strasburg, dead Yankees and horses lying all along the road. Wagons strewn from Strasburg to Kernstown.

DIARY - Cont'd from previous page

May 25 - Attacked the enemy this morning at daylight, one mile west of Winchester, drove them from their position and pursued them seven miles below town, capturing a great quantity of stores of all kinds and about 3,000 prisoners. Two of our company were wounded today.

May 26-27-28 - stayed in camp below Winchester.

May 29 - Started this morning in the direction of Charles Town. Camped in six miles of Harper's Ferry. Cannonading with the enemy on Bolivar Heights.

May 30 - Marched this morning. Heard that the enemy were getting in our rear, marched back for Winchester, getting to our camp about midnight.

May 31 - Marched this morning up the valley camped in one mile of Strasburg.

June 1 - Quite a lively time today. Marched out to right of Strasburg to Cross Roads. A heavy skirmish, but nothing serious to our regiment, our regiment left back on picket and some of our boys took a crack at the Yankees, drawn off at night. Marched all night, arrived at Woodstock at daylight.

June 2 - Marched as far as Rude's Hill. Yankees in close pursuit.

June 3 - camped at New Market.

June 4 - Camped at Lacey Springs.

June 5 - Camped between Harrisonburg and Port Republic.

June 8 - (Sunday) - At our ease this morning. Mack (E.V. Kauffman) is very sick in camp. The enemy surprised our pickets and got possession of the bridge (at Port Republic) and cutting General Jackson off from his command, but when he saw the situation rode up and commanded them to turn the cannon the other way, then he and his aides dashed through and across the bridge and galloped up the hill ordering his men out double quick to the bridge, our brigade recaptured the bridge, took one piece of cannon and several prisoners. General Ewell engaged the enemy this evening on the north side of the river and after a hard fight drove him back several miles with a heavy loss on both sides. This is the battle in which we lost General Ashby, one of our leading cavalry generals at this time.

June 9 - (Monday) - Jackson engaged the enemy this morning on the south side of the river and after a hard fight completely routed them, capturing several pieces of cannon and several hundred prisoners.

Note: For a commented version of this diary see A Short History of Page County Virginia by Harry M. Strickler, pp. 176-181.

Barbara Moyer b. ca1738 dau. of Henry Moyer; m. Godfrey Mock bef. 1759. Henry Moyer d. 4 Nov 1758 at the old Homestead of 300 acres, located in the SE corner of Lebanon Co., PA just north of Schaefferstown on highway 419 at Hiedelburg Twp. and Millcreek twp. lines. The family name was Meyer in Germany and the family members who moved to Centre and Snyder Counties, PA changed their names back to Meyer. The families remaining in Lebanon Co. retained the name Moyer. Descendants at Cambelltown own land there originally owned by Christopher Moyer/Meyer, a brother of Barbara. 8. Laura Etta b. 13 Oct 1872; m. Cooke

All children born Columbia Furnace, Shenandoah Co., VA except Laura, b. Lost River, W. VA.

The 1900 Census of Shenandoah Co. says Marcus Mauck was 68, b. Jun 1832, father b. PA, mother b. VA. Marcus was a millwright and was involved in the construction of several furnaces in Shen. Co. He was in the Civil war, enlisted 3 Jun 1861, Co. C, 33rd VA Infantry. He was wounded at Manassas, VA. Was absent 'til Dec 1862. Taken prisoner at Spotsylvania Courthouse, VA 20 May 1864. He wasn't released 'til 17 May 1865.

I can't find anything in Shenandoah Co. to pinpoint his parents, I would write for a death cert., but Virginia didn't request a death to be reported until after 1920. even then a lot of people didn't file one.

You are my last chance of finding the people I need to finish the chapter on this side of my family.

Sincerely,

Wanda Kennedy, P.O. Box 176, Timberville, VA 22853

Ed. Note: I am sending Wanda this issue of MFH. Hopefully those of you researching Marcus & family will also contact her.

DIARY - Cont'd from page 6

Aug. 1 - The first of the month. A very warm day. Drilling as usual. Plenty of ladies at dress parade this evening.

Aug. 2 - Still clear and warm. On drill as usual. A fight took place today at Orange C.H. between ours and the Yankee pickets. Enemy driven back.

Aug. 3 - Sunday. Still warm and clear. Heavy shower in the evening.

August 4 - Drill as usual. Brigade drill in the evening. Our company on guard duty.

August 5th - Warm as usual. Brigade drill in the evening, orders to march at 5 o'clock in the morning.

August 6th - Left camp at 5 o'clock this morning. Marched to our old camp below Gordonsville. Very warm today.

August 7th - orders today to cook two days rations. March at 4 o'clock this morning in the direction of Orange C.H. Wagons left behind. Camped one-half mile of Orange C.H.

August 8th - Up early this morning, all of Jackson's Army in motion. I suppose we are moving onto attack Gen. Pope. Cross Rapidan River. Prisoners coming in every hour.

This ends my uncle's account of his travels and maneuvers, from the time Co. K left Luray, VA for the seat of war as a soldier and I think it as true history of the movements of the company as has ever been written. I was an eye witness to most of it myself and I can say that all of the old soldiers living and that were present can bear me out in saying there never marched in the ranks of the Confederate army a braver soldier than Lieutenant John W. Mauck.

His camp life was one that was peaceful and quiet, always ready for duty and I do say was as much liked by his comrades as any man in the company. He and the writer were fast friends and kinsmen, both in peace as well as in war and have but little doubt that when the last roll is called over on the other shore, Uncle John will be there to answer to his name.

As a citizen - a young man, he and I were always together after I became of the age to run around and I have no remembrance of ever witnessing a bad act of any kind what ever that he ever participated in. It is said too that a good soldier is always a good citizen and this could be said of John W. Mauck, who was killed in the battle of Cedar Mountain, August the 8th, 1862, just after he wrote the last clause in his Diary, August 8, 1862.
