

MOCK FAMILY HISTORIAN

A CLEARING HOUSE FOR RESEARCH ON MOCK-MAUK-MACK FAMILIES

VOL. 1 - NO. 5

AUGUST 1992

MOCK FAMILY HISTORIAN "RESEARCHER EXTRAORDINAIRE", STEVE LAPP, took advantage of the low airfares last month and spent 3 days in Salt Lake City working mainly on our Mock families. He was particularly excited about the following information on George and Sophia Mock and their family. It is even more to his credit, the fact that the majority of his research on the Mock families is not connected to his family line. We ALL thank you, Steve and do appreciate your fine work. Ed. Note

GEORGE AND SOPHIA MOCK FAMILY Traced From Pennsylvania to Virginia

by Steve Lapp

After more detailed study of the Emanuel Lutheran Church Records found at the L.D.S. Library in Salt Lake City, it can now be shown that George and Sophia Mock and children moved from near present day Bricker-ville in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania to near Middl town in Frederick County, Virginia. This move occurred sometime after 1773.

This family was discussed in the October 1991 Mock Family Historian, pages 11-12, under "Which George Is Who???".

George Mock married Sophia Miller/Muller on April 21, 1761. The names and birthdates of their children are reprinted below as found in the "Records of Pastoral Acts at Emanuel Lutheran Church, Known in the Eighteenth Century as the Warwick Congregation", and translated by the Pennsylvania German Society in 1983.

(Born)	Georg Mock	(Baptised)
1762 September 10	A daughter Catarina Sponsors: Henrich Mok and Catarina Mullerin	1762 October 31
1763 December 8	A son Daniel Sponsors: Christoph Oberlin and Catharina Mullerin	1764 Palmarum
1766 January 30	Christoph Sponsors: Christoph Oberlin and Catharina Millerin	1766 June 22
1769 January 26	Christina Sponsors: Jacob Muller and wife Anna Maria	1769 April 11
1771 June 5	A son Georg Sponsors: Jacob Muller and wife Anna Maria	1771 June 22

For many years the will of Christopher Mock, proved April 4, 1809 in Frederick County, Virginia, has puzzled researchers. Abstracts of the will have been widely circulated, but in late February 1992 Dr. Ronald Moore obtained a copy from the clerk of the Circuit Court of Frederick County at Winchester, Virginia. A copy of the Estate Settlement of February 1, 1825, was also obtained. Excerpts of interest include

"I bequeath unto my ... wife Rozena Mock ... the entire estate of which she was in possession prior to my intermarriage with her ... and one half of the moveable estate left to me by my father, together with my own. I give and devise to my brothers and sisters DANIEL MOCK, GEORGE MOCK, CATHARINE EVERLY, CHRISTIANA HARMON, and SUSANNA MOCK ... share and share alike. My house and lot in Middletown I wish rented ... which rents arising I give unto my mother ... After her decease I desire said house and lot, and my share in the land demised by my father to me, be sold and the money ... equally divided amongst my brothers and sisters ... I appoint my ... friend Abraham Niswander as my sole executor."

Signed 10 January 1809 "Christopher Mock"
Witnesses: Lewis Amiss, John Snyder, F. Martin

The estate was not settled until February 1, 1825. Perhaps Christopher's mother did not die until the prior year. The estate account lists many payments, some by date. On June 7, 1810, SOPHIA MOCK was paid 30 dollars. An amount not legible was paid to "Everley's sons". Entries under the estates assets include two final notations: "By his share of money left by his mother - $35.33. By the sale of his lot in Middletown - '01.00".

Christopher Mock married Rosian Baker on Oct. 14, 1808 - bond, George Mock. (Shenandoah Co. Marriage Bonds)

The Harman Genealogy, by John Harmon, states as a direct quote, on page 303:

"I, JACOB HARMON, was born Aug. 11, 1769. My wife CHRISTENA MOCK was born Jan. 26, 1769. I got married Oct. 29, 1797."

