The fact that C.M. Houg's research(see above) indicated the sub parish of Aasnes, and this information is for the same sub parish, it looks like good data. Especially with Kari there.

From "Our Haug's in America"

EINAR (& MATHEA) of the 1st generation (to move to America), like the Noah of old, floated on the big waters and in due course of time landed on dry land with his entrusted belongings to become the father of a great clan. This, our Noah in America, Einar T. Haug is registered in Norway under the name of Einar Tostensen Nyen, born June 22, 1831, but a notation in his old Bible has it June 23. So it is up to us to either believe the old bible or the Government Archives of Norway. He was born on his parent's place Nyhaugen, Solør, Norway. So, evidentially, "Haug" is derived from Nyhaugen. In the early years in America, Einar often was referred to as Einar Nyen and why this name did not stick is hard to figure out as Einar and his family came from their own little place in Norway called Nyen. This is according to the records from Norway.

Einar was small of stature but a giant in attitude toward his faith in God, his country and his fellow man. Although he lacked the higher education he was found to be a worthy opponent in various fields where he more learned would often stumble. Many a wolf and dog did he sew together into snug fitting warm fur coats, the rage of that era. His workmanship was amply manifested in the many years he sewed and fashioned men's suits and garments in the neighborhood.

Einar and Mathea had their log house built about 1881 on the south half of the S.W. quarter of section 13, Norwegian Grove Township, Otter Tail County, Minnesota. There were also two fractions of land in the same sections that went with it, making a total of 41 35/100 acres.

Einar did not have a lazy bone in his make-up; idleness was an abomination to him so that when he was not busy in his trade he had no trouble finding other work to do. He was very handy with the woodman's axe and no slouch with carpenter's tools. However, perhaps he was the most efficient with his feet, of all things. Back in Solør he was renowned for his agility on the log floats down the Felisa River. In this country, in his lonelier years, his pastime pride was his long walks that took him deep into old age. Einar had always been blessed with good health. At the age of 50 he became the sensation of the neighborhood by sprouting a new tooth. His eyes served well throughout his whole life. At the age of 82 1/2 years he suffered his first confinement into a reclining chair for a period, after an entanglement with a horse drawn vehicle. He survived this ordeal in a comparatively short time and lived to be 93 years, 4 months, and 4 days old. He had 89 grandchildren, 75 great grandchildren and three great-great grandchildren at the time of his departure on October 27, 1924. His adherent longevity together with his melodious soul finding express in humming of his favorite songs while he deftly applied his skill with his needle and thread and what have you.

Notes for MATHEA NEE KOKKIN:

[Jle_uce02.GED]

From "Our Haug's in America"

Einar's wife Mathea (nee Kokkin) is the feminine side of our first generation of "Our Haug's in America". She was the daughter of Peder and Eli Kokkin and was born in Solør Norway on June 20, 1829. She was a quiet serene woman. Her people were from a higher class in Norway, that is, they were land owners who had tenants working the lands on a sort of work-pay proposition including free use of a small house and a bit of land all within the farm proper. These so called "Hus men" were evidently to be on call at any and all times, but Mathea did not bring any of this aristocratic halo with her to this country. She remained true to her inner feelings of equality and friendship towards kinfolk and friends alike. She passed away July 12, 1897 at the age of 68 years and 22 days, true to the faith of her childhood to the end. She was laid to rest in the cemetery at the Lutheran church 4 miles west of Pelican Rapids where she had walked to services for so many years. Her husband, Einar, joined her there 27 years later under a tombstone erected with fond memories by a grandson and protege.

