

In the mid-1970s Forrest taught a group of members of Bethany First Church of the Nazarene who, in turn, would be prepared to teach Bethel Bible Series classes in the church. At the conclusion of the training the group traveled to the Holy Lands, including Petra in Jordan. Here Jean is shown on her horse, with her guide at the far right, while we were viewing the canyons of the ancient and now-deserted city.

