to James Murray, of Abercarny, Esq.—Grace, married to Mr. Boyne. His Lordship was succeeded in 1729, by his eldest son, Alexander, who was unfortunately killed by Mungo Campbell, an Officer in the Exche, in a scuffle, Oct. 24, 1769, and was succeeded by his brother Archibald, the present Earl. See the Arms, Plate 35.

DAVID KENNEDY, EARL OF CASSILIS, 1509; and Lord Kennedy; unmarried.

His Lordship's father, Sir John Kennedy, was descended from Sir Thomas Kennedy, second son of the third Earl of Cassilis. Sir John left by his wife, Jean Douglas, three sons; Sir John, who died without issue in 1744; Sir Thomas, who was the 9th Earl, died also without issue in 1775; and David, the present Earl. See the Arms, Plate 35.

FRANCIS STEWART, EARL OF MORAY, Feb. 10, 1561; and Lord Down, of Down, in Menteith, in the county of Perth; married in June, 1763, Jane, daughter of John, late Lord Gray, by whom, who died March 4, 1786, he has issue, James, Lord Down, who died July 11, 1776. John, present Lord Down.—Francis.—Archibald.—Charles.—Margaret, who died 1788.—Grace, married July 10, 1789, George Douglas, Esq. of Caverages.—Jane.—Anne.

His Lordship's grandfather, Francis, married Jane Elphingston, youngest daughter of John, Lord Balmerino, and left two sons, James, Lord Down; and Francis, who married Ellen Montgomery, daughter of Alexander, the ninth Earl of Eglington; and one daughter, Anne, married to John Stuart, Esq. of Blair-hall, by whom she was left a widow, and died Jan. 1783. His Lordship dying in 1739, was succeeded by his eldest son, James, who married Grace, the Countess Dowager, and widow of John Gordon, Earl of Aboyne, daughter of George Lockhart, of Carnwath, Esq. by whom he had Francis, the present Earl; and a daughter, Eupheme. He married, secondly, Margaret, daughter of David, Earl of Wemyss, by whom, who died 1779, he had two sons; James, and David, who died June, 1784; and deceasing July 5, 1767, was succeeded by his son, Francis, the present Earl. See the Arms, Plate 36.

WILLIAM HOME, EARL OF HOME; and Baron of Dunblais, March 4, 1604; succeeded his father, Dec. 14, 1786.

His Lordship's father, Alexander, married Anne Kerr, daughter of William, the second Marquis of Lothian, by her left two sons and one daughter; William, Lord Dunglas; Alexander; and Jane, who died June 1787. William, the eldest, who succeeded him, married the widow—Lawes, of Albermarle-street, in 1744, who died Jan. 1784, and dying without issue the 28th of April, 1765, he was succeeded by his brother, Alexander, the late Earl, who married, first, Primrose, daughter of Charles, Lord Elphingston, by whom he had one son and two daughters; William, Lord Dunglas.

—Elizabeth.—Eleanor, married Jan. 9, 1784, Col. Thomas Dundas. His Lordship married, secondly, Marianne, daughter of his uncle, James Home, of Acton, Esq. He married to his third wife, Feb. 10, 1768, Miss Ramsay, by whom he had a daughter, born July 20, 1773. His Lordship died Dec. 14, 1786, when he was succeeded by his son, William, the present Earl. See the Arms, Plate 36.

His Lordship is descended from Alexander, first Earl of Dunbar and Home, and claimed this title, which was allowed him by the Sheriff, and a respectable Jury, Oct. 13, 1776, being descended from Sir Alexander Home, to whom the title was adjudged, 1689, and has the same arms borne as those of the Earl Home, except in the escutcheon, by way of lorraine, gules, a lion rampant, argent, within a bordure charged with eight cloves of the last.

John Bowes Lyon, Earl of Strathmore, and Kinghurn; and Lord Lyon, July 10, 1606; and Glamis; a minor, who has assumed the family name of Lyon.

His Lordship's grandfather, Thomas, in 1738, married Jane, daughter of James Nicholston, Esq. by whom, who died May 13, 1778, he had issue, John, the late Earl.—James-Philip, born in 1738.—Thomas, married in 1774, a daughter of Farren Wren, Esq.—Susan, married to General Lambton.—Anne, married in July, 1768, to John Simpson, Esq. by whom she had issue, and was left a widow in 1773.—Margaret. His Lordship dying in Jan. 1753, was succeeded by his eldest son, John, who was born in 1737. He married, Feb. 14, 1767, Mary-Eleanor, daughter and only child of George Bowes, Esq. of Gibside, in the county of Durham, and took thereupon the name of Bowes, pursuant to an act of parliament passed in the same year, and died in April, 1776, leaving issue two sons, John, and George, born April 12, 1769; and two daughters, Mary; born April 5, 1773, who died May, 1780; and Anna—Maria, mas Fitzmaurice, Esq. brother to the present Marquis of Lansdowne, of Ireland, and has issue; and another daughter, born March 11, 1758.