Notes for EBERHARD HOUGHT:
[Jle_uce02.GED]

Eberhard Hought was the third son of our 1st generation in America. He was born in Aasnes, Solør, Norway, February 23rd 1858 and emigrated to the Pelican Rapids, Minnesota district in 1879. He married Caroline Beckstrom, born in Sweden, June 7th, 1861, and her sojourn in life extended till March 1947. Eberhard's life journey ended August 2nd, 1936. They are both at rest in Spruce Grove Cemetery, Becker County, Minnesota. Lina, as we called her, was an outstanding orderly and lovable person well suited to manoeuvre a large family like theirs. Eber, as he was called, was totally dedicated to making a living for his large family by the slow process of wresting tillable land from the slow yielding forested areas among the swamps. His timber and saw mill, however, came to the rescue. He was a resourceful man and dealt with problems according to their complexity. Throughout it all he kept faith with the Church of his forefathers, and with the aid of his inherited tenacity conquered the swamps and the jack-pines and came out on top. They seemingly encountered the lions share in hardships in some ways. For instance, in wet weather groceries and other victuals had to be carried piggy-back from a distant town over the otherwise impassible trails across the springy swamps, in the good old days. They had 15 children, all born in the Menahga, Minnesota district.

Notes for JAMES EDWARD HOUGHT:
[Jle_uce02.GED]

Jim, as he was called, grew up among the tall timber on the farm and developed a symbol of those environments, tall and straight both in stature and in dealings with fellow men. He was his father's right hand man in the timber, at the saw mill and on the farm in general. But in due course of time he succumbed to the urge of pioneering ventures and soon found himself on a homestead near Noonan, North Dakota with a god wife and a lignite coal mine to boot. There they fought the furies of the variable seasons for many years and successfully proved their ability to make good. Finally they moved from their pioneer home where all their children were born and to the greener pastures of Oregon near Junction City where they bought a nice farm, but before long they sold out and retired from hard work. They built a home at 90 Ruby Lane off of River Road in the Santa Clara area near Eugene. There Jim built himself a wood-working shop where he spent many enjoyable years concocting both useful and ornamental articles for gifts, sale and/or exhibit at local fairs. Sophie found a vent for her abundant energy in keeping her fine home spic and span as well as holding down the portfolio of family chauffeur. Jim's pet saying is "If I'd had as good fore-sight as back-sight I'd been OK" However, they have done exceedingly well as it is.

MAMIE OTELIA⁷ HOUGHT (*EBERHARD*⁶, *EINAR TOSTENSEN*⁵ HAUG, *TOSTEN KNUDSEN*⁴ NYEN, *KNUD TOSTENDEN*³, *TOSTEN LARSEN*² KORNSTADT, *LARS*¹) was born February 26, 1885 in Menahga, Minnesota, and died February 11, 1988. She married EDWARD EVANSON. He was born March 14, 1881, and died October 14, 1952.

Notes for EDWARD EVANSON:
[Jle_uce02.GED]

Note:

Mother and dad moved from the Noonan area to Alamo, North Dakota and from there to Fairview, Montana. Following dad's stroke in 1949 they left Fairview and spent his remaining years in Rochester Michigan with their three oldest children and families. Dad died in October, 1952.

Following his death, mother spent a year traveling and visiting with her children making Charles' home in Fairview, Montana her place of residence. The next seven years she spent with Charlotte in Waverly, Iowa and Green Bay, Wisconsin. Following Charlotte's marriage in 1960 she went to Pontiac, Michigan and lived with Mildred and Maurice until 1968. During that time she experience the loss through death of the first of her eleven children.

Mother wasn't ready to retire from active life and so moved from Pontiac to Marinette, Wisconsin in order to help Charlotte by baby sitting for her three small children. She stayed there for 10 years. She did her fair share of the family chores and contributed her Christian influence and transgenerational experience for her grandchildren.

In 1977 Charlotte and family moved to Bettendorf, Iowa. At that time mother went to live with Irene, who had been living alone since the death of her husband in 1974. Living next door to daughter Mildred and her husband Maurice gave all four of them many happy times together. Following Mildred's death Maurice continues to watch over mother and Irene and often becomes their "wheels" to get about. Irene's sons living near also keep in touch.

Rochester, Michigan is also a travel spot for them where they spend much time with Irene's daughter Leah, and her other children in the area. Besides local trips these two wonderful ladies have made several trips to Iowa and also to North Carolina where Irene's granddaughter, Sally lives. They spent last winter in Iowa with Charlotte and family and this year are with them in Maple Grove.

