Prescott Hezekiah, (P. H. or Jimmie), was born in Monongahela, Pa. on 13 April 1888, worked on the Panama Canal excavation as a steamshovel craneman from October 1909 to October 1913. In 1928 on 13th. of April he married Helen Junita Curtis. At this time I feel we should dedicate this newsletter to this wonderful cousin, P. H. the one being responsible for leaving so much Carmack genealogy behind for all of us to share. On April 30, 1954 P. H. died in Los Angeles, Ca.

Helen Jaunita Curtis was born May 10, 1897 and was living in 1964. Helen and P. H. had no children but claimed "Butch", a black cat.

Prescott Hezekiah Carmack, son of Shelby Crall Carmack 1862-1887 and his wife Lillie May Shepler Carmack; grandson of Hezekiah Carmack 1826-1911 and his wife Louisa Crall Carmack, Louisa's mother was Hannah James Gaskill first cousin of Jefferson Davis; great-grandson of Abraham Carmack 1799-1863 and his wife Susannah Wickham; great-great-grandson of Peter A.4. 3. of this newsletter.

In November, 1985, my husband Bill, daughter Teresa and grandchildren Zackary, Zenon, Zared, Mariah and myself had the pleasure of having a wonderful visit with Arlene and Lester Dixon, the boys enjoyed their visit playing with Lester and all of the nice toys while Bill and Lester was able to do a little visiting, as you would know Arlene and myself were in another room deep in Carmack genealogy, the only problem being we didn't have enough time to hash out all of our Carmack's but we spent our time trying. Teresa enjoyed both parts talking with Lester and also joining in on some of our genealogy. As for Mariah born 14 August 1985 she enjoyed being held by everyone, I know Zenon will be ready to visit again because as we were leaving Arlene gave him a big bag full of chocklate chip cookies. We all can be greatful for all of the help Arlene gave us in doing this newsletter.

In December just before Christmas I also had another nice phone call, Charles & Mal Carmack from Mi. or Advisor was visiting Sue & Harry Thompson in Irvin, Tx. They called to let everyone know about their nice visit with Junita Martin, Junita's daughter Karen, Howitt Martin and his wife Delma, in Stephenville, Tx. Let's all remember our Stephenville, Tx. reunion again this year, also our Tenn. Reunion.
