NEW YORK STATE MOCK FAMILIES

Johannes Mock, The Loyalist • Submitted by Bernard C. Young

This family appears to originate in the Neckar Region of Germany and arrived in the United States sometime during or shortly after 1766. Some references to their settlement give the location in New York State as Rhinebeck, Dutchess Co., NY; however I have been unable to find any reference to this family in records from there.

The earliest record found so far is that of Adolph Gerber from the Adolph Gerber Lists of Immigrants. Johannes Mack - Neckartenzlinger, (1766), a baker, with wife, Anna Judith Veizhans and children. (Ed. Note - this item was printed in MFH Vol. 1, No. 2, Oct. 1991)

The next record found is by Johannes himself in his Petition of 1786 from Caldwell's Manor for losses sustained as a result of his loyalism to the Crown as a soldier in the King's Loyal Rangers beginning in 1777. He describes his property as being in Albany County and Philip Derick witnesses that it was located "9 or 10 miles from Albany".

This family name is difficult to trace due to variant spellings, ie, Mack, Mock, Moak, Maag, Moog, etc.

The Albany Reformed Church, Albany, NY lists a birth to Johannes Mock and wife as follows:

Hannah b. 25 Nov 1767 (Albany ref. Chbk.)
married George Mitchell.

The other children born to Johannes and Anna Judith were: Christina b. ca 1768?; m. Christian Snider 16 Feb 1786; Mary Magdalen m. John Savage, Jr.; Joseph m. Sarah Moses; John m. Mary Primmerman; Elizabeth m. John Steinmetz; Barbara m. John Beerwort.

There is some evidence that Johannes' full name was Johannes Valentine Mock. He and his family settled at St. Armand, Quebec in 1792, approximately two miles from Phillipsburg, a Loyalist settlement on Missisquoi Bay at the head of Lake Champlain. His property was on Lot 13 and the following year he took possession of the west half of Lot 125, drawn up in the Henderson Survey.

Johannes later moved to Shefford, Quebec where he died on 6 May 1815.

5/23/96 -E-Mail re: Johannes Mack

The village of Neckartenzlingen in Wurttemberg is the homeplace of Jacob Mack who immigrated to Pennsylvania in 1852 with his family. Jacob's grandson, John M. Mack, was the founder of the Mack Truck Company.

There is a book Neckartenzlingen Einst und Jetzt by Fritz Reiff which has a section on immigration from the village. In the year 1766 the following families went to Pennsylvania in North America: Mack, Grindelmayer & Schollhammer. In this group were 14 people.

I have been going over the parish records for Neckartenzlingen and in the 1763 church census there were 3 Mack familys. In the 1768 census one family is missing. This is the family of Johannes Mack born 1736, his wife, Anna born 1735 and children Anna Barbara born 1760 and Elisabeth Margaretha born 1762.

Is anyone researching a Johannes Mack who arrived in PA around 1766 and who may be associated with Grindelmayer and Schollhamer families? This Johannes Mack is related to the Mack Truck Macks.

5/24 reply to Joe on the Internet -

That is a great discovery you made and it may be a link that connects two of the large Mack families in Germany and America.

From Pennsylvania German Immigrants 1709-1786 by Don Yoder (The Adolf Gerbers list of emigrants from Wuertemberg 1920):

"Mack, Johannes (2) Neckartenzlingen (1766) Baker, Wf: (Anna) Judith Veizhans. Ch: (1) Anna Barbara b. 3/14/1760; (2) Elizabetha Margaretha b. 3/17/1762. 'Went away' ['weggezogen']. Gerber wrote that "he had always been somewhat frivolous, but did not like to work, but tried in vain to get rich by other schemes, but in spite of everything, was worth 300 Gulden, otherwise he was peaceable and obliging toward everyone." Cont'd on next page

The will of John Mack of Reading, Berks Co., PA dated April 15, 1782 and probated October 2, 1784 mentions wf. Judith and sons George, Theobold, Philip, Godlieb and Jacob. Witnesses: John Strohecker and John Shoemaker, Berks Co. Will Abstracts, I, 333-4, GSP."

There is no question that this is the same John Mack you located in records in Germany. However, I do believe that Don Yoder may have made an error in this one since the second wife of John Mack who died in Reading, Berks Co., PA was Judith Webber, daughter of Melchoir Webber and who first married a Christian Repple/Ripple. This John Mack's wife, the way I interpret it has the maiden name of Veizhans. I am not aware of any other records in America that mention this family with the two daughters of this Johannes Mack, but there may be some.

Many believe that the John Mack who died in Reading, Berks Co., PA in 1784 came over on the Ship St. Andrew in 1752 along with Peter Mack, but I am not certain there is good proof for this, so it may or may not be true.

The information that follows was sent to me a good many years ago by Steve Lapp regarding this John Mack/Mock of Berks Co:

Trinity Lutheran Burial Records, Reading, PA
Mack, John "on bail" buried 9/14/1784 in potter's field. He shot Michael Ritmeyer in the leg. Ritmeyer died of the wound on 6/25/1784.

Mack, Judith (Weber) widow of John Mack for 7 years and 6 months, daughter of Melchior Weber. She died 3/29/1792 at age 78 years, 8 months, 3 weeks, 1 day. Birthplace: Hinsheim, Wurtemberg. Her daughter is Mrs. Judith Lehman.

Judith Mack had 2 sons and 5 daughters of Repple, one son and one daughter survive.

Basically, Joe, we have confirmation that your John Mack did arrive in America with his wife Anna Judith and two daughters from Wurtemberg, Germany in 1766, but I am not sure what happened to him after that, but it seems doubtful he was the John Mack who lived and died in Reading, Berks Co., PA and who had several sons who were early residents of North Carolina.

5/25 answer to above memo -

I'm responding to the mail about John Mack who came from Wurtemberg, Germany in 1766. I have been looking for an entry for my GGGG Grand father Johannes Mack. He is said to have come from Germany in the late 1760's. His wife was Anna Judith. Two of his several daughters were named Barbara and Elizabeth. John initially settled in Rhinebec NY and was farming land he was purchasing from the Dutch East India Co. via Lord Rensselaer.