Finally, in the book Floyd County (Virginia), by Dr. Amos D. Wood, we find this biography of Jacob Harmon:

"Jacob Harman (Aug. 11, 1769-1829) married Christina Mock (Jan. 26, 1769-1839) daughter of George and Sophia Mock of Frederick County, Va., on Oct. 29, 1797. They lived in Frederick County until 1802 when they moved to present Floyd County. He bought 326 acres of land on West Fork of Little River ... where they lived until his death. Jacob and Christina were members of Zion Lutheran Church near the courthouse, where some of their children were baptized. They had ten children."
(The children and descendants are listed in book.)

Thus we have overwhelming evidence linking these Shenandoah Valley Mocks to Lancaster County Mocks in Pennsylvania. We still are left with many unanswered questions. Who are the parents of George Mock married to Sophia? What became of Daniel Mock, born Dec. 8, 1763? What connection, if any, do these Mocks have to the other Mock families of Shenandoah Valley?

Letter received from Helene July 5, 1992

Dear Barbara,

I thought that I would update you on my Eliza Ann MOCK. I just found her marriage to John McCrillis in some early Fairfield Co.,OH marriage records. I am enclosing a copy of the other MOCK'S that I also found on the film. I was so excited to find this as this is my first piece of concrete information I had found. Now my next step is to find out who her parents are.

I thought I would also let you know that I have received some very nice letters from some of the other MOCK subscribers. They have been very informative, especially one from Ronald Moore. I had never heard of the Church of the Brethern. Ronald said that alot of the MOCK'S were members. I ran this information past my Grandmother and she said that most of her IL. family were originally members of that church. She also stated that Eliza Ann spoke fluent German. Thanks so much for a wonderful publication.

Helene Younger Hawkins.

Ed. Note: Thanks for sending the Ohio marriage records. I have included them in this issue.

Searching JOHN MOCK, b.23Jun1806 Rowan Co.,NC. His parents are John & Catherine Graves MOCK who were married 4Oct1790,Rowan Co., Peter MOCK was bondsman. John & his older brother, George were in Coles Co.,IL in 1830.

A biographical sketch of George in Coles Co. says his father John was a farmer & carried on a distillery, and that he died when George was very young. George migrated west to Orange Co.,Indiana and married there in 1819 to Lucinda Pippin. Was John with him??? John m. Eleanor Tennery on 28Jan 1836 in Edgar Co.,IL. He must have been married before as there are 2 girls living with he & Eleanor & family, Sarah J. (m. Gibbons), b.ca1832 and Mary

b. ca1833. All information on this family will be appreciated.

QUERIES FROM PROSPECTIVE SUBSCRIBERS.....

I saw your family publication listed in (Kentucky) "Bluegrass ROOTS" & wondered if you might be able to help me find further information. Elizabeth Rentfrow, dau. of Moses & Elizabeth Hartzel Rentfrow, was b. 19Jan1839 in Indiana & d.1926 Kosciusko Co., IN> She married George W. MOCK, son of Jacob & Nancy (MOCK-first cousins) MOCK on 12Jan1865 in Kosciusko Co.,IN. George was b.ca1842 in IN and died 1930, Kosciusko Co.,IN. Would like to know the names of George & Elizabeth's children, also other children of Jacob & Nancy MOCK.

*Gloria A. Turntine, 419 W. 109th St., Kansas City, MO 64114

Ed. Note: This family is included in Veneta Foster's book, "Climb With Me My Family Tree". I copied the information and sent to Gloria. I'm sure she would appreciate any further info.

Dear Barbara, I am searching for information on Mary Mock, b.ca1773, NC. m. Adam Coppess, 1793 NC, d.31Oct1838, Darke Co.,OH. I do not have the names of her parents or siblings. I read your advertisement in the Genealogical Helper so I am asking if you can help me.

*Celia von Leonrod, 245 W. Long, Dighton, KS 67839-0146

Ed. Note: This Mary is a dau. of Devault & Phoebe (Clinard) Mock. Have sent a brief account from The Coppess, Devault Mock material submitted by Edith Clark.

To: Mock Family Historian, I am researching my paternal g. grandmother's line. She was b.ca 1840 in Wilkes-Barra, PA, the dau. of Eugene and Ellen Harrison Mock.

