

For several years Jean enjoyed greeting Halloween trick-or-treaters with her witch costume, broom, and basket to collect goodies. We never took time to ask the children who came what they thought when they rang the doorbell and were greeted by a an attractive witch.