• Arthur Mock 1315 Patch Court, Marina CA 93933

5/29 E-Mail answer to all from Joe Newchok

Steve suggested that I check the parish records of Neckartenzlingen and see if I can find the birth record of Johannes Mack. The problem is that Johannes was born in Altenriet, which is a village on the other side of the Neckar River from Neckartenzlingen. I had these records but have sent them back to SLC. Sometime around 1750? two Mack brothers and their families moved from Altenriet to Neckartenzlingen. This was Johann Michael (my direct ancestor and Johann Jacob). Eventually a third brother, Johannes, settled in Neckartenzlingen.

The following information is from the Neckartenzlingen parish records:

Birth - Anna Judith Veizhans 2 Jun 1735, daughter of Christoph Veizhans.

Marriage - Johannes Mack and Anna Judith Veizhans 2 May 1758.

There were two Veizhans families in the church census records of 1764-1772. Another child was found for Johannes and Anna Judith in the 1765-1766 census. Rosina? born 31 Jan 1765, 10 months old.

The families that left in 1766 were Mack, Grindelmayer and Schollhamer. In the 1765 census there was only one Grindelmayer family and they were not listed in following census's.

Johann Jacob Grindelmayer b. 12 Jul 1716, wife, Maria Margaretha b. 28 Aug 1720, children, Margaretha 1744, Maria Catharina 1749,
Barbara 1752, Johann Jacob 1755, Christoph 1745 and Juliana 1759.

In the column next to the Mack and Grindelmayer families is a notation that I did not see before. These are identical but were hard to read. I think they say Family gone May 1766.

There were five Schollhammer families but the only ones missing were two unmarried sons, Johannes b. 1737 and Johann Georg b. 1745.

I hope that this information will help in determining the identity of Johannes Mack and wife, Anna Judith. It would be great if someone could prove that they are Johannes Valentine Mack and wife of Rhinebeck, NY.

Ed. Note: Many thanks to Ron Moore, Arthur Mock, Joe Newchok and other MFH members for their co-operative research on this family.

THE ZITTLE CONNECTION by Paul R. Swan

While studying two separate Mock lineages in the Maryland/Pennsylvania border area, I've noticed a connection in each line to the surname of Zittle. This note summarizes the evidence which indicates that research into this name might be of value. I'm indebted to Laurie Aubrey and Joan Buechel for many of the documents on which this analysis is based. If anyone has noted other Mock connections to Zittles, I'd very much appreciate hearing from you.

In Shippensburg, Southampton Twp., Franklin Co., PA we have a lineage starting with Michael Maag (ca 1744-ca1813), a 1764 immigrant from Ittlingen, The Palatinate who appeared in Franklin Co. starting in 1798 under the name of Mauk, Mack and Mock. On 30 Jul 1806, Jacob Zittle and Michael Mock, Jun. purchased for £1800 a 200 acre tract of land called Emsworth [Recorded 30 Jul 1806, Franklin Co., PA Deeds, 1:380-1]. Later, on 24 Mar 1824 Michael Mock purchased for $521 and 42 1/2¢ a "certain tract of land situate in Southampton Twp., Franklin Co., PA containing 100 acres and 20 perches" from Henry and Catharine Zittle of Westmoreland Co, PA, Jacob and Mary Zittle, Henry and Mary Rode, Sarah Rode, Daniel and Catharine Crouze, Henery and Margaret Rymer and William Zittle, heirs of Jacob Zittle, late of Franklin Co., PA [Recorded 5 April 1824 in Westmoreland Co. for Michael Mock of Franklin Co., PA, 13:453]. Could Mary, wife of Jacob, be a Mock?

In the records of Christ Reformed Church, Middletown, Frederick Co., MD, 40 miles to the south, we find the births and baptisms in 1774 of Jacob Henry, son of Thomas and Sara Mag, in 1778 of Johann Friederich, son of Thomas and Sara Mahg, and in 1780 of Johann Heinrich, son of Thomas and Sara Magh [Weiser, Frederick S., Records of Christ Reformed Church, Middletown, Noodle-Doosey Press, 1986]. The baptism of the first child of Thomas (ca 1745-ca 1815) was recorded as a Mack, as were several of his grandchildren, and the family appeared in secular records early on as Muck and later as Mock. But, spelling variations aside, the name in the early church records seems to be closely akin to the name Maag in PA.

In 1811, George Litter and wife (a name which could well have been Zittle) stood sponsor to Georg, son of Friedrich and Peggy Mack (the above Johann Friederich and his wife Margaret Fryman) in that same church. In 1849 Lydia or Lidia Ann, daughter of Henry (the above Johann Heinrich) and Susanna (Werns) Mock of Middletown, married a Samuel Zittle. The couple was censused 1850 in Boonsboro, Washington Co., MD. Caroline Mock, Lydia's younger sister, was also in their household at that time, probably helping to care for their seven months old daughter Susan.

In 1840, a Jacob Zittle (formerly of Franklin Co., PA?), aged 40-50 years, was censused in Frederick Co. four lines after Henry Muck. H. Zittle's home is shown just across Catoctin Creek from that of the heirs of F. Muck, northwest of Middletown on an early nineteenth century map of the area. Further in that direction, the present day Zittletown is located in the gap over South Mountain on the way from Middletown to Boonsboro.

The £1800 land purchase in Maryland, in which Michael and Jacob Zittle were partners, argues for a family connection, or at the least a very close acquaintance. And the family connection of a Zittle to the Maryland Mocks is well documented. These records would seem to make worthwhile an investigation as to a possible link between Michael Maag/Mauk/Mock and Thomas Mag/Muck/Mock, almost exact contemporaries. In particular, a perusal of Ittlingen records for Thomas and any Zittles close to Michael might be productive. Also, records in eastern Pennsylvania (Westmoreland Co.?) during the thirty-four year period in which Michael is unrecorded in this country might well be of value.

A CAUTIONARY TALE by Paul Swan

(with thanks to Laurie Aubrey for documentation)

Don't believe all you read from even ~~primary~~ source documents when it comes to the spelling of surnames. After all, clerks are human beings too:

Michael MAAG of Ittlingen, married Susanna Charlotta Waltz of Adelshofen 8 May 1764

Michael MAG signed the Captain's List of the Raymond 29 Nov 1766 in Philadelphia, although Strassburger & Hinke report it as May Michael MAUK of Southampton Twp., Franklin Co., PA purchased land 21 Apr 1798 in that township.