DEVAULT MOCK's wife was Phoebe Clinard, dau. of Philip Clinard. After Devault's death, Phoebe & her children Mary, John, Daniel & Catherine, with their families came to Greene Co., OH, prior to 1807. Mary was m. to Adam Coppess; Catherine to Felix Houck; John to Mary Horney and Daniel to Ruth Lindsey. I have loads of info on each of the above families but have yet to prove PHOEBE MOCK was their mother. Some say she married Asa Oglesbee in Green Co.,OH in 1815; that she died in 1815; and yet she signed a deed turning over her property to son Daniel in 1816 in Greene Co. Therefore, I doubt she remarried and have no idea when and where she died and where she is buried, but would like to know!

ARTHUR MOCK, b.1872 and his wife Mallinda "Allie" Wallace, b.1873 were married ca 1893 in Missouri and had Henry b.1894, George W. b.1896, and Jefferson b. 1898. All born in Missouri. In 1900 they lived in Craighead Co., Arkansas but later moved to Oklahoma. Arthur MOCK may have been the son of ROBERT

MOCK who married Mary/Polly Blassengame in 1839 in Morgan Co.Missouri. I would appreciate any help in locating descendants of this family for genealogy research.

I am descended from DANIEL MAUCK (1740 VA) and his second wife, Rebecca Baker through their son, Joseph. I am particularly interested in the fact that DANIEL MAUCK insisted upon signing his name MAAG. I find that MAAG is an old German name dating back to the 1200's. Mauck is also an old German place name. I think that the county clerk that made out the handwritten documents may have misunderstood Daniel when he pronounced "MAAG" and mistook the name to be that of an already familiar MAUCK (Peter MAUCK) in the area. Rudolph Sr. who is presumed to be Daniel's father also was known as "RUDEN MAG" on some documents.

PHILIP MOCK

submitted by LOUISE CLARK
to the
ROWAN CO.,NC REGISTER
Vol. 7, No. 2, May 1992

The Diary of Johann Gottfried Arends shows that he married PHILIP MOCK to Anna Mariah Klinert 10Mar1776 at Ebellscriik (see p.676 RCR); she was the daughter of Philip Clinard. Rowan Co. Deed Book 8:458 shows that the following year Henry Harman, a blacksmith who signed in German, and his wife Nancy sold Phillip Mock for L300 proclamation money, 205 acres on both sides of Abbotts Creek bought from John Delashmit. Witnesses to the deed were James Welborn and Henry Davis. The deed was proved by Davis at Feb. Court 1778. Mock was numbered among those who took the Oath of Allegiance on 5 Aug 1778 (P & QS, Bk 4:159). Philip Mock acquired over a thousand acres of land and more than a dozen slaves; he was a "Retailer of Spirits," among other things. His first wife, Anna Maria (Clinard) Mock, died about 1782 and Philip Mock's next wife was Mary Magdalene (maiden name unknown) by whom he had nine additional children. After 1810 Philip Mock married Hannah Walk, dau. of Martin Walk. On 17Feb1824 Hannah Walk Mock married John Clodfelter, Jr., and they subsequently moved to Missouri. Philip Mock had a brother Devolt Mock who married Phebe Clinard, also a dau. of Philip Clinard. She moved to Greene Co.,OH with her children and there married Asa Oglesbee. Philip and Devolt Mock were sons of Johannes Mock whose Berks Co.,PA. Will is dated 15Apr1782.

ROWAN RECORDS SLEUTH - The will of Philip Mock, Sr., dated 2 June 1819, and signed by him in German, is not recorded in the Rowan Co. Will Books but survives among the original Wills at the North Carolina Archives. This is the Will of a prosperous settler in the area of Rowan that became Davidson Co, a man with married grandchildren and a wife young enough that the prospect of children in esse was a possibility. The Will is even more interesting in that it was witnessed by one of the legatees, David Mock, son of the testator and the first Clerk of Court in the newly formed county of Davidson, a man of success, as the records show, lay on something firmer than his ability to manage money. The law, then and now, stated that a man who receives by a Will cannot be a witness to it. But the signature of the witness and that of the son and co-executor are undeniably identical. The invalidation of the Will by the legatee-witness provides the reason the Will was never probated.

