

SHIRLEY - STEIN

"O fortunate, O happy day,
When a new household finds its place
Among the myriad homes of earth
Like a new star just sprung to birth."

On Wednesday evening, February 12th, a small company of relatives and friends, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Stein of Grantville, the occasion being the joining together in Holy Matrimony of Mr. Garfield L. Shirley and Miss Sophia L. Stein. At 8 o'clock Miss Alta Hurd sang, "What is the World without You" after which the wedding party marched to the altar amid the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, rendered by Miss Maude Willis of Topeka.

The bride was escorted by Miss Irene Hebbe, of Dover, Oklahoma, as bridesmaid, and the groom by his brother, Mr. Theodore Shirley as groomsman.

The vows, so old, yet ever new, were given according to the shorter wedding service read by Rev. A. E. Peterson of Grantville, whose privilege it was to declare the words which made them of one flesh.

After the ceremony a delightful two course luncheon was partaken of by all, and the hour furnished opportunity for a happy, social time.

The bride was charmingly gowned in white messaline with silk lace overdress and silk fringe trimming. Miss Hebbe wore pale blue chiffon over pale blue messaline.

Mr. and Mrs. Shirley will reside on the Dick Brown farm near Thompsonville, which farm Mr. Shirley has purchased. The splendid couple have the well wishes of the entire community being known and respected by all for their admirable qualities. We predict for them success, and a large place in the world of usefulness.

God speed o'er the sea of wedded life.

(Name and date of newspaper is unknown.)

Shirley-Stein

"O fortunate, O happy day,
When a new household finds its place
Among the myriad homes of earth.
Like a new star just sprung to birth."

On Wednesday evening, February 12th, a small company of relatives and friends, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Stein of Grantville, the occasion being the joining together in Holy Matrimony of Mr. Garfield L. Shirley and Miss Sophia L. Stein. At 8 o'clock Miss Alta Hurd sang, "What is the World without You" after which the wedding party marched to the altar amid the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, rendered by Miss Maude Willis of Topeka.

The bride was escorted by Miss Irene Hebbe, of Dover, Oklahoma, as bridesmaid, and the groom by his brother, Mr. Theodore Shirley as groomsman.

The vows, so old, yet ever new, were given according to the shorter wedding service read by Rev. A. E. Peterson of Grantville, whose privilege it was to declare the words which made them of one flesh.

After the ceremony a delightful two course luncheon was partaken of by all, and the hour furnished opportunity for a happy, social time.

The bride was charmingly gowned in white messaline with silk lace overdress and silk fringe trimming. Miss Hebbe wore pale blue chiffon over pale blue messaline.

Mr. and Mrs. Shirley will reside on the Dick Brown farm near Thompsonville, which farm Mr. Shirley has purchased. The splendid couple have the well wishes of the entire community being known and respected by all for their admirable qualities. We predict for them success, and a large place in the world of usefulness.

God speed o'er the sea of wedded life.