Michael MACK censused 1800 in Southampton Twp., Franklin Co. will names "well beloved wife Susanna Charlotte MOCK"

Mical Mug signed that will 2 Nov 1809

Michal Mauk, Jr. administrator 1813 of the estate of Michael Mauk of Southampton Twp.

Michael Mock lists, in his final account 11 Mar 1823, personal property items sold to Susannah Mock Michael Mock, Jr. bought land 1806 and 1824 in Franklin Co., PA and in 1825 moved his family to Clinton Twp., Franklin Co., OH where for ever after (?) the family name was Mock.

ANDREW & GEORGE MOCK JR. OF EDGEFIELD CO., S.C.

Editor, I want to specifically address the information [from the chart] on Andrew Mock, Sr. He has really bugged me.....just can't place him with George but know he belongs.

Andrew Mock, Sr. b. ca1720?.... probably b. around 1750. He married ca1775? Did he have a first wife or marry very late in life? Died ca1812 or 1815.... in his nineties? He was probably born ca1750, that is more logical.

I cannot find Andrew Mock on any records outside S.C. and GA. He appears as a head of household in GA in the 1780's.

With reference to the notations made on his family group sheet, the nature of the deed indicates he had a son named David, probably deceased ca1804/5. David Mock's grandmother was Martha (Mock?) Shockley, married to a David Shockley. David Mock is mentioned as the step grandson of David, and the grandson of his wife, Martha. It would seem by the deed of Andrew Mock, Sr, et al that this family was selling land that belonged to David Mock as his next of kin. If David Mock was the son of Andrew, Sr. then the mother of Andrew, Sr would be Martha Mock Shockley.

But where does George Mock fit? Perhaps an Uncle?? They used the same naming patterns for their sons but not the daughters. (Andrew Mock, Jr. named a son John David Mock.

It isn't logical that Martha was the wife of George unless there was a divorce before 1769.

Also, you list Charlotte Mock b. 1804, m. George H. Maner, coexecutor for father's will. Impossible. Andrew died ca1812/15. Jan 1821 Court Records, Jacksonboro, GA George Mock acting on behalf of estate of Andrew Mock and guardian for Charlotte Mock. Also, there might have been another marriage for Andrew, Sr. Charlotte was very young to have been a part of the older family.

I have been taking a very good look at the original will for George Mock. It looks as though a small portion of the right hand side was not copied. It looks as though there is another name (of a son) that did not copy completely. And it looks as if it could have been the beginning of the name ANDREW!!! I have sent to Edgefield, SC for someone to look at the original and ascertain the correct name, if it can be read. If it does turn out to be Andrew that will really add grist to this ole Mock mill!

° Marilee Cory ,11056 Orange Cart Way, Jacksonville, FL 32223

Ed. note: Marilee sent a blow up of the will of George Mock from Edgefield dist., SC. The copy had to be taken from the film as they are no longer allowing anyone to view the originals. Marilee feels it still looks like it could be Andrew listed as a son, but smudged and very difficult to read.

Internet answer to Marilee's research

I received from Marylee Cory some papers on prior research she has done. She mentions that George Mock/Mauck sold land in Orange Co., NC to Daniel Thiff in 1767.

1762, Cumberland Co., NC, Geo Mock bought 200 acres from Richard Thorn.

1762 & 1763 was on grand jury

1764 was overseer of road

1764 received land grant state of NC for 200 acres.

1765 grand jury

1765 received land grant, 640 acres

1767 on tax list

1769 sold 200 acres to Gilbert Buie and Malcom Buie

1774 Geo Mock of Province of SC sold 640 ac to Arch McDugaid in Cumberland Co., NC.

Do these names or references match anything else anybody else has done? It certainly does appear as if this is our George Mock of Edgefield, SC.

New Members:

Dear Barbara,

We recently attended the Annual Conference of the Church of the Brethren in Cincinnati, OH. While there we visited the Brethren Genealogy booth. We were given your name and information on the Mock Family Historian

We have researched our Mack family to a Peter Mack who was in Maryland in 1830. His birth was approximately 1784 in MD or PA. His wife was Elizabeth ___, born ca 1795 in Maryland or PA. their children were: Simon, Jacob, Eliza, Levi & Elizabeth. The family moved to Darke Co., Ohio around 1838. Jacob is our family line. Any suggestions on this family would be appreciated.

• Harold & JoAnn Mack - 2510 230th St., Dallas Center, IO 50063

J.A. Bligh to Barbara - Interesting controversy here - The first page of a newspaper or book is 1, not 0., But the first day of your life is 0. You are not 1 year old until 365 days go by. THEN you are 1.. Now, consider those family groups in your "Historian", specifically Vol.V, #1, pg 8. He starts at 1.5.1 and goes to 1.5.9 - followed by 1.5.0! I don't buy "0" meaning "10" after 9, but 0 ahead of 1 would be acceptable. Isn't it time to go to 1-6-0??

• Joseph Bligh 2866 Daneland St., Lakewood CA 90712
Joe, you're right - "0" should not be used in the ancestor charts and I will make that change. To explain the significance of the numbers 1.5.1 - No. 1 is the first male member on the chart. the # 5 means the 5th child of #1. The last #1 is the 1st child of the 5th child. When there are more than 9 children I now use "a" for 10, "b" for 11 etc. Hope I haven't totally confused you! Barbara D.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

RUDOLPH MAUK DESCENDANT

Rudolph Jr > Jacob > George > John W. > Joel

My granddaughter, Heather Cipolla, who is very interested in family history, received a report on her computer of your visit to Ruddle's Mills, KY and mailed a copy to me.

I (William Howard Mock) had a great aunt (Lute Mock) that resided in Ruddle's Mills. I was taken to visit her at a very (pre-school) age by my parents when we lived in Millersburg, KY. I do not recall every hearing her married name.

Her brother, John W. Mock, was a Funeral Director in Carlisle, KY. He married Rebecca Howard. They had two children, Lummie Mock and Joel W. Mock, my father. John Mock and family moved to Millersburg, KY where he and Joel Mock, my father, owned a funeral directing business.

Joel Mock, married Ellen Shackleford of Maysville, KY. Both my sister, Elizabeth Mock & I were born in Millersburg, she in 1903 and I in 1905. We resided in Millersburg until 1913 when we moved to Ashland, KY where my father owned the J.W. Mock Funeral Home until he died in 1927. We have a family plot in the Millersburg, KY cemetery. Buried there are:

John W. Mock, my grandfather; Rebecca Howard Mock, my grandmother; Lummie Mock Pope, my Aunt; Joel W. Mock, my father; Ellen S. Mock, my mother, Elizabeth Mock McDermott, my sister & Sara Mock Dehart, my daughter.