Minnesota was an attraction for them this year as mother has a brother and three sisters in the near area. She has been in touch with them by telephone and has visited Esther in her home. They plan to have many visits together while mother is in the Twin City area.

Irene, at 80 years, is a marvelous nurse, companion and tender, loving caring person not only fulfilling mother's needs but also anticipating them. Mother, at 99 is still our miracle. She is in good health, continues to have a quiet sense of humor, still exhibits a Christian influence and a positive attitude of faith. They are both an inspiration to all who meet them.

God be praised for their continued ministry.

Homer was number eight of ten children born to James and Sophie. They lived in Noonan until 1935, when the family moved to a farm in Monroe, Oregon. Homer and Conie enjoyed camping together and were camp hosts for the Oregon State Parks on the Central Oregon coast for four years. They especially loved Sunset Bay in Charleston, Oregon, where they went crabbing and clamming.

From "Our Haug's in America"

Einar's wife Mathea (nee Kokkin) is the feminine side of our first generation of "Our Haug's in America". She was the daughter of Peder and Eli Kokkin and was born in Solør Norway on June 20, 1829. She was a quiet serene woman. Her people were from a higher class in Norway, that is, they were land owners who had tenants working the lands on a sort of work-pay proposition including free use of a small house and a bit of land all within the farm proper. These so called "Hus men" were evidently to be on call at any and all times, but Mathea did not bring any of this aristocratic halo with her to this country. She remained true to her inner feelings of equality and friendship towards kinfolk and friends alike. She passed away July 12, 1897 at the age of 68 years and 22 days, true to the faith of her childhood to the end. She was laid to rest in the cemetery at the Lutheran church 4 miles west of Pelican Rapids where she had walked to services for so many years. Her husband, Einar, joined her there 27 years later under a tombstone erected with fond memories by a grandson and protege.

From the 1801 Norwegian Census:

The reference is for Sub Parish Aasnes, in the county of Hedemarkens.

From "Our Haug's in America"

EINAR (& MATHEA) of the 1st generation (to move to America), like the Noah of old, floated on the big waters and in due course of time landed on dry land with his entrusted belongings to become the father of a great clan. This, our Noah in America, Einar T. Haug is registered in Norway under the name of Einar Tostensen Nyen, born June 22, 1831, but a notation in his old Bible has it June 23. So it is up to us to either believe the old bible or the Government Archives of Norway. He was born on his parent's place Nyhaugen, Solør, Norway. So, evidentially, "Haug" is derived from Nyhaugen. In the early years in America, Einar often was referred to as Einar Nyen and why this name did not stick is hard to figure out as Einar and his family came from their own little place in Norway called Nyen. This is according to the records from Norway.

Einar was small of stature but a giant in attitude toward his faith in God, his country and his fellow man. Although he lacked the higher education he was found to be a worthy opponent in various fields where he more learned would often stumble. Many a wolf and dog did he sew together into snug fitting warm fur coats, the rage of that era. His workmanship was amply manifested in the many years he sewed and fashioned men's suits and garments in the neighborhood.

Einar and Mathea had their log house built about 1881 on the south half of the S.W. quarter of section 13, Norwegian Grove Township, Otter Tail County, Minnesota. There were also two fractions of land in the same sections that went with it, making a total of 41 35/100 acres.

Einar did not have a lazy bone in his make-up; idleness was an abomination to him so that when he was not busy in his trade he had no trouble finding other work to do. He was very handy with the woodman's axe and no slouch with carpenter's tools. However, perhaps he was the most efficient with his feet, of all things. Back in Solør he was renown for his agility on the log floats down the Felisa River. In this country, in his lonelier years, his pastime pride was his long walks that took him deep into old age Einar had always been blessed with good health. At the age of 50 he became the sensation of the neighborhood by sprouting a new tooth. His eyes served with well throughout his whole life. At the age of 82 1/2 years he suffered his first confinement into a reclining chair for a period, after an entanglement with a horse drawn vehicle. He survived this ordeal in a comparatively short time and lived to be 93 years, 4 months, and 4 days old. He had 89 grandchildren, 75 great grandchildren and three great-great grandchildren at the time of his departed on October 27, 1924. His adherent longevity together with his melodious soul finding express in humming of his favorite songs while he deftly applied his skill with his needle and thread and what have you.

