Dear Irene: We were pleased to hear from you but sorry to hear you hadn't been feeling well; hope by now your cold is gone; do you think the air-conditioning on the busses and in the hotels caused it? Mrs. Biderell's sister who came here from Arizona stayed in a Hotel in Ponca City and she developed a head cold from the air-conditioning, said she nearly froze it night. Glad you had a fine trip and we shall be anxious to hear all about it.

Friday was my receiving day; a friend from our church who had been away on July 23rd came bringing me a Birthday cake a month late; it was a beautiful two layer coconut cake; so I kept it until today without cutting sort of hoping you would surprise us. A neighbor also gave me a package of frozen young berries; good on ice cream she said. Then Dorcia Fry when she brought us eggs; brought peaches from