As I am the last male descendant of John W. Mock, my wife, Charlotte, and I are the two final individuals to bear the Mock name in his line.

• William Howard Mock, P.O. Box 8604, Fedhaven, FL

From Heather Cipolla:

...Enclosed are copies of a fragmented letter which include George's birth date, written to my gg grandmother Rebecca C. Howard Mock. It was written to her by someone addressing her as "Aunt Kate" and mentions many of this persons siblings, all Roberts'. I've been puzzling and puzzling over who wrote the letter (who were these darn Roberts?!?), until I looked at the info you sent and realized it's from one of your line!

Ed. Note: Laura Roberts Clark was the daughter of Samuel K. and Cecilia (Mock) Roberts. Cecilia, a daughter of George Mock and sister to John W. & Lucy (Lute) Mock. The hand written letter reads:

"from Mrs. F.Clark (nee Laura Roberts) data I got from Aunt Lute Mock.

Grandfather George W. Mock had 4 brothers or 3 counting himself. Aron Mock, Jhon Mock, Elija Mock. John Mocks son D.F. Mock lived at Marian Indiana. George W. Mock was born 15 May 1794 in Virginia. Aron Mock, son of Aron Mock is Charles Mock. Charles A. Wilson lives near Shaw han-can give you some names. I see him a few minutes at station. Henry Mock says great grandfather Mock, Rudof Mock was in the revelation get data a Washington.

Aunt Kate, you asked for my Brothers name & address....."(Roberts info).

Another piece of the letter: "Grand Pa Mock came from Cumberland Gap, Vir. Henry Mocks Fathers name was Abraham Mock. Henry had 2 brothers Charlie, Joseph & 3 sisters Bettie who married Wilson, Susan Humble, Catherine married John Coons, Henry had to Uncles, Charles & Joseph. his Great grand Father & wife Catherine Mock are burried near Ruddels Mills & his own Father & Mother are burried there. now this is all he told me. Cousin Henry says Great Grand Pa Rudof Mock fought in the Revlutionary War....." next two lines unreadable.

Last piece of letter: "so he came & I git all purtikulars from him about what become of the Records. 'Some children destroyed them & the Back of Bible was lost & they had torn out all the Picturs he took what was left but said his Great Grand Fathers Bible was older & he understood that some Preacher took it to Danvill, KY to some college & gave it to them. It was a German Bible.

I got all the News I could from him. wrote it down with Pencil as he told it & will give it to you when I come it maybe Bell has written you that my self & Husband start the 3 of May for ----" end of note.

• Heather Cipolla, P.O. Box 142, Richmond VT 05477

Comments to Editor from Ron Moore: This letter states that Rudolph and Catharine are buried near Ruddle's Mills. Did you locate their graves when you were back there? [ed. - No I didn't]. Also there is some question if Catharine may have died before they came to KY, but his records seem to indicate she made it there. The children mentioned, Abraham, Charlie, Joseph, Bettie who married a Wilson, Susan who married a Humble (Conrad) and Catherine who married J. Coons appear to be children of Abraham Mock who was a son of Rudolph Mock III. Abraham was the Executor of the Bourbon Co., KY Rudolph Mock III Estate. The children of Rudolph Mock III would appear to be Abraham, Charles & Joseph.

I sent a letter today to Centre College in Danville, KY to see if they have the old Bible. The way I interpret what you stated is that this Bible may have belonged to Rudolph Mock Jr. In the Estate Inventories of both Rudolph Mauck I (Augusta Co., VA) and Rudolph Mock Jr, (Bourbon Co., KY) there were mentioned some old books in German. Maybe we are getting closer to tracking some of these down.

QUERIES

Lincoln/Mock Connection??

New member - I am the widow of Roy E. Mock, son of Thurmond Oral Mock. I have two sons, Roy Jr. and Peter and a daughter, Cynthia Reusche'.

Can you tell me of Abraham Lincoln's mother, Nancy Hanks in regard to her connection with the Mocks.

• Greta C. Mock 16038 E. Glenview Dr., Fountain Hills AZ 85268

Ed. Note: I sent out an E-Mail query regarding the Hanks-Mock connections and received the following:

Phoebe Mock is the second child of Jacob Mock and Elizabeth Rawlings of Loudon Co., VA. Phoebe was born 2 Apr 1805 and married 14 Dec 1821 Loudon Co., VA Cephas Hanks, brother to Nancy Hanks (honest Abe's mother). So Phoebe became a niece-in-law to Nancy and Thomas Lincoln, and a sort of second cousin to Abe Lincoln. Perhaps someone else knows the correct designation of Phoebe Mock Hanks relationship to Abraham Lincoln.

History of Muskingum County, Ohio, published ca1889, page 475 has an article on John D. Hanks and the Lincoln connection.

Steve Lapp 98 Whitney, San Francisco CA 94131

The Lincoln and Mock families had parallel migration from Rockingham Co., VA to Washington Co., KY and then to Indiana. Mordecai Lincoln who was an uncle of President Lincoln was listed next to my Daniel Mock in an early tax list of Nelson Co., KY In my Daniel Mock's will in Perry Co., IN, there is mention of a John Johnston who owed him money. I have found two John Johnston's in Washington Co., KY and according to some others who have researched this family, it is believed he was a step brother of Abraham Lincoln. I can't recall if it was through Nancy Hanks but Abraham Lincoln's father's second wife was previously married to a Johnston and had children who would be step siblings to Abraham. Also some of the Mock descendants in Washington Co., KY were supposed to be living on property that had belonged to the Lincoln family.

