DESCENDANTS OF FRANCIS MAYBURY, JR.

DESCENDANTS OF FRANCIS\textsuperscript{2} MAYBURY, JR.

Francis Maybury, Jr. was probably born about 1689/90 in Henrico County. While no record of his marriage has been found, several documents prove that his wife was Eleanor Wyche, a daughter of Henry Wyche, who died in 1714. On 12 January 1728/29 Francis Maybury, Jr. dictated his will in the presence of his family and a few friends. He died a short time later.

3 - William Mabry (Francis\textsuperscript{2}, Francis\textsuperscript{1}) was not married. On 13 Jan 1749, William Maybry (sic) wrote his will leaving his estate to his friend, Robt. Echols. The witnesses to the will were Tho. Wynn, Wm. Parham, John Jackson, and Robert Jackson. William died about 1750 in Surry County, Virginia and his will was probated 15 May 1750 at which time Edward Echols became the administrator because his son, Robert, was not yet 21 years of age.\textsuperscript{1}

3 - Francis Mabry (Francis\textsuperscript{2}, Francis\textsuperscript{3}) was born about 1715 in Surry County, Virginia. About 1737 he married Mary Eppes, widow of Daniel Eppes.\textsuperscript{2} On 12 August 1772 Francis\textsuperscript{3} Mabry gave 94 acres of land each to two of his sons, Francis\textsuperscript{4} and Jesse\textsuperscript{4}. Both tracts were described as being on the Pig Pen Branch on the north side of the Tarr River in Bute County.\textsuperscript{3} We have no way of knowing if these gives were in any way related to the event which followed ten months later. On 15 June 1773 Francis\textsuperscript{3} Mabry wrote his will in which he bitterly denounced all six of his children and left his entire estate to his grandson, John\textsuperscript{5} Mabry, who at the time had just passed his 8\textsuperscript{th} birthday! Francis\textsuperscript{3} Mabry died on 18 April 1774 in Bute County, North Carolina.