Her ladyship's grandfather, George, the fifth son of William, the first Duke of Hamilton of the Douglas family, was created Earl of Orkney in 1676, married Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Sir Edward Villiers, and sister to Edward, Earl of Jersey, and had three daughters; Anne, the eldest, married to William O'Brien, late Earl of Inchiquin.—Frances, married Sir Thomas Lumley Saundersen, Knight of the Bath, afterwards Earl of Scarborough.—Harrriet, married John, Lord Boyle in England, and Earl of Orrery and Cork in Ireland. This Earl dying, January 29, 1757, aged 72 years, Anne, Countess of Inchiquin, succeeded him in honours and estate. She had several children, of whom there remain now living only two daughters; Mary, married, in 1753, Murrough O'Brien, the present Earl of Inchiquin; and Anne. Her ladyship dying in 1756, was succeeded by her eldest daughter, Mary, the present countess. See the Arms, Plate 44.

HUGH HUME CAMPBELL, EARL OF MARCHMONT, 1697; Viscount Blaffonbury, Lord Polwarth of Polwarth, 1690; Redbraes, and Greenlaw, in the county of Berwick, and a Baronet. Married, Miss Anne Western, by whom he had issue Patrick, who died an infant.—Anne, married to Sir John Paterson, Bart.—Margaret, married to Colonel James Stuart.—Diana, married to Walter Scott of Harden, Esq. The countess their mother dying in 1747, His lordship, the year following, married Miss Crompton of London; by whom he had a son, Alexander, Lord Polwarth, born in July, 1750, married, July 16, 1772, Annabella, daughter of the Marchioness Grey, and was created in 1776, Baron Hume in England; but dying without issue in 1781, his title of Baron Hume became extinct.

Patrick, the present lord's grandfather, married Grizel, daughter of Sir Thomas Kerr, of Cavers, and had three sons, Patrick, Alexander, and Sir Andrew; and four daughters; whereof Jane was married to James Sandilands, Lord Torpichen; and Grizel to George Bailie, of Jerviswood, Esq. Patrick, Lord Polwarth, married Jane Hume, daughter of Charles, the sixth Earl of Hume, and died before his father without issue; and Alexander, the second son, who succeeded his father, died in 1739, having married ried Margaret, daughter and heir to Sir George Campbell of Ceshnock, by whom he left Jane, married to James Nimmo, Esq. receiver-general of excise, in North Britain, and died Oct. 10, 1770; and Anne, married to Purves, Esq. and died in 1784, aged 86. His lordship had also two sons, Hugh, Lord Polwarth, and Alexander, who took the surname of Campbell, as representing his mother's family, married to Miss Paris, and died in July, 1760, without issue. Hugh succeeded his father in 1739, and is the present earl. See the Arms, Plate 39.

JAMES CARMICHAEL, EARL OF HYNDFORD, 1701; Lord Carmichael, 1647; and a Baronet. Succeeded his brother, John, the late earl, Dec. 21, 1787. Married Janet, daughter of Sir John Clerk, Bart.

John, the second baron, was created an earl in 1701, married Beatrix Drummond, daughter of David, Lord Madderby, by Beatrix, his wife, daughter of John Graham, Earl of Montrose, and niece to William, the first Viscount Stratthallan, and by her had three sons and three daughters; the eldest of the daughters was married to John Cockburn, of Ormeiston; the second to John Montgomery, of Giffen; and the third to Sir John Maxwell of Nether Pollock, Bart. Lord Justice Clerk, and all had issue. His lordship had three sons; John, the eldest son, died without issue in 1767, and was succeeded by his nephew, John, the late earl; William, the second son, was father of the present earl, having married Helen, daughter of Thomas Craig, of Riccarton, Esq. by whom he had issue; John, the late earl, who married Janet Grant, daughter of Lord Prestongrange, by whom he had no issue, and dying Dec. 21, 1787, was succeeded by his brother, James, the present earl.—Elizabeth.—Helen, married to John Gibson, Esq. See the Arms, Plate 39.

JOHN DALRYMPLE, EARL, 1703; Viscount, and Baron of Stair, 1690; and Baron Dalrymple of Newlifton and Stranrawe, and a Baronet; who succeeded, Oct. 1789, his father, John, the late earl.

John, the second viscount, in 1703, was created an earl. He married Elizabeth, daughter and heir to Sir John Dundas, of Newlifton, in the county of Linlithgow, and left three sons, and one daughter, Margaret, married to Hugh Campbell, the third earl of Loudon. The sons were John, William, George. John, the eldest son, succeeding his