New member- Thanks for my first 2 issues of the MFH. I certainly appreciate that digging you did for "my" Rosina Mack. [thanks to Steve Lapp]. I once thought that this Rosina was a dau. of Alexander Mack, founder of the Church of the Brethren. Later, I got a stern letter from a true descendant who set me straight in no uncertain terms! So now my Rosina is parentless. I believe she was b. 24 Jun 1705 in Wimpfen, Germany; m. 24 Jul 1731 Johann George Gump, Jr. in Huffenhardt, Germany. They arrived on the ship Johnson 19 Sep 1732 at Philadelphia and settled in Frederick Co., MD having 8 children. Their dau. Rosina/Rosanna Gump (who had 14 kids) continued my line. MATHIAS MAUK OF CULPEPER CO., VA AND WILKES CO., GA and some of his descendants before 1752 - 1805/1806 by James P. Mock

The first record of Mathias was when he appears as a chain carrier in a Northern Neck of Virginia survey dated 02 Jan 1764 [1a] when Daniel Mauck had 283 acres surveyed on Little Run, a drain of the south fork of the Shenandoah River. The same day Mathias also appears as a chain carrier in the survey of 240 acres on the east side of the south fork of the Shenandoah River for Martin Coffman. This land was adjacent the above land and Christian Maggot. Daniel Mauck lived adjacent Christian Maggot and Martin Coffman [1a]. Daniel's daughter Elizabeth Mauck married Abraham Pence, having a son Jacob Pence. Jacob Pence married Maria Coffman, daughter of Martin Coffman. Chain carriers were usually strong minors (the chains were heavy) who were related to the people for whom the survey was being done, as they worked for free. Mathias's birth year is estimated assuming he probably would have been at a minimum 13 years old when he carried the chains for these surveys.

In the book 18th Century Perspective of Culpeper Co., VA by Mary Jones, she quotes from Signer's 1770's petitions stating Mathias was a Culpeper Minuteman.

Mathias appears in the following deeds from Culpeper Co., VA: 16 Mar 1772 Mathias and his wife Barbary sold 12 acres to Adam Cook [1a], 1774 they sold 111 acres to Michael Cook [2a], 20 Sep 1779 they sold 25 acres to Fisher Rice and his wife Agness (this land being adjacent Fisher Rice) [4a], 18 Oct 1779 they sold 157 acres to Elijah Berry [5a]. The deeds do not provide a description of the property that would indicate exactly where it was, saying only that they lived in Brumfield Parish. The deed(s) for the original purchase of all the land they sold has not been located and may have been granted from the owner of Brumfield Parish, the Brumfield Parish land grants having been lost.

In a Northern Neck Land Grant dated 24 Aug 1774 Mathias was a chain carrier in the survey of 24 acres on the Robinson River for Fisher Rice [1a]. In another grant 13 Sep 1775, Mathias is listed as an adjacent property owner of Fisher Rice [1a] Fisher Rice's land is described as being on the south side of the Robinson River in Culpeper Co.

Mathias appears in the personal property tax lists of Culpeper Co., VA from 1782-1790. In 1788 & 1789 there are 2 males over 16 years listed for Mathias, and in 1789 and 1790 the tax list indicates "and son". In the property tax lists and deeds Mathias's name is spelled variously as Mauk, Mauck and Mock. The only other Mauck in these lists was Abraham Mauck, who started appearing there in 1790, and in that year was adjacent Mathias. This Abraham was the son of Daniel Mauck and Barbara Harnsberger.

Daniel Mauck also owned land on the Robinson River in Brumfield Parish, Culpeper Co., and was probably related to Mathias, possibly a brother. Of interest is Daniel Mauck's wife Barbara Harnsberger's brother Stephen Harnsberger Jr. went to Wilkes Co., GA in 1793.

In the 1793 & 1794 tax lists of Wilkes Co., GA, Mathias was taxed for 133 acres on Kettle Creek and for having one white male. A Rudy Mock also appears in the 1794 Wilkes Co., GA Tax list, with one white male. This Rudy was possibly Mathias's son.

Mathias appears in the tax digest of Wilkes Co., GA in 1801. On 28 Oct 1801 Mathias received 190 acres in Wilkes Co., GA from Joel Early of Greene Co., GA as a gift of love and affection. In the will of Jeremiah Early in Culpeper Co., VA dated 16 Jan 1786 and proven 19 Feb 1787, Jeremiah identified his children as Joel, Jacob, Joshua, Joseph dec'd, Jeremiah dec'd, Sarah Kirtley, Ann Rogers and Hannah Scott [7a]. Jeremiah Early's estate sale in Culpeper Co., VA 17 Dec 1787 lists Mathias Mank as a buyer. After moving to Georgia, this family's surname was occasionally misspelled as Mank.

In the GA Land Lottery of 1803 Mathias Mauck Sr. qualified for 2 draws. To qualify for this lottery Mathias had to be a resident of the state for at least 12 months. To receive 2 draws he had to be a free white male with a wife and one or more legitimate children. The land in this lottery was located in Wayne, Wilkinson and Baldwin Counties [8a]. The actual drawing took place in 1805. Mathias Mauk Sr. and Mathias Mauk Jr., both of Wilkes Co., GA, received draws. Neither drew prizes.

On 27 Jun 1804 Mathias signed a Chattels Agreement with his son Mathias Jr., giving Mathias Jr. his estate of both real and personal property in return for Mathias Jr. caring for his mother and father as long as both shall live. On 05 Dec 1804 Mathias sold his land in Wilkes Co., GA that he had received from Joel Early, to Elijah Deering.

Mathias appears in the tax digest of Wilkes Co., GA in 1805. Mathias also appears in the 1805 tax list of Wilkes Co., GA.

In the 1806 GA Land Lottery for land in Baldwin and Wilkinson counties, Barbary Mauk is listed as a widow and received 1 draw. She also received a second draw as the trustee for the orphans of Mathias Mauk dec'd [8a]. To be eligible for this lottery Barbary had to be 21 years old and a resident of GA for at least 3 years. This record does not indicate if she actually won land. This lottery finally took place in 1807 and was for land in Baldwin and Wilkinson Counties.

Barbara appears in the tax digest of Wilkes Co., GA in 1809. Barbara released to her son, Mathias Mauk Jr.,

her dower right to 123 acres on Kettle Creek where she and Mathias Mauk Sr. resided, this land being conveyed to Elijah Deering 7 Jul 1813 [8a]. This source does not indicate the date she released the land to Mathias Jr., and states that Mathias Jr. conveyed this land to Elijah Deering. This source also identified Barbara as the widow of Mathias and that she remarried to Jacob Hindley. Jacob and Barbara Hindley signed this document. It was witnessed by Theodore Montford, who also was the executor of the estate of Rachel Mauk, Mathias's daughter.

