

Potter, O. J.

March 12th 1897.

Dearest Mattie.

Received your most welcome letter this eve - and was glad to hear from you I suppose you got my last letter that I wrote the 10th.

You said in this last letter that you was ready to come home. I havent got the money to send. But will do the best I can. But if you have decided to have the operation before you come. All right. If you dont feel strong strong enough I dont want you to undertake it. But if you feel able

The sooner you go the quicker you will get well. But I will give you your own way.
But if you would rather
come home first all right.
get some money from your folks or John and I will send it - back as soon as I get it. So if you come home let me know what day to meet you.

I sowed the onion seed yesterday. I felt awful tired when I got through.

ther was a party at Bucks last night but I did not go.

I will go up and see John Thompson Sunday and try and sell him some of them hogs for I dont want to sell the calf. I wish I was able I would come up and see you and go to the doctor with you.
