My Dear Daughter

I was so glad to get your letter, but that you were coming over if George could only come, so I could have you all together one more time. I would be happy since I have that last spell of ergsipelas, had left me so weak, and I feel so bad I almost give up, and the hot weather makes it worse.

Mary is in Atlanta now, Robert and Harry come up and spend a week, and she went back with them.

Rania Beach came and spent two week with her Mother, Bess and