Jacob Hindley's Wilkes Co., GA will was dated 31 May 1816 and proved 7 Sep 1818, and identifies his wife and sole heir as Barbara [9a]. In the 1794 tax digest of Wilkes Co., A Jacob Hindley was listed as owning land on Kittle Creek.

THERE IS NO DIRECT PROOF that Elizabeth was the daughter of Mathias and Barbary, however all of the other Mauck families in Northern Virginia had daughters named Elizabeth that can be accounted for. Mathias Mauck and Daniel Mauck were the only Mauck's known to be living in Culpeper Co. at or anywhere near the time Elizabeth was married. It was the custom that marriages occurred in the county that was the residence of the bride. Elizabeth was placed as a daughter of Mathias primarily out of default, and this relationship SHOULD NOT be taken as proven, although it does seem logical.

Elizabeth's marriage to George appears in the marriage records of Culpeper Co., VA. The minister was Ischam Tatum.

An article on the First Four Generations of the Glore/Clore family may be found in records of the Germanna Colony [1b]. It relates that George was the son of John Clore and his wife Dorothy Kaifer, daughter of Michael Kaifer. This article goes on to relate that George purchased 73 acres from the estate of his grandfather, Michael Clore on 15 May 1786 in Culpeper Co. George and Elizabeth sold this land 21 Jun 1790.

George Clore and Mathias Mauk appear as buyers in the estate sale of Jeremiah Early in Culpeper Co., VA 17 Dec 1787. Jeremiah Early's son, Joel, also went to Georgia and sold land there to Mathias Mauk Sr. For further see the notes of Mathias Mauk Sr.

The Ordinary Court of Wilkes Co., GA is in possession of an original deed dated 11 Jan 1808 where George Clore gave land to his children Abner, Anna, Abi, Able, Abram and Asa [2b].

George appears in the 1832 Cherokee Land Lottery of GA, which indicates he resided in DeKalb Co., GA.

Elizabeth is buried in the Glore cemetery in Mableton, Cobb Co., GA. This cemetery was on the property of Abraham Glore. Her headstone identifies her as the widow of George W. Glore and provided her birth data and death date [3b@4b].

In the personal property tax lists of Culpeper Co., VA in 1788, 1789 and 1790 Mathias Mock Sr. appears with a son over the age of 16 years. This son was not indicated prior to 1788, so it is assumed he attained the age of 16 between the time the 1787 tax list and 1788 tax list were taken, which would indicate a possible birth range of 1771 or 1772.

Mathias Mock appears in the Wilkes Co., GA tax lists in 1793 and 1794. Also listed in the same Wilkes Co., GA tax lists for the first time, and for the first time anywhere, is Rudy Mock. It is this author's belief that the best guess for Mathias's father was Rudolph Mauck of Shenandoah Co., VA. Rudy Mock was probably named for his grandfather.

There is no proof that Rudy Mock was the son of Mathias Mock, only the above information to indicate it was a strong likelihood. He is indicated in this work as a son of Mathias only for the fact I needed someplace to include him, and this seemed the most likely possibility.

Further evidence that Rudy was in fact Rudolph appears in the book, America Militia in the Frontier Wars 1790-1796 by Myrtle June Clark. Rudolph Mock is listed as a private in the 3rd Division Georgia Militia, First Battalion, 2nd regiment, First Brigade 10 Aug 1793 thru 19 Sep 1793, under the Detachment of Lt. Charles McKinney.

No further record of Rudolph is found in Georgia.

In the Cornstalk Militia of Kentucky 1792-1811 by G. Glenn Clift, Randolph Mauks appears as an ensign in the 34th Regiment, which was from Montgomery Co., KY, receiving his commission on 13 Aug 1800. Randolph Mawk appears in the 1800 census of Mercer Co., KY, but did not appear in a 1795 tax list of the same county. In the 1810 census of Mercer Co., KY there appears a Randolph Mock age 26-45 years. Randolph appears in Mercer Co., KY in the 1820, 1830, and 1840 census. Randolph appears alone in the 1850 census of Boyle Co., KY age 78 b. VA.

Evidence that Randolph was likely a son of Mathias Mauk, and possibly the same as the above Rudolph Mock, appears in the Kentucky Genealogy and Biography, Vol V, which provided the genealogy of William Randolph Mock, grandson of Randolph Mock. This book states that Randolph was a native of Virginia that went to Georgia with his parents during his childhood, then settled in Kentucky at the age of 19, living to 1853 when he died at the age of 86.

Extensive research of all the Mauck/Mauk/Mock families of Georgia and Virginia has identified only one family that went from Virginia to Georgia during this time period, and that is the family of Mathias Mauk. The age for Randolph provided by the above article would indicate he was born about 1767, and would have been 19 about 1786. The 1850 census stated Randolph was 78 yrs. b. VA, which would indicate he was born abt. 1772, and would have been 16 in 1788, which would fit with the Culpeper Co., VA tax records age for Mathias Mauk Sr.'s son. Because the source for the date in the above article is not known, the census date of birth was used in this work.

This genealogy also identified Randolph's wife as Sallie, daughter of Barnett Fisher, Randolph and Sallie's children, and that Randolph manufactured whiskey.

Further research on this line is necessary before acceptance that Randolph was a son of Mathias. For this work, the corroborative evidence would indicate this, so he was placed in this family's genealogy. Don't accept it as fact.

In the GA Land Lottery of 1803 Mathias Mauck Jr. received 1 draw. To qualify for this lottery Mathias had to be a resident of the state for at least 12 months. To receive 1 draw he had to be a tax payer. The land in this lottery was located in Wayne, Wilkinson and Baldwin counties [1c]. The drawing actually took place in 1805. Mathias and his father both received draws, but drew no prize.

In the 1806 GA Land Lottery for land in Baldwin and Wilkinson counties Mathias Mauck is listed as having 1 draw [1c]. To be eligible for this lottery Mathias had to be 21 years old and a resident of GA for at least 3 years. To receive 1 draw he had to be a taxpayer. This record does not indicate if he won land in this drawing, which was for land in Baldwin and Wilksinson Counties.

The probate of William Lee dec'd in Wilkes Co., GA recorded 7 Mar 1809 identifies Nancy, wife of Mathias Mauck as the granddaughter of William Lee, and that Mathias received slaves from William's estate [1a]. This probate identifies William's widow as Nancy stating that she died in 1809, and also identifies Noah Lee as one of William Lee's heirs. In a series of Wilkes Co., GA court records, Noah is identified as the father and guardian of Jephtha Mauck, son of Rachel Mauck [1c]. Rachel was probably Mathias's sister.

