

Jean Karns at age three months, in the chair of her older sister Colleen. The family lived in the Clark Place south of Ford, Kansas. This photo was found in Jean's baby book, which she saved in a box of her mementos. The chair has special significance because it was made for Colleen by a family friend and neighbor, Leon Bridgewater.