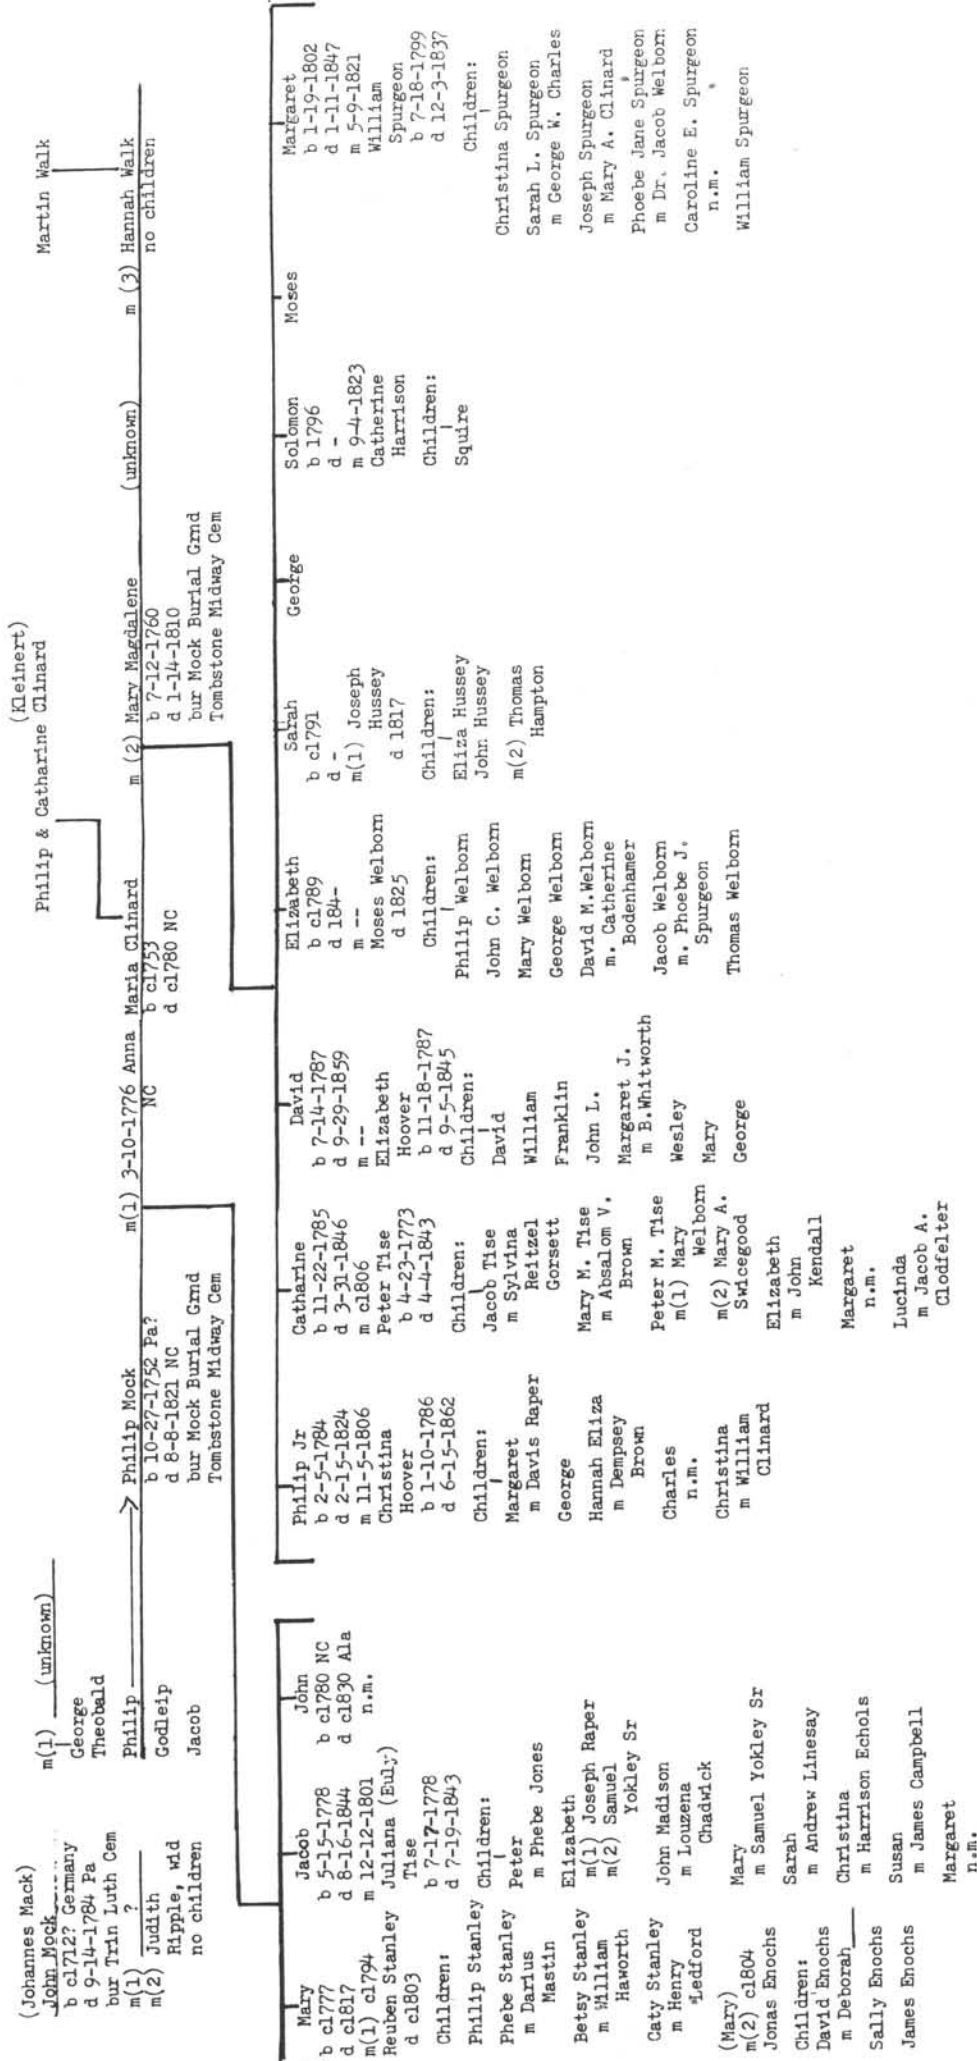

To obtain copies of the Wills of Johannes Mock (5 pp. with inventory, Berks Co.,PA, Will Bk 8:105) and Philip Mock (6 pp.), send $6.00 to Editor, Rowan Co. Register, Box 1948, Salisbury, NC 28144.

The following chart has been submitted by Marguerite Tise. It starts with the immigrant, Johannes Mack (Mock), listing his 5 sons, George, Theobald, PHILIP, Godleip and Jacob. Philip's children and their families are the subject of this chart. Documentation is available from:

Editors note:

Thank you, Marguerite, we appreciate the work and great deal of time you have spent on this chart. I look forward to hearing from those who may have further information on these families.

Thanks to all who have donated research material for articles and Queries. Your contributions are so necessary in the success of the Mock Family Historian. If your queries have been answered and you have found "that missing link", please let us know. This information may be of value to some one else. The past few months, I have fallen behind in my correspondence with many of our subscribers. Being registration chairman for a national convention in July took a great deal of my time, but I'm free again and happy to be back devoting more time to the newsletter.

This is our 5th issue. There will be one more issue before the end of the year. As you may recall, those who paid their dues prior to Jan., 1992 received 6 issues for $10. Two issues in 1991 and four issues in 1992. The dues for 1993 (4 issues) will be due after the next issue to be mailed out sometime in Nov. Thanks to those who have already mailed in their $10. for 1993.

CALIFORNIA "MOCK GATHERING"

It has been suggested that we organize a "reunion" for Mock researchers to get together. The main purpose would be to share our research materials, and to discuss future projects for the MOCK FAMILY HISTORIAN. It was decided to hold this conference in Fresno, CA,. Ron Moore, who lives in Fresno has agreed to check with Ramada Inn to see if we could use a conference room. He feels this is possible if we would guarantee 5 or 6 rooms. I will bring all of the research materials I have collected from so many of you. Steve Lapp and Ron Moore also will bring their research. Ron will have a copy machine available for our use. A tentative date has been set for SUNDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1992. If you are interested please contact Barbara Dittig at the address listed below - or - call 510-735-9610 for further information. We look forward to meeting you all!