Mathias appears in the 1809 Wilkes Co., GA tax list, and the 1815 Greene Co., GA tax list.

Mathias purchased 1/4 of lot #196 in Putnam Co., GA 8 May 1817 [5c]. Mathias sold this land 6 May 1828 [8c]. Mathias purchased land in lot #320 of Putnam Co., GA 21 Jan 1819 [6c]. Mathias sold this land 3 Jan 1825 [7c] and the deed states it was 54 acres in lot #320 of Putnam Co. on the waters of Indian Creek adjacent "Vardeman's" land.

Mathias appears in the 1820 census of Putnam Co., GA with 2 males under 10, one male 10-16, one male 26-45, one female under 10, and one female 16-26.

In the 1827 Cherokee Land Lottery of GA Mathias Jackson Mauck and Joel T. Mauck one lot each of land in Upson Co. District 588 [1c]. Each lot consisted of 160 acres.

Mathias appears in the 1830 census of Upson Co., GA with one male under 5, 2 males 5-9, one male 10-14, one male 14-19, 1 male 50-60, 3 females 10-14, one female 14-19 and one female 40-50.

In the 1832 Gold Lottery of GA Joel T. Mauck drew land in Militia district 588, lot #110, district 3, section 2, and Mathias Jackson Mauck drew land in militia district 588, lot #800, district 1, section 4 and militia district 588, lot #1264, district 21, section 3 [1c]. All of this land was in Upson Co., GA. These lists provided Mathias middle name.

In 1838 a group of churches in Upson, Crawford, Monroe and Macon Co.'s GA formed the Peheboth Associates. Mathias Mauck is listed as a member of this group who attended a meeting in February of 1838. The churches from Upson Co. were Harmony, Bethesda, Fellowship and Antioch [1c].

In 1840 Mathias is again in Upson Co., GA, with one male 10-15, one male 15-20, one male 20-30, one male 50-60, 2 females 20-30 and one female 40-50.

In the 1850 and 1860 census Mathias is again in Upson Co., GA. Frances appears with Mathias in the 1850 census, but not the 1860 census.

Mathias died intestate and the Letters of Administration were granted to Duke Williams [3c]. The inventory and appraisement for the Upson Co., GA estate of Mathias Mauck was dated 14 May 1870. In another probate 01 Dec 1870 Sebastian Mauck is identified as the son of Mathias Mauck dec'd [1c]. Mathias's estate sale and land auction also occurred 01 Dec 1870. Mathias's land was identified as being 230 acres on lots 228 and 249 in Upson Co., GA on the east side of Cobler's Creek, and 80 acres on lots 252 and 258, which went to Sebastian Mauck.

Mathias and Francis are buried in the Mauck Cemetery, located near Gray's Chapel Road and Hwy 74 in Upson Co., GA. Their headstones provided their birth and death dates [4c]. Frances's obituary also provided her dates of birth and death [9c & 10c].

There is no direct proof that Rachel is a daughter of Mathias and Barbary.

Noah Lee was appointed guardian of Rachel's daughter, Jephtha Mauck, 01 Jul 1811. Several prior court records indicate a different guardian, and then indicate that it was learned that Noah Lee was Jephtha's father, so he was then appointed her guardian. This would indicate Jephtha was probably born out of wedlock [1d].

Rachel's will appears in Wilkes Co 6 Aug 1813 [2d] and identifies her son as Jephtha and appoints her administrator as Theodore Montford. The will states she also received a judgement against Noah Lee, which she gives to Jephtha.

Noah Lee is identified as an heir of William Lee in William's will dated 7 Mar 1809. Also listed as an heir is Frances Lee, wife of Mathias Mauck [1d]. Given that Rachel was with child before 1811, she would have been too old to be Mathias Jr.'s daughter. This would indicate that she was old enough to be his sister.

On 16 Nov 1816 Theodore Montford, executor of the estate of Rachel Mauck, made a return on the estate in Upson Co., GA. Theodore Montford also witnessed a release of dower for Barbary Hindley 7 Jul 1813, wife of Mathias Mauk Sr., who remarried to Jacob Hindley.

There is not absolute proof that Samuel is a son of Mathias and Barbary Mauk, however his date of birth, location of birth and county in which he was married are all consistent that he descends from this family.

Samuel's marriage to Susan appears in the marriage records of Greene Co., GA.

On 27 Oct 1809 in Jones Co., GA Samuel Mauk filed a deed stating that he had falsely accused Jacob Pruitt of the theft of a cow. [1e].

Samuel appears in the 1830 and 1840 census of Marion Co., GA. He and his wife, Susan, appear in the 1850 census of Sumter Co., GA, which provided their birth data.

I highly suspect that lying in some small courthouse between Wilkes Co., GA and Upson Co., GA is a record that will identify Mathias and Barbary Mauk's children. Given the number of counties in Georgia, this document may take some time to find.

From the Internet - North Carolina Mocks

I was Juanita Mock, dau. of Oscar Mock, son of Sylvester Russel Mock, son of James Andrew Mock of NC, son of Lewis Mock, his father unknown to us. Lewis lived on the Reddes River in Wilkes Co., NC. His son, James A. Mock went to the Civil War from Wilkes Co., but came to Washington Co., VA to live out his life. Sylvester Russel was born in Ashe Co., NC, the rest in Washington Co., VA. In old age, Lewis came here and his death is in Ahingdon (I can't make this work out) VA court house 22 Dec 1891, 92 yr 7 mo. He married Mary Denny b. Surry co., NC This is his direct line: there was a Henry Jr. and brother Peter III who came to Damascus, VA (Wash. Co., VA) and lived out their lives.. We think Lewis' father is Peter Jr. (also had brothers, William, IN and George, NC) and brother to Henry Sr. I know that Henry Jr's kids called Lewis "Cousin Lewis". We have found no connection to the Devault Mock line also living in the same counties

Another Matthias Mock??

While trolling the local library, I came across a seven volume collection of some 1500 Shaver Family group sheets. About 100 of these were for the family and descendants of Matthias Mock of Tennessee and his three wives. Matthias at some early time moved to Arkansas, from which most of the citations came. Unfortunately I neglected to write down dates, but will undertake to retrieve some data for anyone interested.