Notes for EBERHARD HOUGHT:

Eberhard Hought was the third son of our 1st generation in America. He was born in Aasnes, Solør, Norway, February 23rd 1858 and emigrated to the Pelican Rapids, Minnesota district in 1879. He married Caroline Beckstrom, born in Sweden, June 7th, 1861, and her sojourn in life extended till March 1947. Eberhard's life journey ended August 2nd, 1936. They are both at rest in Spruce Grove Cemetery, Becker County, Minnesota. Lina, as we called her, was an outstanding orderly and lovable person well suited to manoeuvre a large family like theirs. Eber, as he was called, was totally dedicated to making a living for his large family by the slow process of wrestling tillable land from the slow yielding forested areas among the swamps. His timber and saw mill, however, came to the rescue. He was a resourceful man and dealt with problems according to their complexity. Throughout it all he kept faith with the Church of his forefathers, and with the aid of his inherited tenacity conquered the swamps and the jack-pines and came out on top. They seemingly encountered the lions share in hardships in some ways. For instance, in wet weather groceries and other victuals had to be carried piggy-back from a distant town over the otherwise impassible trails across the springy swamps, in the good old days. They had 15 children, all born in the Menahga, Minnesota district.

Jim, as he was called, grew up among the tall timber on the farm and developed a symbol of those environments, tall and straight both in stature and in dealings with fellow men. He was his father's right hand man in the timber, at the saw mill and on the farm in general. But in due course of time he succumbed to the urge of pioneering ventures and soon found himself on a homestead near Noonan, North Dakota with a god wife and a lignite coal mine to boot. There they fought the furies of the variable seasons for many years and successfully proved their ability to make good. Finally they moved from their pioneer home where all their children were born and to the greener pastures of Oregon near Junction City where they bought a nice farm, but before long they sold out and retired from hard work. They built a home at 90 Ruby Lane off of River Road in the Santa Clara area near Eugene. There Jim built himself a wood-working shop where he spent many enjoyable years concocting both useful and ornamental articles for gifts, sale and/or exhibit at local fairs. Sophie found a vent for her abundant energy in keeping her fine home spic and span as well as holding down the portfolio of family chauffeur. Jim's pet saying is "If I'd had as good fore-sight as back-sight I'd been OK" However, they have done exceedingly well as it is.

[Jle_uce02.GED]

Waldo Homer Hought was baptized as an infant at Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Noonan, North Dakota. He died of heart failure in his home on August 7, 1998 in Eugene, Oregon at the age of 76.

Homer was number eight of ten children born to James and Sophie. They lived in Noonan until 1935, when the family moved to a farm in Monroe, Oregon. Homer was confirmed in his faith at Central Lutheran Church in Eugene, Oregon in 1937. He played basketball at Monroe High School. After graduating from Monroe High School he served in the U.S. Navy Air Corps during World War II. When he returned from military service, he and his first wife, Eda, moved to Grants Pass, Oregon where they owned Homer's Homemade Ice Cream. When the store was destroyed by fire, Homer moved to Eugene. He worked for Gordon Olsen Investments until his retirement in the early 1980's.

Homer and Conie enjoyed camping together and were camp hosts for the Oregon State Parks on the Central Oregon coast for four years. They especially loved Sunset Bay in Charleston, Oregon, where they went crabbing and clamming.

Homer had a woodworking shop at home where he made many things for family and friends. He was the woodworking supervisor at Campbell Senior Center. He played golf for many years and was a life member of the Elks Lodge. He also had a collection of bottle openers. But his favorite hobby was people - and did he love to talk!

He was an active member of Bethesda Lutheran Church since 1983, where he served faithfully as an usher and chair lift operator. He attended the Men's Breakfast regularly and just recently attended Promise Keepers. A lifelong Lutheran, Homer loved His Lord and his congregation.

Homer and Glenn Engle spent many evenings going to Monroe High School football, basketball, and baseball games during their retirement.