Reply to Robert's query on the Internet

Your Mock lines are all very interesting, but especially your marriage to Casper Sain to Rosannah Mock. Casper Sein lived in Rowan Co., NC and sold the land to Andrew Mock that later became known as Mock's Old Field and the name was later changed to Mocksville, NC which is now the county seat of David Co.

About two years ago, Steve Lapp was able to prove that the Andrew Mock who lived there for a brief time was a son of Peter Mauck who was married to Juliana Rheinhart and who died in Frederick Co., VA in 1771. He lived on Tom's Brook. Prior to that, historians had speculated that this Andrew Mock for whom the town of Mocksville was named was a son of the Peter Mock who was an early resident of NC and who was supposed to have been married to Barbara Martin. Steve corresponded with one of the librarians at the Davie Co. Public Library who thought that Casper Sein was married to a Susannah Mock, but there was lack of proof.

The deeds were at least three & all recorded in Rowan Co., NC: Bk 101 p. 406 shows that Casper Sein on 30 Dec 1785 lets Andrew Mock have for 50£, 250 acres on Bear Creek Feb. 1786

Bk 14, p. 225, 29 Sep 1795: Andrew Mock & wife, Elizabeth lets Henry Hinkle -all of Rowan-have 55 3/4 acres on Bear Crk. for 40 £. Wit: Jacob Trout, Daniel Lewis & Isaac Jones proved by the last name in Feb 1796.

Bk 17, p. 41, 20 Aug 1798: Andrew Mock of Sullivan Co., TN (a German & no wife signs) lets Samuel Oysten of Rowan have 196 1/4 acres . . . (Part of State Grant to Casper Sane who let said Mock have this 30 Dec 1785.

My personal theory and not based on fact at this point, was that the wife of Casper Sain may have been a sister to Andrew Mock. Again, this is only a theory and should NOT be put down as fact until more evidence accumulates.

Another message from the Internet

Hello, my name is Fay Jarvis Moran and I just returned from a visit of browsing your homepage!! Great job. I have a homepage listed at the address below and would like to link your page to mine. I also have some Mocks in my index and they are:

Casper Sain (Zirn) b. 1730, Palatinate, Germany came to America aboard The Dragon on 1749. He married Rosanna Mocke (presumable in PA where he lived a short time) and then moved his family to Rowan Co., NC. There is a Sain Family page listing a lot of their descendants.

Jacob Mock b. 1790 NC; d. 1841; m. Maria Spach b. 1790 NC; d. 1843 NC) listed on the Spach Family page which includes marriages to other Mocks.

George Jacob Knauss m. Maris Mock - on the Knauss Family Page.

Johanna (Hannah) Walk b. 1772, m. Phillip Mock - on the Walk Family Page.

Two Samuels - same wife???

I'm trying to confirm some info on Samuel Mock of Fairfield Co., OH. I believe that there are two Samuels that we are dealing with.

The Samuel b. bef. 1815, son of Michael & Margaret Whissinger Mock who m. Catherine Boyer.

The Samuel Mack/Mock eldest son of George & Elizabeth (Coon) Mack b. 20 Jan 1805 Shoenersville, Lehigh Co., PA & christened 24 Feb 1805 at the Christ Reformed Church in Shoenersville. I received some information some time ago from Jerrian Barsness (MFH member) that the Samuel that married Mary Ann Keys was the son of Michael. I believe this is incorrect. I have in my records that Mary Ann Keys was married to Samuel, the son of George.

In the Crawford Co., IL Cemetery sexton records for Eliza Ann (Mock) McCrillis, sister to Samuel, it also lists Samuel as her brother. In the 1850 census for Crawford Co., IL it shows that Samuel and Mary Ann Mock were residing near John and Eliza Ann McCrillis' home. It lists the birthplace for Mary Ann as KY as well as the birth of their two children, John b. 1838 and Margaret J. b. 1839, both in KY. Has anyone actually seen a marriage record for Samuel and Mary Ann? I have an abt. m. date as 1836. If this is in fact correct, then there should be some documentation in the Fairfield or Franklin Co. Marriage Records. I have found none. there were records available then as Samuel's sister Eliza Ann was m. in 1836 in Fairfield Co., OH and I have documentation of this marriage.

I loose track of Samuel and Mary Ann after this last census and feel that Samuel may have died as so many of his siblings died in their 20's and 30's. Mary Ann may have gone back to KY. I would like to know where in KY she was from and if there isn't a marriage record for Samuel and Mary Ann.

Early Mauk-Mauk-Mock Information in Virginia and Pennsylvania

I am a new member of Mock-Gen-L. I was requested to give some personal info. My name is Harold Eugene Mauk, b. 6 Dec 1913 Hutchinson, Reno Co., KS; married 28 Dec 1936 Frances R. McCarter b. 25 Nov 1916 Syracuse, Hamilton Co., KS. My father was Harry Emerson Mauk, b. 23 Dec 1779 in Casey, ILL. My mother, Edith Estelle Goodrich b. 15 Aug 1885. Harry's father was Gilbert Byron Mauk b. Aug 1846 Logan, Hocking Co., OH. More about his three wives will be available when I get back to my records in FL. Gilbert's mother was Catlin (2nd wife). Gilbert's father was Cornelius Mauk b. 1810 near Winchester, VA. His 1st wife was a Nelson and his second wife was Abigale Moore. Gilbert said she was b. in PA. Cornelius is said to have been orphaned at the age of ten and bound out to Jon Tolbert to learn the blacksmith trade. Gilbert wrote that Cornelius was the son of Gottlieb Mauk and had 3 brothers and a sister. One of the brothers (Mathias Mauk) I have traced to Morgan Co., OH. He was married there. Cornelius moved to within a few miles of Mathias to Perry Co., OH and I have marriage papers on him from there. One of the other brothers was Kemerelsa and Gilbert in a letter he wrote in 1923 (age 77) says the sister was named Angeline. I noticed in one of the Mock emails that an Ereline was listed. I believe maybe Gilbert mixed that up. I have a name for the other brother in my records but I cannot recall it now. Ron has it in the book I wrote in 1974 and you might get it from him. Perry Co and Morgan Co., OH are bordering on Muskingam Co., OH just to the south. Many Mauck's there.

Enough for now. Please remember that I am 82 years old now and this is from memory, not my records.
